SPIRIT IS AT ITS PEAK FOR THANKSGIVING DAY GRID BATTLESFIRST KICK-OFFS AT 8:00 A.M.

THE 27TH ANNUAL THANKSGIVING DAY FOOTBALL CLASSICS of the N.B.C. will be held at Paul Revere Park on Thursday morning. Fifteen games will be played which means that more than 400 boys will see action on the gridirons. We will start the morning off in great style as three terrific games have been scheduled for 8:00 A.M. The game on field #1 between the Corsairs and Copperheads will most likely decide the Junior League championship. How could a more typical picture of AMERICAN YOUTH be presented than to see all these young football players converge upon the battlefield from all sections of the community to settle their main disputes of supremacy on the gridiron. Fireworks galore will be in store for those who brave the elements to see the kids play - yes, the competition has been so close this year that in five of the six leagues, the top game of the morning will most likely see the champions crowned. Some of the teams got off to a fast start early in the season, but in the last two weeks there have been so many upsets that the standings seemed to be shuffled daily - in fact, only a week ago four of the five teams in the Prep League were tied for first place. The day will wind up a banner season in which more than 200 games were played!

ALL AMERICANS in each league will be announced at the giant PEP RALLY & HOMECOMING on Wednesday evening to which everyone is invited - Alumni, Parents, Friends and all the boys. It'll be held in the huge parking lot of the Victor Adding Machine Company at 7:30. We'll have a big bon-fire; captains will make their predictions on the big games, and cheers will liven up the spirit.

To be in tip-top shape, many of the teams are holding extra practice sessions for these biggest games of the year. The spirit has been great this season and in recent weeks it has been very notable that all the teams are pointing for that BIG GAME ON THURSDAY. Snow, rain and muddy fields haven't stopped any of the teams thus far, and come what may on Thanksgiving, --- N. B. C. W I L L P L A Y!

Starting line-ups, scores and highlights of the various games will come over the public address system to keep everyone informed. The National Anthem will be played before each game, and of course, there'll be college music and cheers. Officiating will be handled by N.B.C. Alumni Members and Leaders, and the N.B.C. Dads will be on hand to help with the program wherever needed. Refreshments will be served to all the players after each game in the basement of the fieldhouse, and there'll be coffee for moms and dads.

N.B.C.'s motto for the week is "FIGHT TO WIN" and we know that the hundreds of boys on the gridirons will give their "all" on THURSDAY.

TO ALL THE PLAYERS: This will be one of the top events of the year - everyone is doing their part to make it so. Now it's up to you to put forth your best effort. Every boy should be ready to play at least 1/2 hour before the starting time so the lineups can be announced over the loud speaker system. Be prepared to play on a muddy gridiron, and before entering the banquet hall for refreshments get cleaned up and change your clothes.

All Junior & Frosh league members will use the locker room in the fieldhouse, All Prep, Prepper and Baby league members should meet in the Pine Room to change.

ATTENTION: CAPTAINS

A special meeting will be held at 4:30 at the office, 3841 N. Western on TUESDAY.

8:00 SCHEDULE8:00 A.M. - COPPERHEADS VS CORSAIRS ON GRIDIRON NO. 1

If things continue as they have been going in the Junior League, this game should decide the Championship. The Copperheads will be starting from every formation they know in an effort to outscore the Corsairs. Genovaldi and Don Swanson will be called on for the line plunges and Anderson and Pinello will try the end sweeps. The Corsairs will use Brandenburger up the middle and Murphy will be the big threat on end runs. Murphy, Lucohesi, Schmallbach and Brandenburger will operate from the slot formation, the "T" and the single wing. Either Murphy or Lucohesi will be called on to pass and their favorite targets will be Boring and Kweoh. Don Swanson and Scott are the passing threats of the Copperheads and Anderson or Hennesy are their choice receivers. Anderson, Scott, Hennesy, Spitali and Herb Swanson will bolster their teams defensive lineup, while the Corsairs will be counting on Sovsky, Lasoh, Zanotti and Vertuocol. Kweoh will be called on by his team to handle all of the kicking chores. It is very possible that his accurate toe will be used in field goal attempts. The Copperheads will use Anderson on punts and Spitali on the kick-offs and extra point attempts. His alternate on the kick-offs, Frank Chvojscek, also is very capable. The Corsairs feel they can win with their strong defense and the fact that the offensive unit has the habit of taking advantage of any breaks that arise. The Copperheads promise to throw up an outstanding defense. This could well be a very close game and definitely will be the battle of giants at N.B.C.

8:00 A.M. - RANGERS VS HAWKS ON GRIDIRON NO. 2

Neighborhood rivalry is going to play a big part in this opening game on field two. Just the width of Irving Park Road separates the Team Center I Hawks from the Team Center II Rangers. While neither team has a chance for the Prep "A" League title, Team Center honors will definitely be at stake. The Hawks began the season with a rush and clang to first place during the early weeks of the campaign, but the Asian Flu bug really bit them and they dropped from contention. On the other hand, the Rangers began poorly but finished strong and still had a chance up until last week. Mike Schneider, Wally Morios and Peter Bounougias sparked the Ranger's late season finish with a hard running attack. Pete is the most dangerous of the trio and will have to be watched closely so that he doesn't break into one of his "patented" open field runs. Pete also does the passing and uses Wally Morios and Frank Foy as his most frequent targets. The Rangers use what they refer to as the "backyard T" on offense and have such big men as Frank Foy, George Bartels and Tom Crosssey to use on defense. Bartels and Crosssey will match the kicking of Hawks Duane Wolf and Roy Hoffman. It is doubtful whether the two top Hawk runners, Jack Sharkey and Richard Wentalaff, will be able to play. This means that the capable Bill Berndt will try to handle most of their running attack. The Hawks will undoubtedly do a lot of passing with Wolf and Simonelli throwing to Eugene Bedura. They feel that their tight defense and passing attack will be enough to defeat their Team Center II opponents. What about it Rangers?

8:00 A.M. - BRAVES VS ARMY ON GRIDIRON NO. 3

The Braves say, "We are just plain better than the Army; that's why we'll beat them on Thanksgiving Day". Plunger Tom Stiglio and speedster Paul Quinn are the two main reasons that they feel this way. They have been tough to stop all year, and when the passing of Wayne Hannusch to ends Mike Persson and Tom Kelly is added to this, the Braves have a very convincing argument. But this hasn't phased the Army too far and they can point to their higher position in the standings. Alan Brandenburg and Danny Jamison may be able to stop the Brave's running attack by their defensive play while their teammates, Tim Knight and Art Schneider do a bit of fancy stepping themselves. Knight also throws to Jamison and Bobby Andrews. Knight and Schneider share the kicking chores and will be opposed in that department by Wayne Hannusch of the Braves. The Army has gained strength as the schedule has been played out and will try to show the Braves that they are not "just plain better". This question can only be answered on Thursday morning.

9:00 SCHEDULE9:00 A.M. - MONARCHS VS BEETLES ON GRIDIRON NO. 1

This game is not only important in the standings, but is also a great neighborhood rivalry. The Monarchs, under the able leadership of their coach, Ralph Stahl, will be running Bill Beat from the "T" and the spread formations, and Skip Lovitz will be the main threat from the single wing. The Beetles will run all of their plays from the "T" using Tony Ryan or Stone on the plunges and Wolf or Haller will run the ends. Fink, Ryan or Haller will be throwing to Wolf, Krause and Combiths. Sychowski, who will do most of the throwing for the Monarchs, will try to hit either Skip Lovitz or Conrad. O'Brien, Imburgia, Revoir and Beat will be the chief defense for the Monarchs, while Coleman, Wolf, Haller and the Ryan brothers, Tony and Denny, will be the mainstays for the Beetles. Both teams will try for the extra points on runs. The Monarchs will use O'Brien for punts and kick-offs, and Wolf, Haller and Piscitello will do the kicking for the Beetles. Coach Stahl thinks his team will win because of their light, speedy backfield and the fighting spirit displayed by the entire team. The Beetles may be handicapped due to a shortage of players, but they could pick up a win if their offense and defense click together in this last and most important game of the season.

9:00 A.M. - BOMBERS VS NAVAJOS ON GRIDIRON NO. 2

A combination of the single wing left and the "T" should prove to be the main offensive threat for the Bombers. This attack is spearheaded by the hard charging of Ted Berger and Bob Hild and the aerials of a trio of passers, Hild, Dale Hay and Bill Kijek, to top-flight end Frank Agnello. They also boast the largest line in the league with such stalwarts as Agnello, Hay and Maurice Schuman. Agnello and Hay also share the kick-off and punting duties. The Navajos have a small team but several of them are real "scat-backs" and are liable to break into the clear at almost any time. Gary Pellegrini is the most dangerous of the group and John George, Ralph Russetto and Phil Emming must be watched very carefully, too. Emming and Pellegrini often go to the air looking for end Earl Toler, but their line has been leaky this year and they generally don't get much time to throw. George Albright and Elmer Redszus have played well in the line all year, and perhaps if the Navajos have a few practices before the big game, they will be able to plug up some of these leaks. Emming will probably handle all of the kicking. Both teams have had their ups and downs but a victory for either team would really cap off the season. A success on Thanksgiving Day would be what they need to finish football in fine style.

9:00 A.M. - BLACKHAWKS VS MOTHS ON GRIDIRON NO. 3

The Blackhawks have the title clinched but the Moths still have the spirit which they had at the start of the season. The big running of the Blackhawks is made up of Randy Pellegrini and Russ Kweoh. During the football season they have been the main threat to all of the other teams in the Baby League. "Spit" Spittlar has also been one of the top ball carriers. The strong line of the Blackhawks has also meant victory with top-notch blockers and tacklers such as Joe Blaha, George Schur, John Eischen and Len Schutz holding that line. Although the Moths have some of the biggest men in the league they have been unable to cope with the speed of the Blackhawks. However, there was an exception when the Moths played their top game of the season and edged out the Blackhawks by a 6 to 0 score. The Moths have the best passing attack in the league with Tom Meyer doing the tossing. Norm Taylor has proven himself to be the star end. Jimmy Maier and Rich Walsh are the leading runners for the Moths. Lejwan, the Kopp brothers, Marvin and Kimberg are the standouts on defense. Tom Oshgan and John Eichinger have been doing a good job in the blocking department helping the runners to rack up the points.

10:00 A.M. SCHEDULE

CARDINALS VS FALCONS - GRIDIRON NO. 1 Even though neither team is in the running, this game should be one of the best battles of the day. Both groups have the habit of upsetting the favorites as the high-flying Dragons and Warriors found out. The Falcons handed the Dragons their only defeat of the year and the Cardinals really surprised the Warriors last week by trimming them 12 to 0. So anything can happen in this game. The Falcons have been winning their games mainly by virtue of a very tight defense and the steady running of halfback Bruce Fulton; they have also been able to take advantage of the breaks at very crucial moments. Towers of strength on defense are Wallace Erickson, Roy Grosskopf, Robert Knapp and Frank Tardio. The Cardinal answer to these Falcon trump cards centers around Frank Howanietz who has been spectacular on occasion. Once he gets in the clear, he's gone! Spectators will probably see a good deal of passing attempted by the Cardinals with Bob Krahl sometimes on the throwing end and other times on the receiving end. The Falcons won twice as many games as did the Cardinals during the regular season, but you can be sure that the Cards won't allow their Team Center 1 rivals to rest on their laurels, and another upset may be in the making! Both teams are up for this one and it ought to be a dandy.

SPIDERS VS OWLS - GRIDIRON NO. 2 - This game is the big one for the Spiders because it may determine the championship of the Prep "B" league. The Owls have had the crown in mind all season and feel that a victory may make the decision final. The Spiders are currently leading, and are the favorites, but the Owls vividly remember the last baseball playoffs when they were the favorites and lost; they hope to turn the tables on the Spiders on Thursday. The Spiders are fortunate in having a running and passing star like Steve Hoffman, ends like Gordon Pleske and Walter Thiele, a very strong defense, and Coach Ralph Miller who is sure to throw in some razzle-dazzle plays. Joe Picola shouldn't be forgotten either, since even though he is a heavy, he passes often and even runs with the ball on trick plays. Thiele has more touchdowns to his credit than any other end in N.B.C. and Pleske is by far the best kicker and blocker in the whole league. The Spiders also possess depth in all positions. Tom Coppola, Terry Hlavac and John Weigelt complete their elusive backfield and Jim Lancaster, Chuck Piscitello, Richard Mitchell and Steve Moore make up a very formidable forward wall. One commodity that the Spiders lack and the Owls have in abundance is TEAM play. The "grandstanding" which is typical of a couple of the Spiders is not to be found on the Team Center 1 representatives. This is their hope for victory. They have individual stars of their own too; such as halfbacks Tom Beringer, Bob Mauer, and Billy Gast and All-League candidate at end, Jim Traba. Ron Bahr, Joe Traubenik and John Mielke are also going to present defensive problems to the Spiders. Both teams have shown good sportsmanship, fine play and excellent attendance all season so this game should prove to be one of the top attractions of the day!

BEES VS LIONS - GRIDIRON NO. 3 - The Bees had a hard time getting their team organized at the beginning of the season and got off to a slow start but since then their spirit has been right up with the rest of the teams. The Lions are out in front of the Bees in the standings but with the spirit the Bees have developed the big game on Thanksgiving will prove to be one of the most exciting. The Lions have come to be known as the team that fears nothing. Pat Stanton, John Garrity and Bill Griffin are three of the reasons why the team is known as the fighting Irish. Charley Christner, Pat Stanton, and John Garrity have been taking care of the task of scoring the points for the Lions. Some of the outstanding linemen protecting their backfield are Bill Griffin, James Zahn and Dan O'Brien, Greg Serviss and Mike Norek have also contributed to the power of the line. The Bees have Phil Stahl, one of the top quarterbacks of the league, calling signals. Don Bushnell proved himself to be the outstanding broken field runner on the team in their game against the Moths by making a 50 yard run through the entire Moth team. Mike and Bill Hallahan have been holding down the end spots during the season and Roy Wagner has played tackle on offense and linebacker on defense making the Bees one of the hardest teams to get through or around. Don Scherer has been taking some of the handoffs from Stahl in the backfield to help with the running attack.

11:00 A.M. SCHEDULE

WARRIORS VS DRAGONS - GRIDIRON NO. 1 - If there ever was a confident team and one itching for a football game - that's the Warriors! The Dragons have kept one step ahead of them over the entire season and must now tackle their persistent pursuers with the chips down. The Frosh League crown is at stake. There isn't a better trained team in the Club than the Warriors thanks to coaches Irv Huber and Bill Lindahl, and they are out to prove that they can beat the Dragons. This is something that they have been unable to accomplish this year. Cagey Paul Kargas directs the team from a tight "T" and can either send one of his able backs such as the Kelly brothers or Roward Baden bucking into the line, or pass to ends Jim Vertucci and Bill Benson. Linemen Pete Jaquet, Tom Ohlhaber, Richard Sheridan, Wayne Frankowiak, Mike Mees and Glen Hannusoh can always be counted on to charge hard and fast. Several Warriors have done the kicking, but Bill Benson is the most effective. Coach Ed Friz's Dragons are just as determined as the Warriors and point to their previous record. They have confidence in halfbacks Kevin Coleman and Bob Dietrich, and they are sure that their outstanding athlete, Chuck Pearl, is going to have a terrific day. Chuck is a terror on defense and is also the frequent recipient of Coleman passes. The Dragons generally don't score many points, and there is seldom a need to because of their almost airtight defense. Not many runners get by the forward wall of Joe Lennert, John Guleserian, Rog Rojo, John Koertgen, Ross Sternello and Russ Kohlrust. This game has been given the top spot because of the high calibre of the teams involved and we are sure that they will live up to their advance billing.

COUGARS VS FIREFLIES - GRIDIRON NO. 2 - Another championship hangs in the balance on this field to climax what has been one of the most hectic battles in N.B.C. history. Four different teams have been in first place in this league during the season, and now just the Cougars and Fireflies boast the finest races for the medals and only 2 point separates them. The Fireflies boast that the finest runner in the league is Robert Peskac, and they get very few arguments on that score. Buzzie, as Peskac is called, has speed to burn and can turn a corner on a dime. He's not the only Firefly that can run though; Chuck Marine, Mike Boywid and Mike Freund also pose problems for the enemy. Their top linemen, who are so important in blocking are Don Lopat, Ron Rojo, Dave Stahl, Richard Friz and Nick Diaou. Unlike their opponents, the Cougars rely mainly on the Gerke-to-Oltmanns pass combination. In addition, Gerke is a very hard runner and one who can be counted on to make a pretty good gain on every try. Bill Kramer will also have to be watched by the Firefly defense. The Cougars are confident that defensemen Bob Blake, Tom Simon, Wayne Serviss and Bob Offenloch will be able to stop the Fireflies' devastating ground game. Both teams have come up off the floor and by doing so have shown terrific spirit and fight. They're up for this one and it should be a great game to watch and play in too.

LOCUSTS VS WASPS - GRIDIRON NO. 3 - The Locusts want to prove definitely that they are real champs by knocking of their neighborhood rivals and closest competitors, the Wasps, on Thursday. If the Wasps win all of their remaining games including the one with the Locusts, they will win the championship by 1/2 point. It is going to be a tough, hard-played game, no matter what. The Wasps have been just a little behind all year and now they're at the point of pulling the championship out in the last game. The Locusts say, "NO"! They feel that their offense is just too potent, and they point to fleet half-backs Bill Woodburn, Mickey Sloan and John Jost. Wasp rosters claim that Werner Kief, Bill Schneider and Dennis Knelp are just as capable, and that in addition, their line of Dave Gott, Dave Brown and Bob Jaeger is better than anything the Locusts have to offer. However, Locust linemen Greg Immel, Steve Furukawa, Art Lantz and Alan Grecco have proved themselves in the past. The Wasps started practicing football in August which shows their determination to win, and by the same token, the Locusts have yet to win medals in their whole career at N.B.C. so they want this game very badly. This is really going to be a "fight to Win"!

12:00 NOON SCHEDULES

FLYING TIGERS VS HORNETS - GRIDIRON NO. 1 The Flying Tigers and the Hornets are going to be given the opportunity to redeem themselves and end their rather dismal seasons in a blaze of glory by being allowed to play on Thanksgiving. Neither team has shown much, but they will have the chance to prove that they do have something on the ball this Thursday. The Hornets were helped out when some of the players from the dropped Jaguars were temporarily placed on their team, and the Flying Tigers got help from the Seabees. N.B.C. has done everything it could to help these teams, now its up to them. Both groups have good material if they would only organize themselves. For example, the Flying Tigers have excellent runners in Al Andrews and Denny Malozek and Tim O'Neal is quite a good passer. They claim that they will have a full good team; let's see if they keep this promise. The Hornets also should be no pushover. Ray Imburgia, Dick Ettelt, Jim Switalla, John Mitchell and Jordan Fein all have ability. A little spirit can go a long way; prove it on Thanksgiving morning!

COMMANCHES VS FIREFLIES - GRIDIRON NO. 2 - Because there are five teams in the Prep "A" league, one of them would not have played unless another team played twice. The Fireflies have been chosen for this honor. The Commanches will play their final football game against them and hope to upset them and end their season on the upgrade. They knocked the Hawks out of the race a couple of weeks ago by clobbering them 21 to 0, which shows that they do have the material. Jerry Sikkut is a fine runner both on plunges and in the open field. The Commanches often take to the air with either Dale Long or Dan Courtney doing the pitching. John Hamersmith is usually on the receiving end. The Hottinger brothers and Jerry Sikkut are best on defense and Dale Long handles all of the kicking. The Fireflies may try more passes in this game than in the one with the Cougars. Bob Peskac and Mike Boywid are both pretty slick at flinging the pigskin and Rojo, Stahl and Malick are equally adept at receiving it. Look for Boywid and Stahl to do most of the kicking. The Commanches said that they thought they would win because their opponents will be so tired from the Cougars contest. We wonder if the Fireflies are as weak as all that?

EAGLES VS ORIOLES - GRIDIRON NO. 3 - The championship of Team Center 1 is at stake in this final game of the afternoon. An extra incentive for the game is that they are neighborhood rivals and live only a few blocks apart. The Eagles finished very strong and came within a point of the leaders in the Prepper League, and the Orioles, who just entered N.B.C. at the start of the football season, want very much to win their first Thanksgiving Day game. Both teams have terrific running attacks. The Orioles, boast of John Cannata and John Ward who never say die, and the Eagles point to high-scoring Ken Fredrickson, Joe Walsh and Ralph Crome. Ralph also does the passing, mainly to John Powers and Joe Walsh. The Orioles use a duo of passers, Tom Triphahn and Fred Grimm, who often connect with speedy end Tom Prokop. John Failla is their best kicker and Kent Caldwell, Ray Salm and Fred Grimm are "Tigers" on defense. Crome generally handles the kicking for the Eagles and gets good protection from outstanding linemen Harold Fischer, Don Domiano and Jack Jennings. The Eagles hope to score a lot from the "T" formation while the Orioles will work off of the modified "T". We wouldn't be surprised if this is the start of a terrific rivalry and all we can say is, "May the best team win!"

DON'T FORGET THE BIG PEP MEETING ON WEDNESDAY NIGHT AT 7:30.

"YOU AND ME"

John Lovitz of the Monarchs has not played a Thanksgiving Day game for three years. Coach Stahl is wondering whether or not he'll be able to play this year.

Greg Immel should learn to pronounce the name of his team the "Locusts" by request of the members so his sister stops calling them the LOCOS.
