FOOTBALL CLASSICS ON THURSDAY

The 38th annual Football Classics will be held on Thanksgiving Day, November 28th. There will be a total of 11 games, the first two at 8:00 A.M. and then three every hour on the hour.

Parking facilities have been made available by Victor - so be sure to tell your parents there'll be plenty of room for all cars.

Details of the games are as follows:

8:00 A.M.

Field #1 - SCORPS 0 - WASPS 0 - If anyone was trying to predict a winner in this game, this is the number of points each team would be given to make an even contest. The Scorps are presently in third place with the Wasps close behind in 4th. This will be their first encounter on Turkey Day. So far in this year's season the Scorps have beaten the Wasps twice, 12 to 0. The Wasps won the other one 6 to 4. Both teams would rather beat the Hornets and with this winning attitude it's bound to be a good contest. By the scores of many of their games we know they must have strong defenses. Mike and Greg Nimietz and Shawn Ryan are the Wasps key tacklers. For the Scorps Jeff Jensen, Dan Fernice, John Fillipan and Jeff Roder lead the pack. From the initial kickoff when Tom Krier of the Wasps or Pete Wershing of the Scorps kicks, both teams will hustle their hearts out for the victory. Both teams' coaches, Mr. Jensen and Frank Haslwanter of the Scorps and Messrs. Nimietz and Esposito for their opponents, believe in fast offenses. The Wasps' line consists mainly of Mike Nimietz, Peter Svenningsen and Tom Krier. Their backfield is made up of John Fahey, Jerry Dwyer, Ken Sevier and Pat Fahey. Ken and Pat lead their team in scoring T.D.'s. They run from a T-formation, and can always go to the air with passes to Peter Svenningsen and Mike Nimietz. Peter also does the punting. The Scorps' line is made up of Jeff Jensen, Dan Pernice, John Fillipan, and Jim Roeber. Jerry Horn, Mike Schmidt, and Neal Farella run the plays from a T. When passes are thrown Peter Wershing and Mike Schmidt are usually on the receiving end. So if you want to see a close game, watch this one.

By: Jim Kartheiser

FIELD #2 - SPARTANS VS BOBCATS - This will be a tough game between the Tribe Spartans and Bobcats, because both teams are from opposite team centers fighting for their Team Center honor. The Spartans will come off of the T-formation into their powerful double reverse which they consider to be their most successful play on offense. Leading the way for either John Paschke or Joe Brandl on the reverse will be Keith Tisher and Chuck McGee. The Spartans say they'll come on strong with their power on defense. Both Tisher and McGee will lead the rush on defense hoping to get in on that Bobcat passer. The Bobcats will try to pour it on to the Spartans with their passing game. Frank Latchin will be passing to his ends Bob Kukula and the Clark brothers, Bob and Tom. Tom Clark takes the line when his brother Bob takes end and with Tom Clark and Rowland on the offensive line for pass protection, Latchin should be throwing some beauties. Also with the Spartans great defense coming in on Latchin, it should be quite a game. Don't miss it
(cont'd. next column)

Field #1 - WASPS VS HORNETS

By: Steve Veith

The Team League Wasps and Hornets once again will renew their long standing rivalry on Thanksgiving. Last year, the Wasps nosed out the Hornets on Turkey Day by a score of 6 to 0. Jim Landi scored the decisive touchdown in that contest. Both teams will have basically the same squads as last year. Bill Abplanalp will quarterback the Hornets with his brother Tom Abplanalp and Tony Richards grinding out the yardage on the ground. When the Hornets take to the air, Bill Abplanalp will be tossing to Tom Doloughty and Sam Lazzara. The Hornets' line, which is bolstered by Mark Maas, Jay Smith, Ron Clausen, Mike Doyle and Bill Waldron, is going to have its work cut out for them in trying to move the Wasps front line made up of Jim Barrett, Bob Angeli, Mike Newell, Mark Payne and Mike Barrett. On offense for the Wasps Tim Fahey is the quarterback. Along with him in the backfield are Jerry Rhea, Jim Landi and the speedster Steve Foulk. Jim Vogel takes over the quarterbacking at times and does a fine job. The offensive "blocks of granite" linemen for the Wasps are Glen Stahl, Bob Angeli, Jim Majorie, Jeff Kovacs and Mike Newell. They provide the protection when Tim Fahey directs aeri-als to Jeff Kovacs and Ed Reichardt. Trying to thwart the Wasps' attack for the Hornets will be Gerry Haslwanter, Ron Meck, Mark Maas and Ken "Moses" Clause

WASPS VS HORNETS cont'd. The Wasps are coached by Ralph Stahl and the Hornets by Herb Veith. This battle on the gridiron should shape up to be one of the best.

FIELD #2 - BOBCATS VS COUGARS

By: Robert Angeli

The Cougars and Bobcats have been the top rivals in the "White" division even though the Cougars have the edge. The Cougars claim that the Bobcats are such tough contenders because they don't quit when they get behind, and they also have a fine defense. The five reasons for this tough defense are Mike Gillis, Ron Gillis, Dan Sugrue, Tim Morsey and Steve Borgert. Steve is also the top scorer of the Bobcats in the end position. Showing an effective passing attack are Greg Koga and Andy Johnson, and Mike Gillis, Dan Sugrue and Ron Gillis throwing the blocks. The backfield consists of Mike Coletta, Mike Higham, Andy Johnson and Mike Petrosiatis. They say that the reverse up the middle from the T formation is their most effective play.

The Cougars, admitting that the Bobcats defense harasses them, still display a powerful offensive battery. The big four on offense consists of Mike Krey, Eddie Schmitz, John Summerville and Pete Jermiov. Ray Schultz, Ed Feuling, Steve Roosevelt, and Jim Schmitz run the dive plays and end sweeps from the single wing to the best advantage. The Cougars' passing attack also is very effective with Jim Schmitz throwing to Art Gamino, and Keith Majewski, one of the team's leading scorers. However powerful an offense, the Cougars defense is not lacking. Jim Nixon, Jim Morici, Don Feuling, Tom James, and Art Gamino don't intend to let the Bobcats' backs gain too many yards. John Summerville and Keith Majewski stay back to protect against passing. Summerville also kicks extra points to get that valuable edge.

Summing up, this is going to be one of the better games on Thanksgiving Day.

FIELD NO. 3 - LOCUSTS VS BEES

By: Rich Paschall

In this battle the Bees will face the Locusts in a struggle for victory between the bottom two teams of T.C. 5. Don Bauer will call the plays for the Bees and will work out of the T-Formation. Don Bauer and Ron Busch will try to move the ball on the ground and Jeff LaPapa will be called back to pass to Vince Tineralla. Don Bauer, who has scored most of the Bees touchdowns, will be doing the kicking. Jeff LaPapa and Joe Lobono are the best of the Bees linemen and will have a lot of work in the big game. The Bees, coached by Mr. Bauer, have had a rough time getting into the win column this year and will be looking for this victory in their last time on the gridiron for this season. The Locusts have also had a rough time in getting a victory. They have only won one game in the last two years as of this writing. Coach Art Geschrey will have Joe Demo calling the plays and working out of the T-formation.

(cont'd. next column)

LOCUSTS VS BEES cont'd. Jim Leske, Rich Lauing and Mark Alterio will make an effort to move the ball on the Locusts running plays and Jerry Geschrey will make an attempt to catch the passes. Tom Geschrey, Steve Murphy and Wally West are among the Locusts best on defense and Jim Tischer, Wally West and Tom Geschrey are the best linemen on offense. Despite the lack of success by these teams they have been putting up good fights throughout the season and should provide a good contest on Thanksgiving Day.

VIKINGS-RAVENS 10:00 A.M. By: R. Paschall

For the second year in a row the Ravens are going to meet the Vikings on the biggest football day of the year. This year the Ravens will be looking for revenge for their loss last year to the Vikings. Rich Steinmetz will lead the Ravens' running attack while Bob O'Toole will do the passing. On the receiving end of O'Toole's bullet passes will be Ted Slowik, John Iwanicki or Rich Steinmetz. O'Toole will be expected to carry the main part of the load for the Ravens because the team has him doing the passing, the kicking, calling the plays and they consider him among their best linemen on both offense and defense. Joe Kothanek, Steve Boblewski, Rich Sharp, Dave Mroz, John Klemundt, and Tom Sheridan make up the other strong men on offense and Guy Vitello, Dave Mroz, Ted Slowik, Tom Szyszka and John Iwanicki are among the best on defense. The Ravens are coached by Steve Veith and his staff of Ray Anetsberger and Ira Kudish. Despite their fine efforts they will face a giant challenge against the first place Vikings. This year the Vikings have stunned their league with an offense never seen before by their opponents. The excellent instructions of Coach Joiner have put this team on top and out of reach throughout the season. Mike McGann and Eugene Van Pumbroeck will be calling the plays in the huddle, and will be operating mostly from a heavy back single wing formation. Vince Bellini will do most of the ball carrying on the running plays with either Jim Sulhof or Mike McGann doing the passing. On the receiving end of the Vikings pass plays will be Mike McGann, when he is not back to pass, and Eugene VanPumbroeck. The pass plays have been the Vikings most effective weapon and you can expect to see plenty of it on Turkey Day. Bob Glassi, Robert Brixius, Jack Joiner, Chris Lober, Jim Gillespie and Bob Glassi make up the best of the Vikings offensive line. This game should turn out to be one of the best battles of the day.

FIELD NO. 2 - COUGARS VS JAGUARS

By: Bruce Stake

In a contest which is expected to be one of the most exciting and fastest moving of all the turkey day games, the mighty Cougars will clash with the huge Jaguars. The Cougars possess their finest football team ever, while the Jaguars have continually had a winning ball club year after year. The Cougars under the direction of Larry Bergner will use the difficult single wing back trying many quarterback sneaks and passes going from Mike Loosevelt or Brian Bradley to Dan Quartell. With Ron Starkey, Ed Krey, Brian Maska and Dave Mulchrome blocking up front, the speedy Mike Loosevelt, and the Powerful Bob Bartlett and Mike Strehler should find no trouble running up the middle. When it comes to kicking, either Gerry Baumann, Dave Mulchrome, or Ed Krey can lend a toe. On the other hand, the Jaguars aided by Mr. Gerage's coaching will utilize the well known T-formation attempting their famous double reverses. A strong barragade composed of Art Niedermayer, Tom Foley, Chris Gelandar, Mark Hanneman and John Wiggin will be formed anytime Sal Gerage wants to pass to Kyle Sayad or Tony Lieffel. The Jaguars have outstanding runners in Dominic Colletta, Ed Monaghan, Tom Nixon, Sal Gerage, and John Colletta, plus a splendid kicker in Kyle Sayad. The Cougars are cocky and believe that they can't be beat, but I know that the Jaguars have enough muscle to clobber the boasting first place finishers.

FIELD # 3 - LEOPARDS VS WILDCATS

By: Steve Veith

Even though the Leopards and Wildcats have mediocre records this game could be one of the most interesting all day. Rich Paschall coaches the Leopards and claims to have the best backfield in the league. His backfield includes Burt Higham, speedy Scott Geldmyer, Robert Smith and QB Jim Gilger. On the offensive line, John Stearn, Mike Floden, Bob Hubberts and Tony Huerta do the bulk of the work in blocking. Occasionally the Leopards will go to the air and toss aerials to Chuck Edwards or Robert Pattullo. Trying to put the rush on the passer for the Wildcats will be Wally Johnson, Ken Naumiec, Kevin Gillis and Jerry Johnson. Leading the offense for the Wildcats will be Bob Borgert and Tom Borgert who follow behind a line headed by Jerry Johnson and Wally Johnson. The Wildcats use a single wing formation and have used the draw play most effectively this past season. Doing their best to prevent the success of that draw play for the Leopards will be Rich Lesser, Robert Hubberts, Allan Green and Tony Huerta. Both the Leopards and Wildcats think they will win because of their team spirit.

11:00 A.M.

FIELD # 1 - BUCCS VS FALCONS

By: Jim Kartheiser

What a race! When this write-up was written the Falcons were in first. The Eagles trailed by 1/2 point and the Buccs by 1 point. (Today, Saturday, the Buccs beat the Falcons) Before Thanksgiving, as noted each of these teams will play again, but no matter what outcome, the race will go down to the wire. So far, the Falcons have only one loss. They also have a tie created by the Buccs. In the other game the Falcons (cont'd. in next column)

FALCONS VS BUCCS cont'd. the Falcons won by a slim margin of 13 to 6. Both teams rely strictly on the swiftness of their runners for the outcome of their contests. Nello Lucchesi and Mark Rowland are the key runners for the Falcons. Their coach, Mr. Lucchesi, has made their line strong with Bill Wellhausen, Jerry Rey, Harry Otto and Bruce Yahiro. When their passing threat is needed Ray Boyd, and Bruce Yahiro are usually the targets. Sol Vasta Buccs coach, really wants this win. He places his hope in Pat Phelan, Henry Fuentes and Steve Haftl as his starting backs. Jeff Patris and Pat Hughes are important ends for their team and have come up with many fine catches. Their offensive line is mainly Mike Karlin, John Vasta and George Schiavone. By looking at some of the scores we see that they must have good defenses. For the Falcons Lane Yahiro, Ted Garrettson, Julian Rodgriguez and Mark Wentzloff lead the attack. Eric Berger, John Vasta and Mike Karlin are the Buccs line. Steve Haftl and Pat Hughes do the kicking for the Buccs. Mark Rowland and Bruce Yahiro do the Falcon kicking. Both teams move from a T-formation. This game is a great way to end the season which sees three teams fighting for the title until the end.

FIELD #3 - EAGLES VS VIKINGS

By: Bruce Stake

In a match between two well-coached teams, the intelligent Eagles will take on the gruesome Vikings. The Eagles are well ahead of the Vikings in the standings but no one can underestimate the strength of the Vikings especially on the all-important day. The Eagles are backed up by Mr. Nelson and Mr. Stathciss and usually use many well devised plays having their tricky reverses and the bomb work the best. With such greats as Dean Meyer and Pat Geraghty on the line, John Tabisz, Jim Nelson, Ron Brubaker and Tom Geraghty will find enormous holes to carry the pigskin thru. When it comes to passing, Tom Geraghty can easily thread the needle to Ron Brubaker or John Esher. John Esher does the kicking off while Jim Nelson takes care of the punting chores. The Eagles are well coordinated in all the fields of football. On the other hand, Mr. Miller's coaching has created the Vikings into a powerful team, which in my estimation could grant any team a hard fought battle. They have such ball carriers as Roger Schamberger and John Kozak and when the ball must be set aflight Harry Goeninwein can hit Chuck or Rick Miller any time. The Vikings best line men are Bob Schmitt, Eric Pauer, and Tom Farrina and in the kicking department Charles (curly) Miller does a fine job. It appears as if the Eagles might not have it so easy on the big day but if they do they could finish in the first place spot.

FIELD 2 - HORNETS VS SPIDERS

By: Robert Angeli

In T.C. 5 the Hornets & Spiders have been scrambling for the Tribe championship. (cont'd on page 4)

HORNETS VS SPIDERS cont'd.

Thanksgiving Day could decide the winner. Both teams display an even amount of power and speed. However, where the Spiders display a few big linemen as Kevin Casey, Brian Lucas, Sam Toia and Craig Stevens, the Hornets have John Reichardt, Jim Stahl, Ken Hennig, Rich Wallace, Jim Jerling, John Steinkopf, Kev Lassilia, Greg Storc, Steve Manner and Ed Gardner. The Hornets will need every little bit of these linemen to stop the fast backfield of the Spiders which stars Ken Gryzwa, Ray Kestler and Billy Lunkes. The Hornets defense will also have to watch the tough passing attack of the Spiders with Gryzwa throwing to Sam Toia and Greg Kestler. Ken Gryzwa is the most dangerous threat the Spiders present because he uses his speed and shiftiness to his advantage by often changing the plays while they're being run, thereby throwing off the defensive team.

The Hornets boast mostly power and they've got plenty to boast about with the afore mentioned offensive and defensive linemen and their powerful backfield consisting of Pete Lazzara, Rick Abplanalp, Tom Deck, Pat Doyle and Dave Beigl. These backfield men stay behind the blocking very well on their off tackle, end sweeps and pass plays. Speaking of passing, the Hornets use it well when they really need it with Pete Lazzara passing to Jim Stahl, Steve Manner and Rick Abplanalp. Get this - every light has scored for the Hornets thus far as well as several defensive linemen.

This will really be a hard fought game in every aspect of the game and one that is worth coming out for.

"YOU AND ME"

By: Rich Paschall

The Team League Vikings submitted the following article: "The whole Viking football team thanks their coach for the fine job he has done for them. If you will recall, opening day the Vikings were humiliated by the Hornets. Since then Mr. Joiner took over, and with hard work the Vikings have had no match the rest of the year.

Leslie Hentschel of the Team Bobcats is known as the "Mad Henchman" for some reason?

Last week Robert Buehler, founder of N.B.C. addressed a meeting of the Park District supervisors of Area 9. All were pleased to meet and talk with Mr. Buehler.

This Monday night at 8 P.M. the Forum will meet in its regular session.

Ed and Don Feuling will be making a week long trip to Florida starting November 30th.

Last week Bob Turco ran 2 pschedelic ping pong tournaments, one for the Tribe and one for the Team League. Both were very successful.

"Words of Wisdom: "Even if you are on the right track you'll get run over if you just sit there.

BUCCS SNEAK BY FALCONS

By: Steve Veith

The Tribe League Buccs led by Steve Haftl and Pat Phelan, moved into a first place tie with a 7 to 0 victory over the Falcons. The only score of the game came in the first quarter on a 35 yard spurt through the line by Pat Phelan. Steve Haftl of the Buccs added the P.A.T. and the rest of the game became a defensive battle. The Falcons were missing key players which hurt them. Rex Porcarro and Jeff Patris played a fine game for the winners.

CHANGES IN THANKSGIVING DAY SCHEDULE

In Team Center 1-2 several changes have been made but not as far as the time of the teams playing. The Spartans will play the Bobcats instead of the Hawks mentioned in last week's paper.

Also the Eagles will play the Falcons at 11:00 o'clock on Field 1, and the Vikings and Buccs will play at 11:00 on field 3.

With the three teams all having a good shot at first place, that is, the Eagles, Falcons and Buccs the number on the field might be changed. For instance if the Eagles-Falcons game decides the title, then the game will be played on 1. There are so many combinations that could decide the championship that we could just about fill this column. Even if we just figure wins & losses it gets quite complicated and then if you throw possible ties in, well you try to figure it out.

Other games in T.C. 1-2 to round out the complete schedule include the Vikings-Astros, Spartans-Ravens, Astros Hawks. None of these games will be played after Thanksgiving as long as everything is settled.
