FOOTBALL CLASSICS ON THURSDAY, THANKSGIVING DAY

3 GAMES EVERY HOUR ON THE HOUR

On Thursday, November 23rd, the 37th annual Thanksgiving Day Football Classics will be held on the three gridirons at Paul Revere Park. Games will be in progress as early as 8:00 A.M. and on every succeeding hour six different teams will take over the fields of battle. Each team will play one of their toughest opponents, and in several of the leagues, championships will be at stake. Since the start of the season in Mid-September, the teams have been pointing to be at their best for these big games; now they're awaiting the zero hour! Thanksgiving Day has always seen some of the biggest upsets and surprises - like last year when the "underdog" Vikings rose to the occasion and beat the Astros 27 to 14. The game didn't mean a thing in the standings as both teams were near the bottom, but the Astros had won twice as many games during the season, however that was all forgotten - IT WAS THANKSGIVING DAY!

To add to the spirit of the games, about 50 girl cheerleaders, most of whom have brothers in the Club, will be on hand for every game. Officiating will be handled by Alumni of N.B.C. and our Dads Club will be helping on the field and wherever needed, and like in past years will serve refreshments to the players and parents after every game.

Parking facilities have been made available by Victor-Comptometer so be sure to tell your parents and friends. In past years, sometimes it was just impossible to find parking space within a few blocks - not it's available Free right next to the park with entrances at Irving Park & Rockwell and Campbell & Byron.

IMPORTANT: Be sure to be in the clubhouse at least 1/2 hour before the starting time of your game. The clubhouse will be open at 7:00 A.M. Each team will have a separate dressing room in the clubhouse and all boys should use the east entrance. If the fields are frozen wear gloves; if it's warm, you'll probably be playing in a sea of mud so be sure to bring clean clothes. Also, if you want a good rooting section, it's up to your team members to each bring out about 10 people.

PEP RALLY ON WEDNESDAY

On Wednesday evening, November 22nd, a huge Pep Rally will be held in the Clubhouse to kick off the Big Football Classics. All Americans in each of the leagues, voted by player opponents, officials and coaches, will be announced, and certificates of Merit will be awarded to each boy mentioned for a remembrance. High Point Attendance awards will be given out also if they're delivered on time. The cheer leaders will lead all the rah, rahs and the captains will make predictions on the outcome of the games and the Dads Club will award a few footballs to the boys who display the best Grid Classic posters. The rally will start promptly at 7:30 P.M.

Details of the games are as follows:

8:00 A.M.

TARANTULAS VS WILDCATS ON FIELD NO. 1 - This game will be a championship battle as both teams have won halves this season. The beginning of the year was unfortunate for the Tarantulas as they were short of players in many games. Now that they field a full team, thanks to Coach Taylor, they come at their foes with the idea of running right over them. They have great team spirit and always give a cheer after after their games; win, lose, or tie. They have an extremely strong backfield with Jim Musker as the quarterback and play caller. Ed Feuling, Roy Schnoor and John Musker round out the backfield in a very fashionable way. Feuling has got to be one of the best backs in the Club as he is fast, deceptive and real powerful. As for Schnoor and Musker, they both are speedy and shifty and provide the remaining ingredients in their well rounded running attack. Frank Kaufmann and Steve Rollins are the two ends who are on the receiving side of an occasional Jim Musker aerial. Tim Kane, Shawn Kane and Gary Floden provide the beef for the Tarantulas' offensive line, while Feuling, Shawn Kane, John Musker and Tim Kane do the same on defense. The Wildcats now are another story. They won the 1st half in the Blue division with some fine efforts of Kevin O'Leary, John Fixari and Rich Burja. Fixari is a speedy runner, but they have a basically passing team. O'Leary or Fixari team up with Burja on the pass plays as the offensive line does a fairly decent job of pass blocking. Ed O'Brien, Larry Hubberts, Art Schuster and Smith are the men whom I am talking about. Their defense is strong with the aforementioned players carrying the load. Although the Wildcats have a good team, and the nucleus of a better team, they lack one characteristic of a championship team. Their coach does not wear a red cap, (something desired by the Club's Rules Committee) they are poor and disinterested sports as they don't give a cheer after their games, and their reason for wanting to beat the Tarantulas on Thanksgiving Day is because they claim they HATE them! These three points are undesirable to a team wishing to win all the marbles, and I hope they can change their ideas before it is too late.

SCORPIONS VS HAWKS - FIELD 2. The Scorpions are coached by John Fronczak who has worked with them for the last few years. Tom Schmidt calls the plays with Neal Farrella at QB. Dan Murphy, Tom Schmidt, Mike Schmidt, Neal Farrella, and Jerry Rhei are the rotating backs all capable of power and speed. Jay Farrella and Jeff Seiburg are the leading scorers backed up by the strong line of Joe Imburgia, Mark Penland, and Bob Kartheiser. The good offensive blocking also enables Bill Eisenbeis to throw to Jeff Seiburg and Jay Farrella. Farrella and Sieburg are the top scorers working out of a T-formation and using a double reverse to their best advantage. The Defense is made up of Bill Eisenbeis, Mark Penland, and Bob Kartheiser. The Scorps think they will win because they have the best backfield and pass defense. The Hawks are just as well qualified with Mr. George Valentine as coach. Jim Simpson calls the plays and also runs the team at quarterback. Simpson and Zeigler are the outstanding runners as both are powerful and shifty. The offensive line is made up of Rocco Sardilli, Alan DeNozo, Gary Jordan and John Clementson. When in trouble, Simpson goes to the air with John Clementson as his target. When called on to punt, Rocco Sardilli does the job well. The defensive line is composed of Sardilli, Clementson and Simpson who always put on a strong rush. Both teams have played well throughout the season, and the Hawks 0-8 record is not as bad as it looks. The Scorpions are 4-4 in their league and have also played outstanding ball. Neither team has played each other this year so the game will be exciting and full of surprises.

BUCCS VS EAGLES, PUP LEAGUE ON FIELD NO. 3 - In the championship game for Pup League T. C. 1 & 2, the Eagles will take on the Buccs in what will probably be one of the best matches of the morning. The last time these two foes met, the Buccs came out a 16 to 13 victor as the Eagles couldn't stop the tremendous quarterback of the Buccs, Steve Haftl. Haftl has been the story of the Buccs' success as he has averaged two touchdowns per game. Although Haftl is a fine runner, powerful Pat Phelan helps to take some of the load off his quarterback. The Eagles will try to counter the Buccs' potent offense with a strong defensive line. John Tabisz, Brian Stevan, Mark Jakacki and Louis Zenkel make up the Eagles' fearsome foursome and the Buccs will have trouble blocking them throughout the game. The offensive linemen of the Buccs that will try to open holes for their backs will be made up of some very determined boys. Joe Eberwein along with the Buccs' great center, Eddie Scharringhausen, will be out to show their best in the season's final game. The Eagles have two speedy and shifty runners in Jim Nelsen and Tom Geraghty to lead their team in quest of victory. Dean Meyer, Harry Ohlig, Frank Pinn, and Jason Holm plan to spring these two runners as they make up the main part of the Eagles' offensive line. The passing chores of both teams have been important in their success. Henry Feuntes or Steve Haftl usually pass to their good end, Pat Hughes for the Buccs while Geraghty connects with Nelsen and Jeff Villwock for the Eagles. Rex Pecoraro, Jeff Patris and John Scharringhausen are mainstays of the Buccs' defense that will add some excitement to the game. Coaches Jim Nelsen Sr. and Sal Vasta both agree that this contest will be a terrific spectacle and may the better team win.

BLUEJAYS VS BUCCS ON FIELD NO. 1 - This will be the first appearance of the Bluejays on Thanksgiving while the Buccs are looking for their second win in a row on Turkey day. The Buccs are in second place and the Bluejays in third in the White Division. Throughout this season they met four times, each winning two. The Bluejays think they're going to win because all their players are looking forward for a victory. Both teams run from a T formation and go to the air quite often. They both use heavy back plays. For the Bluejays Craig DeCaluwe usually looks for Rich Cwik or Les Nagy. For the Buccs John Mayer tries to hit Phil Benson or Frank Remeus. Each team also has a fast running attack. The Bluejays' offense is centered around Les Nagy, the quarterback. His other backs are Tony DeCaro who is fast, and Mark Lengyle who is shifty. Bill Veith calls the plays for the Buccs and is usually their quarterback. Mike Chism, halfback of the Buccs, has made many fine runs for them. The deciding factor of this game will be the lines. The Bluejays front wall on offense is headed by Randy Buresh, Craig DeCaluwe and Jim Cox. Their opponents offensive and defensive line is headed by Mike Phalen, Chris Wells, and Rudy Remeus. The defensive wall for the Bluejays is made up of Jim Cox, Rich Cwik, Mike Stone and Pat Dempsey. The Buccs think they're going to win because they have a strong defense. Both teams have fine kickers. Craig De Caluwe kicks for the Bluejays and John Mayer for the Buccs. They both get good distance. The Buccs' strategy seems to be to get a good drive going; if they fail, they usually get off a good kick and then wait for an offensive mistake by their opponents. I'm sure Mr. Jarvis, the coach of the Buccs, has a great deal of confidence in his team. So on Thanksgiving, I'm sure both teams will fight to the end in a close match.

By: Jim Kartheiser

BOBCATS VS SPIDERS ON FIELD NO. 2 In another battle between teams of different divisions, the Bobcats in the White Division will meet head on with the Spiders of the Blue Division. Both teams have shut out their opponents on the two previous Turkey Days making this one all the more important. The Bobcats have been on the losing end in most of their games this year but Coach Tom Borgert will have them keyed up for a victory on this vital day. They use the standard T formation with Steve Borgert calling the plays. Most of their scores this year have been produced by good deceptive runs by powerful Dan Sugrue and speedy Steve Borgert. Mike Gillis does the passing and his main targets usually are Mike Jerger, Dan Sugrue and Steve Borgert. The Bobcats have a fine punter in Andy Johnson and an excellent place kicker in Mike Gillis. Their big offensive and defensive line is lead by Andy and Don Johnson, and Mike and Ron Gillis. They are sure that they are going to take this game hands down because they have not as of yet lost on Thanksgiving. On the other hand, Mr. Bauer's Spiders will run off their plays from the single wing. Their offense will mainly use the speed of Rick Schmidt and Ray Kestler, and the powerful moves of Mark Killermann. The Bobcats had better watch out for their tricky double slots and double reverses which have proved to be their best plays during the season. Dan Casey has the kicking job and can easily put his team out of danger. The Spiders have a good coach and a well-balanced attack. It should be a great battle but I think the Spiders have the edge.

HORNETS VS SCORPIONS PUP LEAGUE FIELD 3 - Two of the most evenly matched teams of the Pup League will face each other Thanksgiving for the final match of their league to decide the Championship. The Hornets claim the most powerful offensive team of the league. To support this, Jim Stahl, John Koeller and Tom Beck control the backfield, while linemen John Reichardt, Ed Gardner, Pete Lazzara and Wallace Hennig hold back the defensive Scorpion rush of Dave Pfetzer, John Banl and Terry Mossier but the Scorpion team is the most versatile with Jerry Horn calling T, Shotgun, and end-run formations. The Hornets defensive line will be responsible for stopping the powerful end sweeps of the Scorpions. The Hornet defensive line is led by John Reichardt, Wallace Hennig, Ed Gardner and Ricky Abplanalp. The Scorpion runners, Larry Mosier, Craig Loicana and Jerry Horn have protection from offensive linemen Jeff Jensen, Jim Sieburg, Steve Bluemel and Jim Roeber. The Scorpions' pass attack has also been successful with Jim Roeber and Tom Horn receiving. Roeber has also scored the most touchdowns on the team. The Hornets call plays from difficult single wing and spread formations. Their spread passes have been responsible for many touchdowns. Top pass receivers are Jerry Koeller, Pete Lazzara and Ricky Abplanalp. The Scorpions' defense will have to be especially careful of Jim Stahl, John Koeller and Pete Lazzara since they are top scorers. For the Scornions Jim Roeber and Jerry Horn lead in the scoring department. Both teams consider their opponents on Thursday as their toughest team to beat. This will prove to be an exciting action-packed game.

RAVENS VS VIKINGS ON FIELD NO. 1 * The unpredictable Ravens take on the Vikings in this great game. After the Ravens tied for first place in the first half they slumped considerably to 4th place. The Ravens team has fallen apart and their coach Mr. Slowik will try to pull them together by Turkey Day. The Ravens will have to set up an outstanding pass defense because the Vikings best play is the pass pattern. John Byrnes will be doing the throwing and Mike McGann and John Stachura will be on the receiving end. The Ravens will give Ted Slowik and John Iwaniki the task of controlling the Viking passes.

RAVENS VS VIKINGS cont'd.

Once in a while the Vikings might try sending Len Dyrda around the end but Guy Vitello, Steve Boblewski and Doug Jaworski will be there to stop him for the Ravens. When the Ravens are on offense shifty Pete Leyva will be directing the attack. Leyva will be looking for Carlson or Iwaniki in the air and speedy Rich Steinmetz on the ground. The Viking defense though led by Jim Camper, Jim Gillespie, Charley Martindale, Bob Galassi and Bob Schamberger will be ready to stop them. The Ravens have been using the T-formation on offense but the hard nose Hornets have been driving them into the ground whenever they have played - but the Ravens would rather beat the Wasps for an unprintable answer. The Viking team considers themselves the most hard driving, spirited team in the league, but the Ravens will be out there trying to disprove them.

By: John Schmitz

COUGARS VS EAGLES ON FIELD NO. 2 - For the second Thanksgiving Day the Eagles and Cougars will battle for a big win on the biggest day of the year. Last year's game proved the Eagles more powerful. The Cougars are out to win this time.

Jim Schmitz will call the plays for the Cougars against the Tabisz & Jennings' squad from a T formation. Their pass attack has also been very effective this year. Top receivers for the Cougars are Ray Schultz and Wally Sawibekian. The Eagles will especially watch Saribekian since he's also one of the Cougars' top scorers. Other top scorers are Jim Schmitz and Dave Mulcrome. But the Eagles claim their tight pass defense led by defensive linemen Tom Jennings, Carl Steinbicker and Marty Pistone will stop the Cougars' passes cold.

The Cougars ground attack will be led by their speedy backfield runners: Jim Schmitz, Steve Roosevelt, Mike Krey and Louis Perez. They claim their best play is the quarterback sweeping the ends with linemen Russ Krunig, Ed Krey, Ray Heitlage and Joe Lehman leading the way. The Cougars' captain Jim Schmitz commented his team had a good chance of winning because of its strong backfield.

Now to get on to the Eagles. Their offensive ground attack will be led by offensive linemen Joe Pantano, Tom Jennings, Carl Steinbicker, George Maruschak, Jose Perez and Bill Stevens. These will be followed by the powerful backfield consisting of Tom Tabisz at quarterback and Lenny Jackaki, John Escher, Dave Drobeno and Russ Pawlowski filling in vacant backfield positions. The Eagles put their roll-out pass in the "Best Play" position this year with Doug Mai, Gary Novel and Marty Pistone receiving the Tabisz passes. To counteract this the Cougars, who claim a lightning fast pass rush, depend on Russ Krunig, Ed Krey, Roy Heitlage and Rich Gorski, their defensive line. The Eagles also claim a strong defense on passes. This and a hard driving offensive team will give the Cougars a rough time. This season the teams have only met once. That game produced a close score with the Eagles winning. Just another proof that the outcome of this game will be unpredictable.

By: Bob Angeli

WASPS VS SPIDERS IN PUP LEAGUE - This looks to be one of the most exciting games of the day. The coaching of Mr. Niemitz has spurred his team on. He has formed outstanding players out of John Fahey, Jerry Dwyer and Shawn Ryan. Mike Kitl, the coach of the Spiders, has changed the attitude of the Spider team, and turned them into a pennant contender. This will be the third meeting of these teams. The Wasps pounced on them in the first meeting 38 to 0. The Spiders fought back in the second game for a 7-all tie. This third meeting should tell who the boss will be. The Spiders fearsome foursome Steve Mannor, Steve Killerman, Tim Koertgen and Tom Lesser will be going after the Wasps. Quarterbacks Jerry Dwyer, Albert Cisneros, Mike Niemitz, Tom Krier and Bob Egan will try to hold back the Spider defense. When the Spiders get their hands on the ball Shawn Ryan, Pat Fahey, Greg Niemitz and Tom Krier will be red dogging. The Wasps offensive team is headed by the gruesome Fahey brothers and their outstanding quarterback, Jerry Dwyer. The Spiders offensive will go with Brian Lucas and speedy Greg Kestler. On the whole both teams look good and this should be an interesting game. Good Luck.

By: John Schmitz

11:00 A.M.

HORNETS VS WASPS ON FIELD NO. 1 - In the third meeting of PAPA HORNET and GOLDEN THROAT the championship of the Red Division will be at stake. In the two previous meetings each team has won one game. The first game was a 7 to 6 victory for the Wasps. The Hornets won the second match by a score of 7 to 6. The Wasps seem to be the favorites because they have held the title for 4 straight years. Both teams have a fine running game with good blocking and good passing.

The Wasps are coached by Mr. Ralph Stahl who is clearly visible by his red hat and cigar. Mr. Stahl has Jim Vogel calling the plays and playing quarterback. Vogel, along with the power of Jim Landi and Bruce Martin, and the speed of Steve Foulk make many running combinations possible. Jeff Kovacs is outstanding in the backfield with shifty running and speed making it possible for him to scramble when necessary. Kovacs does the passing with Ed Reichardt, Scott Brendal and Glenn Stahl as receivers.

The strong offensive line is composed of Bob Angeli, Glenn Stahl, Jim Maggorie, and Mark Payne. The mighty Wasp defense is made up of Jim Barrett, Robert Angeli and Glenn Stahl.

The Wasps will have their hands full in handling the Hornets strong offense. Coach Herb Veith has Bill Abplanalp calling the plays and holding the reins at Quarterback. Aided in the backfield by Tom Abplanalp (Power and speed) and Tony Richards (shifty), the Hornets have a very strong running game. The Hornets work out of a T-formation and have used the quick opener to their greatest advantage this year. Sam Lazzara does the passing and usually his targets are Tom Doloughty, Jim Peters, and Bill Waldron. The offensive line is made up of Marc Maas, Ron Meck, Ron Clausen, and Dennis Luchewski. The defense is made up of Jerry Haslwanter, John Storc, Chuck Becker, Tom Pauli, Frank Stegbauer and Erhardt Chorle.

Since both teams think the other is the toughest opponent in their league, and each team has one victory in their previous matches, this should be by far the best game on Turkey Day.

By Ricky Meck

SPARTANS VS CENTIPEDES ON FIELD NO. 2 - This may not be the championship game, but both teams will be in there to win. These two teams are close in the standings; they're not in first or second but they both have beaten some of the top teams. The Centipedes won the last two "Turkey Games" with 20 to 0 and 32 to 0 shutouts. So now they're going out for 3 in a row. On the other hand last year's T.C. 2 champion Spartans are looking for their first win on Turkey day. They were upset last year by a score of 10 to 0. Bill Langner has been a key man in the Spartans' victories. He calls the plays and is on the receiving end of many crucial touchdown passes. Mr. Yacobucci, coach of the Spartans, has his team sticking to the air most of the game. Bill is called back as heavy-back quite often and either throws a pass or starts a running play with a handoff to Mike Burns or Jeff Konicek who are both powerful runners. The Spartans' line, when up to it, can withstand many attackers. Ron Lombardo and Bob Burns are two leaders on their line. Their defensive line is nothing to laugh at. Steve Madrain and Larry Wawrzyniak hold key positions on this line and often stop the runner before he gets going. The Centipedes have been waiting for this game all year. They have established an offensive attack that can go for broke and come out ahead. They mix up their plays thus keeping the defense off balance. The Centipedes running attack consists of Pat Freund, Ken Janisch, Skip Dombkowski, and Mike Faltum, who are all tricky runners that can easily find a hole and make use of it. The Centipedes can go to the air if necessary. Bib Karl Kaufmann is usually the receiver and has caught many passes that smaller ends would miss. Pat Freund does a fine job of calling the plays. Jack Jost, Centipedes' coach, has them work from a slot formation. Their offensive and defensive lines are also tough. The key men are Tim Melchori, Mark Kaufmann, George Mueller, Dave Dombkowski and Jerry Knowles. Both teams have strong kickers that can kick the ball out of danger when necessary. Karl Kaufmann and Mike Faltum kick for the Centipedes and Bill Langner for the Spartans. The last time these two teams played, the Centipedes won 12 to 0, but we're sure that the Spartans are going to put up a good fight and make this game real tight.

By: Jim Kartheiser

LEOPARDS VS JAGUARS ON FIELD NO. 3 - This championship game should be a clash that will be heard around the world. They both have confidence in themselves that they will turn up to be the victors in this bruising game. The Leopards with such fine ball carriers as Scott Geldmeyer, Paul Jensen and Bob Smith will try many deceptive plays. When they pass, Jim Gilger will try to thread the needle to either Tony Dampitz or Chuck Edwards. Their top offensive men are Mike Floden, John Stern, Mark Takaki, Peter Bossier and Robert Hubberts and their big defensive is composed of Tom Pattullo, Burton Higham, Mike Dampitz, Anthony Huerta and Scott Clancy. They will often use their famous screen play and will use Jim Gilger or Scott Geldmeyer as their kicker. With such under-rated coaches as Rich Paschall and Terry Kautz and the league's best offense, the Leopards feel that they have the game in the bag. As for the Jaguars, Coach Joe Gerage does a splendid job as the head man. They use the well-known T formation with Randy Zarecky and Sal Gerage calling the plays in the huddle. The running quartet of the Jaguars includes speedsters Steve Skinner and Randy Zarecky and power men Bob Hassimoto and Sal Gerage. The football, when thrown in the air, is passed usually to Mark Hanneman by Kyle Sayed or Sal Gerage. Passing has been a big factor this season in gaining big yards for the Jaguars. Tom Nixon, Mike Elkin and Tom Foley are their expert defense men while Artie Neidmeyer, Ralph and Fred Kraft, and Mark Whalen are their superiors on offensive blocking. Kyle Sayed takes care of the punting and place kicking chores. The Jaguars say that they have a better team than the Leopards and are willing to prove it. Well, they will get their big chance on the all-important day.

TARANTULAS TAKE TITLE

By: Steve Voith

In one of the most exciting and fast moving games of the year, the Tarantulas captured the Blue Division 2nd half title by downing the Spiders 8 to 6. The Tarantulas took the opening kickoff and the tough Spiders didn't let them budge for any sizeable yardage. When the Spider got the ball, they marched down the field with the aid of a penalty or two, and Rick Schmidt scooted into the end zone from the 4 yard line. The try for the extra point failed. The Tarantulas got the ball again late in the 2nd quarter at about the 25 yard line. They drove down to the 2 yard line before Jim Musker twisted and turned into the end zone for the T.D. The try for point was no good. The entire 2nd half was a neck and neck battle as both teams were fighting for a score. The Tarantulas pushed the Spiders back to their own 2 yard line and then Shawn Kane came storming in on Rick Schmidt and tackled him in the end zone for a winning safety. At this point the time ran out and the Tarantulas were the victors and 2nd half champs.

"YOU AND ME"

By: Rich Paschall

Guy Vitello and Tom Szybszka, both of the Tribe Ravens, placed 1st in the Chicago Park District checker tournament in the Midget and Junior divisions respectively. Congratulations!

Nick Esposito has a nice new volleyball uniform. What an athlete!

John Griffin has a pair of air-conditioned pants. It's the best thing for Thursday night volleyball.

Ralph "Mr. Cigar" Stahl would really like to have the Tribe Wasps play the Pup Hornets on Thanksgiving. That way he would win no matter what!

Starting this week there will be a "You and Me" mail box in the game room. If you have "You and Me" news turn it in at your meeting or put it into the "You and Me" mailbox.

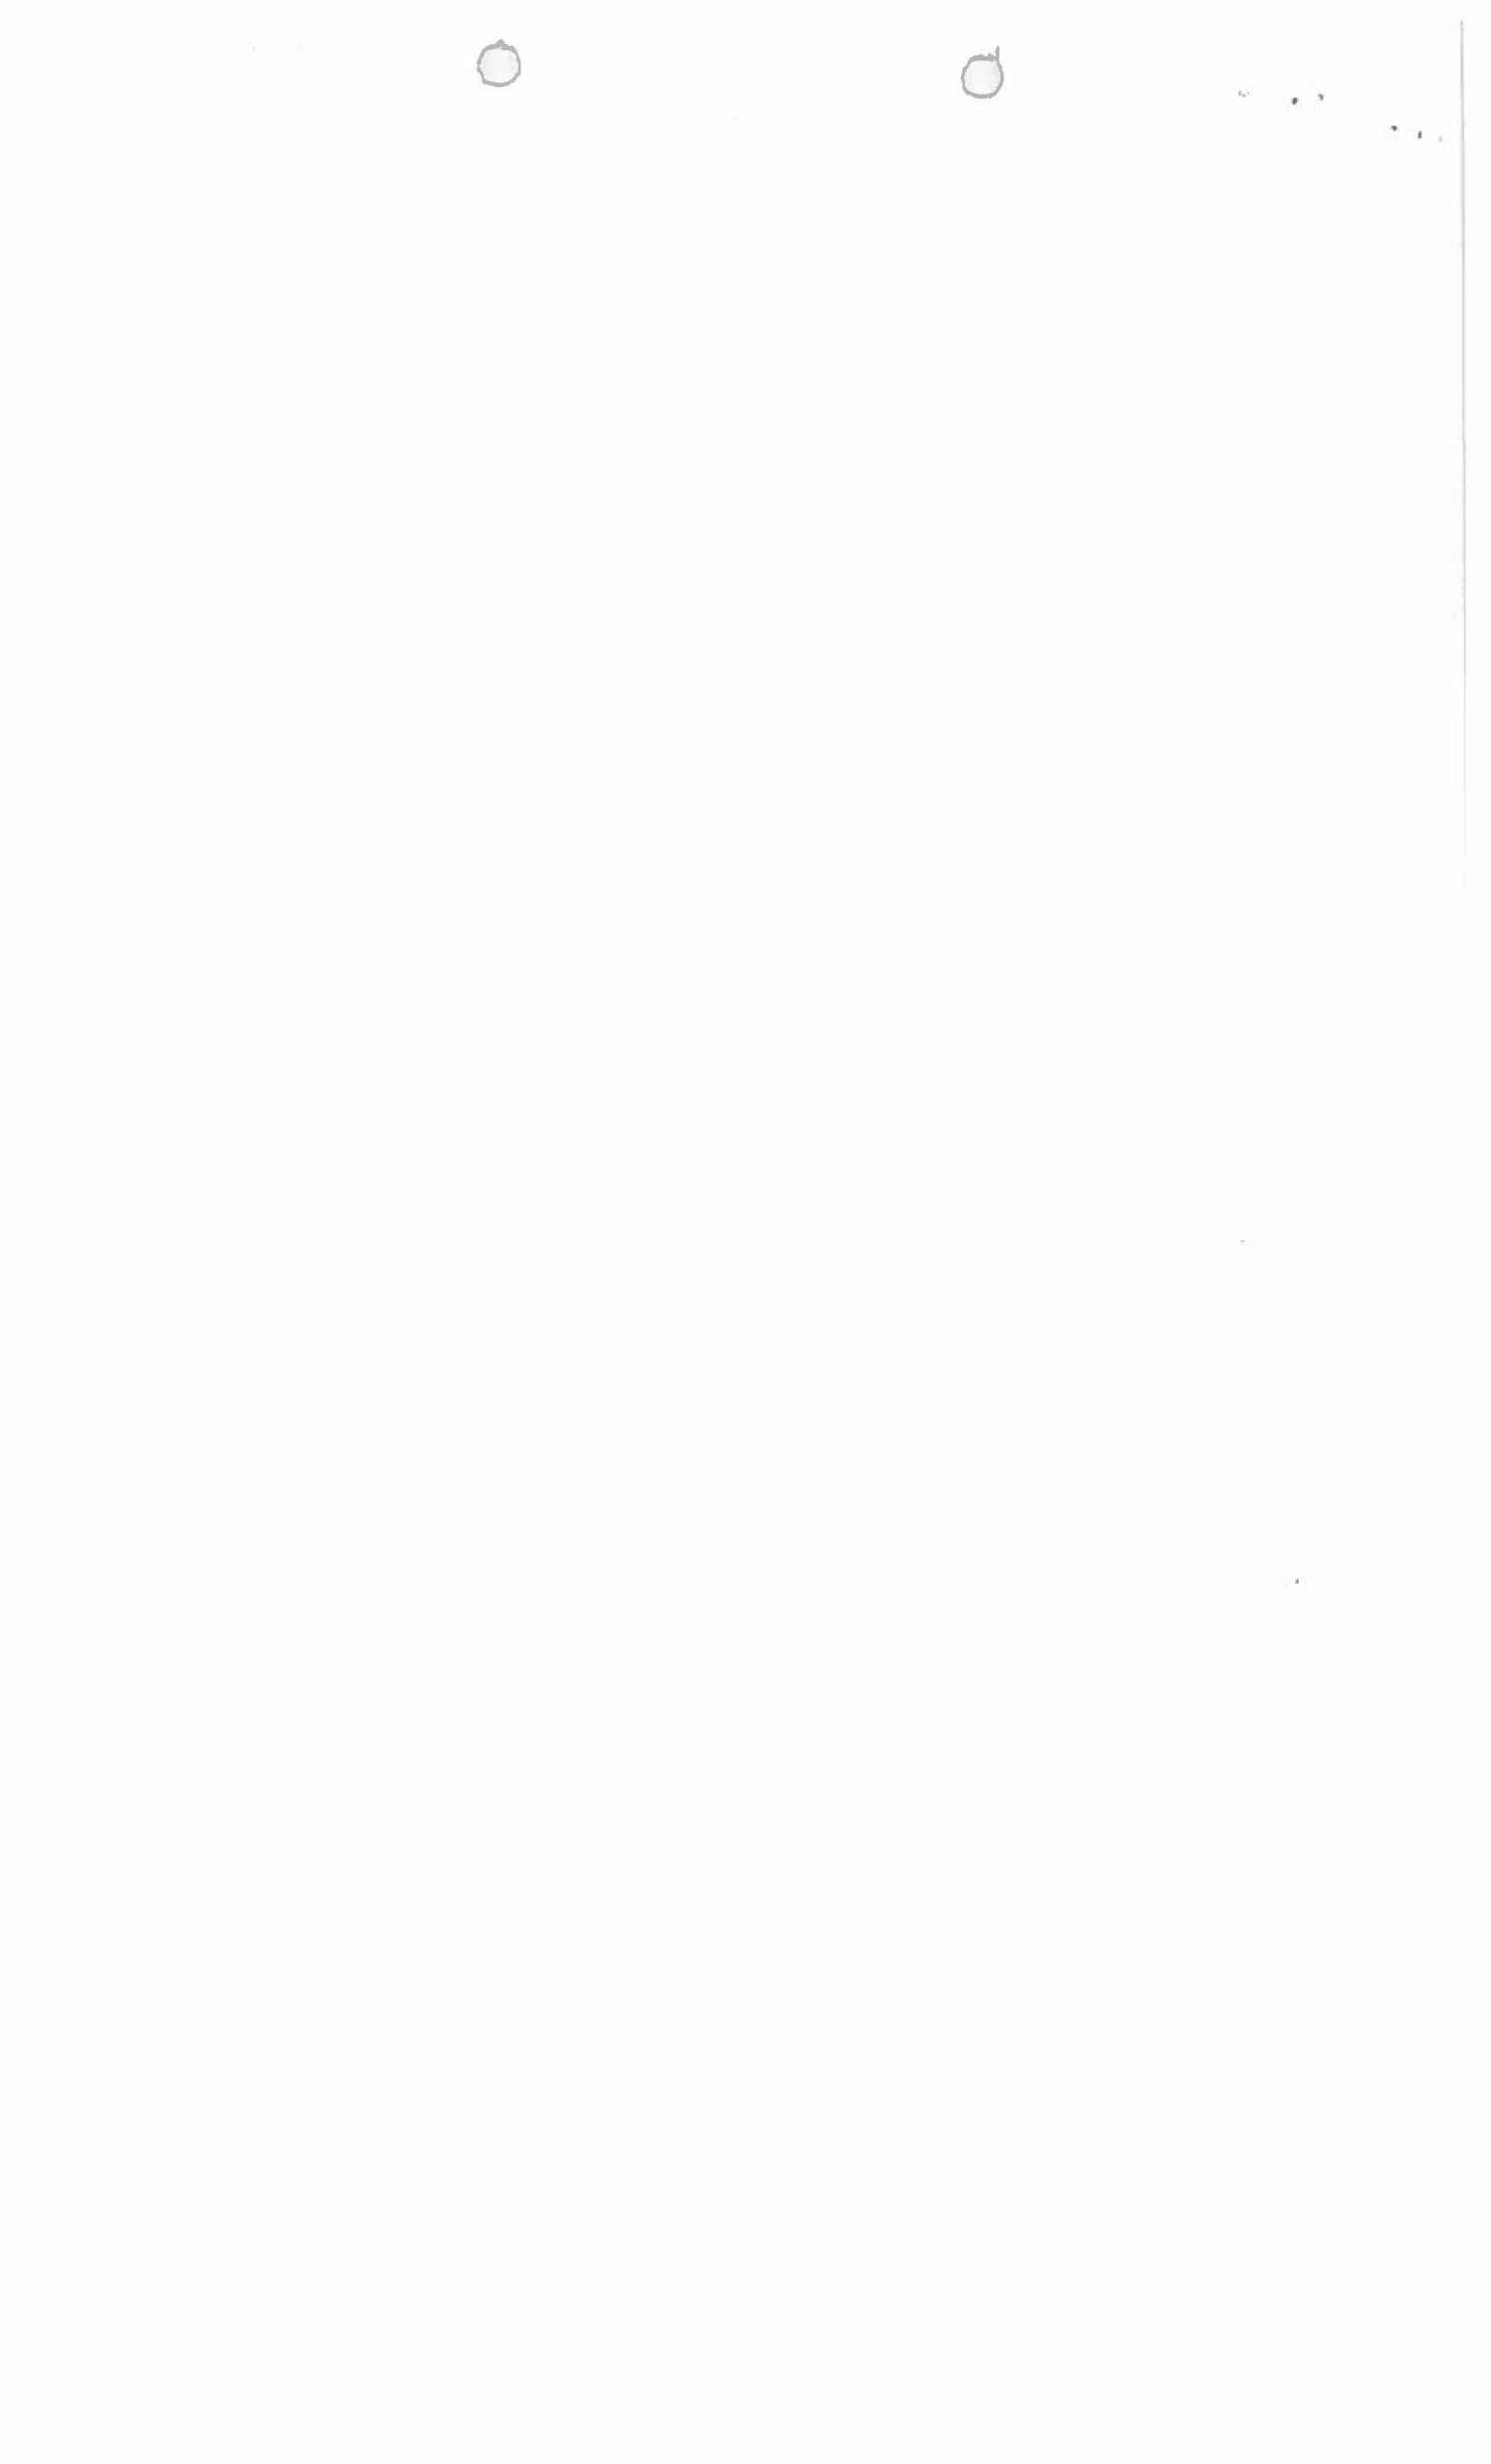

Ralph Stahl got several All-American votes for center - - - center of attraction?

To all coaches, especially the coach of the Tribe Wasps, be sure to stock up on throat lozenges early. Thanksgiving is this Thursday.

The Poison Pen has struck again!

LAST CALL TO GET IN THE CHRISTMAS PLAY

Even though you've never been in a Play of any kind before, you should try to take part in our Christmas Show. We still need some boys and YOUR LOYALTY TO N.B.C. alone should prompt you to try out. There were many years in the past when more than 50 boys took part in addition to those in the choir. If we want our Christmas Show to be a major event of the year again we must show a little spirit to do things other than playing games. Athletic games are great but we must be interested in other things too. THIS WEEK YOU CAN SIGN UP ON MONDAY, WEDNESDAY & FRIDAY right after school up to 5:00 P.M. Remember we've only got three weeks to learn this play - and with football over there isn't any reason why N.B.C. can't get at least 25 boys to participate in something that's good - like a Christmas Play. Christmas is one of the nicest times of the year - especially when you can spread Christmas Cheer to others. You have an excellent opportunity right now - don't just let this go without giving it some serious thought. Get a little spirit and come over to the fieldhouse to register this week on MONDAY, WEDNESDAY or FRIDAY after school. Ask for Miss Valentin. Let's show everyone that you're just as good as the kids were in previous years.

SPECIAL HOLIDAY TOURNAMENT

In both the Tribe and Pup Leagues a BIG SOFTBALL TOURNAMENT WITH FAST PITCHING will be held starting the Saturday after Thanksgiving. The place will be the Paul Revere Gym and this will be a double elimination contest. Bracket sheets showing the progress of each team, will be posted both in the clubhouse and in the gym. Be sure to check the bracket sheet so you'll know how your team stands. You must wear gym shoes for these games. The gym shoes must be carried to the park as no one will be allowed to wear dirty or muddy gym shoes in the gym. Everyone should report to the fieldhouse no more than 10 minutes before the scheduled starting time. If you are earlier go to the clubhouse first and then go to the gym 10 minutes before game time. You should change from your street shoes to your gym shoes in the locker room and then carry your street shoes and coat to the gym with you. The coats and street shoes will be kept along the side of the gym assigned to your team while you're playing. All boys should enter the fieldhouse by the front door and then go to the locker room. The first games are as follows: TRIBE LEAGUE -

3. If a batted ball hits the back wall of the gym or the basketball backboard, the ball remains in play and the batter receives credit for a hit, even though the ball is caught before striking the floor, or any other object.
4. Any batted ball that hits the side wall or ceiling in fair territory and then bounces foul will be considered a fair ball.
5. If a batted ball hits the side walls or any beams without striking the back wall it remains in play and the batter is out if the ball is caught before striking the floor.
6. A batted ball that drops into the balcony over the screen is a home run.
7. A foul ball if touched first by the catcher, and then caught after hitting the back wall or backboard is not out.
8. A ball may not be trapped against the wall - if it is, then it's a hit and the ball remains in play.
9. Pitching is as fast as you can throw. Windups are not allowed, and when starting the pitch, both feet must be on the line. Only one step is allowed.
