FOOTBALL CLASSICS ON THURSDAY

3 GAMES EVERY HOUR

Our 43rd annual THANKSGIVING DAY FOOTBALL CLASSICS will be held at Paul Revere Park on Thursday, November 22nd. Kick-offs for the first three games will be at 8 A.M. and then three games will follow every hour until the final whistle at noon.

Thanksgiving has always been a day of many thrills and excitement and we're looking forward to the same kind again Thursday. Most of the kids would rather have a victory on this day than at any other time during the season. As years roll by, the championship might be forgotten, but the thrilling games of Thanksgiving will always be a cherished memory. When and wherever Alumni members get together it always seems to be the topic and main interest of conversation - the thrilling contests of Thanksgiving Day all the way back to 1931!

Girl cheerleaders, most of whom have brothers playing, will be on hand for every game. The officiating will be handled by alumni members and leaders, and our Dads Club will be helping on the field and in the clubhouse wherever needed. Refreshments will be served to all the players and parents after every game.

Free parking will be permitted in Victor's Lot (the sight of our annual carnival) with the main entrance being at Campbell and Byron.

SPIRIT -- SPIRIT --- SPIRIT ----SPIRIT ----- SPIRIT ----- SPIRIT ----- SPIRIT!!!

PEP RALLY ON WEDNESDAY NIGHT

On Wednesday night a GIANT PEP RALLY, with enough noise to shake the clubhouse, will kick off the Classics. Captains will make predictions on the games and shout challenges to their opponents. The cheerleaders will lead all the rah, rahs and the kids will carry signs with their team name. Opponents will be sitting across the room from each other - it'll be fun to see which side can make the most noise. 49 boys who made 100 or more attendance points during our recent fiscal year (September thru August) will receive trophies and awards will also be given to boys who win the poster contest. If your parents can stand a lot of noise, they're invited. Boys should bring whatever noise makers along they wish - there'll even be a band! Order however must be observed regardless of noise, spirit, etc.

FREE DIABETES BLOOD TESTING

Here's a wonderful opportunity for your parents, friends and neighbors to have free tests for possible DIABETES. The Chicago Board of Health has conducted these tests here for several years. Out of the people tested there are usually 20 to 25% found to have HIDDEN diabetes. Within 3 weeks after the test, a report showing the results and recommendations will be sent to each person. The test consists of only a blood sugar test. Call KE 9-4694 for your appointment and details about fasting prior to the test.

GRIDIRON NO. 1 - TRIBE COUGARS VS BOBCATS - These two teams have played even football throughout the year. The Cougars and Bobcats have identical won & lost records, however the Bobcats were short for one game and lost a half point. At the time of this writing the Cougars are holding on to first place by a few threads. They'll be battling it out until the final whistle.

The Cougars will be led by Brian Musket at QB, his running backs are shifty George Amari and Ron Liska. Brian will be executing his ground game out of the "I" formation. The Cougars will often pass and have been successful with the pass from Musket to Brett Bradley or Tom Vandenbosch. Trying to keep the Cougars from gaining yardage will be the Bobcats "Big 4" - Len Plaia, Yamin Ejupi, Jeff Vita and Gary Braubach. The Cougars offensive line of Jim Slovik, Ed Betz, Rich Giancola and Tim Surgrue will have a tough job on the line. If the Bobcats force the Cougars to punt, Brett Bradley will handle the kicking.

Bob Stiglic will be at the Wheel for the Bobcats and will be trying to drive his halfbacks, Bob Hack, Randy Jensen and Oscar Guerrero into the endzone. The Bobcats will run their ground game out of the Traditional "T" formation and will call "heavyback" Jeff Vita, back to pass. Jeff has effectively thrown to Len Plain or Jeff McIntyre for big gains and touchdowns. Yamin Ejupi, Mike Opachan, Len Plaia and Tony Hack will lead the Bobcats blocking. Trying to contain the Bobcats will be Jim Kelly, Sid Cumberland, Ron Maser and Chris Skelnik of the Cougars. If needed, Len Plaia will do the punting for the Bobcats. Both defenses will have to be tough throughout the game.

The Cougars and Bobcats have a strong rivalry between them. The Bobcats have practiced and have their team tuned up. They'll be working as a team which may prove to be an important factor. The Cougars are relying on their strong running attack and a tight defense to be victorious.

The Cougars are hungry for victory, they were upset by the Lions last Thanksgiving 14 to 0. The Bobcats edged the Wildcats 6 to 0 last Turkey Day. The meeting of these two teams on gridiron one at N.B.C. will no doubt show the rivalry these teams have and their desire to win.

By: Ron Meck

GRIDIRON NO. 2 - PREP BOBCATS VS LEOPARDS - In the first prep game of the day we have the 2nd place Bobcats meeting the 4th place Leopards. The gap isn't as large as it seems as the Leopards with a 7-5-2 record are only one game behind the Bobcats who have an 8-4-2 record. The Leopards and Bobcats are two different types of teams. The Leopards are a physical team that tries to muscle their way down the field and the Bobcats are a precision team with good execution. So far this year the Bobcats have had a lot of success with the end around. At the helm for the Bobcats is Mike McDonough and halfbacks Dan Keating and Jim Lindsay who use many good fakes to deceive the other teams. The Leopards are warned to watch for ace pass receiver Steve Stiglic and the short pass to Dan Keating out of the backfield. The Bobcats run most of their plays from the "T" formation. On the offensive line for the Bobcats are David Lohentry, Aaron O'Brian, David and Leo Pfest doing most of the blocking up front.

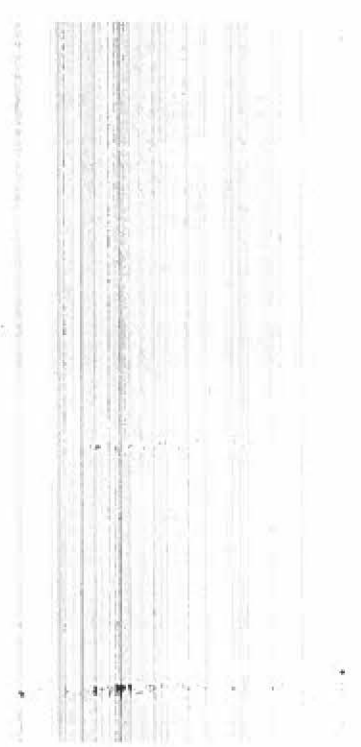

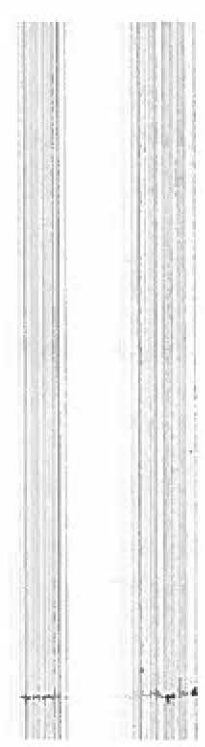

The Leopards run their offensive plays from the double wing and "I" formation. Q.B. Steve Stawychny and halfback Bob Ramsey have been their most productive runners. Though the Leopards usually grind it out on the ground, when they need the pass play, Steve Xamplas is a willing and able receiver. The Leopards also use the end run and the draw play. Running up the middle is a difficult task but offensive lineman Dale Baker, Mike Stramel and Ed Reed make sure they holes are there.

Both teams have good alert defenses. The Bobcat defense is led by Dan Thoele, John Keating, Rich Stamer, Scott West, Lloyd Allen and Bob Thoele. The Bobcats will miss Ross Jensen who is out with a broken leg. The Leopards will pit their strong defensive line of Mike Stramel, Vince Gerage, Dale Baker and Steve Xamplas against the Bobcat running attack. Strong points in the Leopard defense are D.E, Marc Lallaman and Linebackers John and Tim Higgins. Both teams want to win this big one and both deserve to win - it'll be a real good matchup.

GRIDIRON NO. 3 - TRIBE SCORPIONS VS HORNETS - In one of the top match-ups of the day, the first place Hornets will take on the second place Scorps. Both teams play exciting football and a real strong rivalry exists between these two teams. The Scorps will be led on the field by QB Bryan Baker. He will be giving the ball to runners Mike Farella, Mike Imburgia, John Horvath or John Rizzo. When they go to the air Baker will toss the ball to Frank Gallian or Jim Christner. The Scorps have also used heavyback Tom Lauletta to throw the ball. Gallian does the punting and shares kick-off duty with Lauletta. Along with Lauletta and Gallian, Tom Passarello, Brian Gonzales, Greg Moore, Phil Lynch and Sean McDonagh will take line duty to provide the offensive blocking and defensive strength. While they run mostly from the I formation, the Scorps have used a split T double reverse to best advantage this year.

Quarterback Jeff Lobono will call the plays for the Hornets. He'll hand-off to Charlie Otto, Clarence Conkle or James Soehn who will be running mostly from the T formation. One of the Hornets greatest threats is their pass attack. Jim Swanson is called back to pass to Randy Lobono or Jim Richards. Jim Swanson also does the punting and Randy Lobono and Jeff Weyand share kick-off assignments. On the Hornets line Randy Lobono, Jeff Weyand, Dan Trimpe, John Stegbauer, Rich Gerhardt and Frank Sherrod will provide blocking and tackling. The Hornets defense has been a key to their success. They have not allowed any team to score on them in the regular season. The Hornets and Scorpions battled to a 0-0 tie in their first meeting and the Hornets won the next two. The Hornets are confident that they will end the season unbeaten and unscored on. The Scorpions believe that they will be ready for the Hornets this time and are sure of a victory. These two spirited teams should provide some good football on Thanksgiving Day.

GRIDIRON NO. 1 - SPIDERS-BEES vs LOCUSTS - This game should be very interesting because both of the teams use exact opposite kinds of offenses. The Locusts are a passing team while the Spiders mainly used a running offense.

The Spiders get success with the running game because of the speedy Koran brothers and the excellent blocking of Dean Lestner, Ken Welsh and David Smith. These men also provide most of the tackles on defense. Ron Koran, the QB, will sometimes call for a pass, and his primary receivers are Paul Kestler and David Bezhad. All the touchdowns by the Spiders-Bees have been scored by Ron Koran. The Locusts will have to stop the power sweep out of the T-formation. The kicking for the Spiders is done by Ron Koran.

The Locusts' offense mainly consists of a heavyback pass. George Barnum, who calls the plays, will come back to pass and his main receiver is Eli Lazich. The tough line, both on offense and defense consists of Scott Galbreth, Eli Lazich and the Kearny brothers. When the Locusts do run, it will be out of a T-formation, and the backs who usually get the ball, are Bob Buchner and Robert Wyant. Robert Wyant has been scoring most of the touchdowns for the Locusts this year. The pass is what the Spiders will have to defend in order to stop the Locusts. The kicking for the Locusts is done by George Barnum.

The Spiders-Bees are very confident in winning, while the Locusts say they have a fifty-fifty chance of winning. One advantage they have is their coach, Mark Bankstein. One thing these two teams do have in common is they both think the Hornets are the toughest opponents.

By: Tom Krier

GRIDIRON NO. 2 - PREP SCORPIONS VS EAGLES-CARDS - The Eagles-Cards will clash head on with the Scorpions. This will be an interesting game because neither team has played the other. The Eagles-Cards will hit the Scorpions with their power "T" formation with good running by Sam Sineni, Peter Komrofske and Kevin Jennings. Jennings will be calling the signals for the Eagles and making some big decisions. Blocking for these speedy runners will be George Jeuk, Al Eckert, Scott and Mark Pavlik. If the Scorpions hold the Eagles on the ground, Kevin Jennings will pass to his favorite receivers Jim McGuire and Peter Komrofske. The Eagles-Cards with their powerful defense with guys like Mike Coan, Vince McGuire, Ken Fredrich and Keith Wyant hope to hold the Scorpions running attack. The Scorpions attack will come by means of their power "T" formation which is lead by Ray Roos, and Keith Moore. Blocking for these speedy runners will be Keith Greasy, Roman Kopinski, Bob Wincheski, John Montgomery, Mike Jennings, Dan Strope, Mickey Martorano and Pete Scheel. If the Eagles defense overpowers the Scorpions running attack, Keith Moore will take to the air and throw to his favorite receivers Sam Interrante and Vince Gallian. The Scorpions defense will hold the Eagles with guys like Jim Schmidt, Keith Greasy, Sam Interrante, Roman Kopinski, Ray Roos and Keith Moore. Both teams when in trouble on offense go to the secret weapon, the end around. Each defense will have to be on guard for this exceptional play. For a real good action packed, hard hitting game on Turkey Day come and see this game.

GRIDIRON NO. 3 - PREP COUGARS VS TIGERS - When I talked to both teams about their Thanksgiving Day game this is what I heard: Prep Cougars; Prep who? was the answer from Craig Brown, captain and QB of the notorious Cougars. Paul Cumberland and Dale Griffith, the two outstanding defensive players claim that they're going to pull the Tigers by the tail. As for the Cougars offense they like to run the ball (end sweeps) which they the broom play. With the great Cougars offense consisting of Craig Brown, Dave and Mike Bartlett, Edward Shedore, Paul Cumberland, Tim and Ed Steppan, they're confident of winning on Turkey Day. Now from the Tigers; Cougars? You mean the small guys dressed in white; they can't fight their way out of a wet paper bag. That was the answer from Eric Oleson and Tom Syster. John and Rich Mohring added "they're so small that their QB has to kneel down to receive the hike. What do you say to that Cougars?"

PREP COUGARS-TIGERS cont'd from page 3 - Defensive players for the Tigers are John Whitbread, David Zander, Tom Syster, John Mohring, Tom Edward and Tim Troutman. For offense the Tigers like to run the ball and they also told me that they have a new play. When I asked what it was they said it was a secret but they called it the "Clay". Offensive players are Eric Okeson, Rich Mohring, Jim Parisi, Robert and Andy Bommerback and Paul Mirkarini. Both teams are confident that they are going to win on Turkey Day. Let's all get out and watch these great rivals on Gobble, Gobble Day.

10:00 A.M.

GRIDIRON NO. 1 - TRIBE WILDCATS VS LIONS - This game should be an interesting matchup as the Lions with a 3-8-0 record want to prove to the heavily favored Wildcats who host a 7-5-0 record that they can beat the Wildcats on Thanksgiving. How about that you Wildcats?

The Lions use a T-formation offense headed by John Duran and halfback Mike Conneley. Attempting to open holes for the Lion ground game will be Roger Hellberg, Tom Lyday, John Gilger, Mike Buri and Dan Cunningham. The Lions however will be going against the Wildcats strongest part of their task force - the defense. Leading them are Pat Eddy, Dan Bigelow, Don Hoffman, Roger Bennet, Temujin Childers, Pete Kattnor and Joe Evans. The Wildcats are a team with a lot of depth in their offense as they run from many sets and have a variety of backfield men in John Griffin, Steve McNulty, Joe Griffin and Chuck Jerger. The Wildcats often take to the air with passes to Shawn Sugrue for the long gainers. Doing the blocking up front for the Wildcats are Ed Bennet, Tim Treadway, Bob Koehler, Jerry Grafen, Rich Zornik and Steve DeSpain. With this talent on offense the Lions star defenders consisting of Tim Halloran, Bob Wendling, Steve Hall, Jim Fixari, Mark Hellberg, Frank Garbo, Bill Lyday and John Graves will have their work cut out for them. It should be a good competitive game and may the best team win.

By: Joe Miceli

GRIDIRON NO. 2 - PREP WASPS VS BEES - If anyone was trying to predict a winner in this game it would be very tough. The Wasps are presently in first place with the Bees just 1/2 point behind. This will be their first encounter on TURKEY DAY. So far this season the Bees have beat the Wasps twice and lost once. Both teams would rather beat each other than other team in the league, and both teams strive on defense. For the Bees Elaine Vance, Ted Hagood, Jim Mulkerin, Tony Knepper and Ken Spears are the key tacklers. John Schmidt, Greg Gottschlich, Jeff Barker, Ray Egan and Denny Crockett make up the Wasps defensive rush. The Bees will use their "T" formation to work their most powerful play - the endsweep. Sweeping the ends will be Greg Behzad, Russ Busch, Dan Potratz or Steve Bauer. Blocking for the sweeps will be Dean Scholtes, Kevin Mannion, Jim Mulkerin, Bradley Dodds, Mike Connely and Justin Erbacci. If the Bees go to the air it will be Greg Behzad throwing to Russ Busch or Kevin Lester. The Wasps offense is counting on key blocks from Mike Brown, Tim Crockett, Larry Soderblom and Manfred Robisek so that Bob Dogan, Juan DePaz or Dave Medo can run the ends. Passing is the big offense threat for the Wasps whom either Denny Crockett or Ray Egan throwing to either Dan Medo, Bob Dogan, Ray Egan or Denny Crockett. If the Wasps end up in trouble Andy Lawrence gets them out of it with his punts. If you want to see a close game watch this one.

By: Bill Abplanalp

GRIDIRON NO. 3 - TRIBE OWLS VS VIKINGS - In a contest which is expected to be one of the most exciting and fast moving games of the day, the mighty Owls will clash with the huge Vikings. The Owls possess their finest football team ever, while the Vikings have lost a lot of their fellows from last year's team. The records of this season between these two teams shows each with a victory. Both teams run their plays out of a very unusual offense. They use a 9-man line and a 2-man backfield. The Owls rely on QB Ralph Lippert and Wayne Pilot for all the offensive action. Bob La Plume, Dan Orlowaki, Mark Weikner and Tom Okoniewski provide the necessary protection for their backfield runners. On the other side of the Owls offensive line is the ferocious Viking defense, consisting of Ed Forst, Lothar Wiebe, Tom Bee, Adil Vrtagic and Pat McDermott. Trying to match the Viking defensive play will be the Owls big defense of Jack Viverito, Bob Meyers, Bob Thomas, Rudy Freiburger, Pete Waterman and Mike Brock. The Vikings offensive line of Adil Vrtagic, Brian Boc, Joe Hornsberger, Jim Boettjer and Vito Marchese will have a hard time protecting their runners of Pat McDermott and Tom Bee from the heavy Owls rush. Both teams feel they will end up on top on TURKEY DAY because they believe they each have the best all around team.

11:00 A.M.

TRIBE BUCCS VS EAGLES ON GRIDIRON NO. 1 - The Buccs, who have gone undefeated for the last two years have been battling to stay close to first place. They lost their first game on opening day. The Eagles have defeated the Buccs twice this year by scores of 7 to 0 and 39 to 0. The Buccs have dented the Eagles once, 21 to 0.

TRIBE BUCCS VS EAGLES cont'd. - Dean Hansen will be calling the plays and will play quarterback. Jim Haftl and Ralph Pena will be running behind the blocks of Rick Spitelli, Roberto Alvarado, Steve Martino and William Matter. When Dean goes to the air he will be throwing to John Trella or Joe Bonk. The Eagles defensive rush will be led by Brian Wilson, Bob Vasiliadas, Gerry Pieroni and Ken Barton. If the Buccs are forced to punt, John Trella will be able to kick.

The Eagles usually run out of a "heavyback" formation. Pete Gianfrancesco comes back to pass to either one of his sure handed receivers, Clay Yahiro or Bob Vasiliadas. The Eagles have used this successfully throughout the year. If the Eagles try to establish a ground game, Ralph Baumel and Mike Liszewski will power the attack with good blocking provided by Brian Fredrich, Rich Cronin, Ken Pellonari and Berne Otte. If the Buccs defense of Roberto Acvarado, Dean Hansen, John Trella, Bill Natter stops the Eagles, Pete Gianfrancesco will do the punting.

Both the Buccs and Eagles have incentive to win, The Buccs to win another first place and the Eagles to take the championship away. They consider each other as their toughest opponents and the rivalry built through this season will come out on Turkey Day. The Eagles feel they'll be victorious because of a well-rounded offense and defense and the Buccs are counting on their running and passing attack. This may be a decisive battle in the Tribe league on Thursday, and is sure to be one of the best games of the day.

By: Ron Meck

GRIDIRON NO. 2 - PREP ASTROS-PIRSTES-SPARTANS VS BUCCS - In a game that is guaranteed to be exciting to the last whistle, the Astro-Pirates-Spartans will battle the Buccs. Both teams have the ability and desire to win, and should prove it in this game. They are evenly matched as they tied twice and the Buccs were victorious once.

For the Astro-Pirate-Spartans Jim Graf will be the quarterback. His running backs will be George Watkins and Bob Graf. They're not a passing team, but their power sweeps make up for it as they gain big yardage with it. Glen Graf will be doing the kicking and Jim Graf will be doing the punting. Their offense will be working from a shot-gun formation. The fine blocking for them will consist of Larry Coyle, Ken Duhr, Glen Graf, Clifford Gibbons and Eric Gibbons. Their fine defensive line will consist of Joe Kunst, Larry Coyle, Tom Watkins, Glen Graf, Clifford Gibbons, Eric Gibbons and Ken Duhr.

For the Buccs, Louis Vasta will be the quarterback. He will be giving the ball to his fine running backs Robert Forst, Johnny Komperda and Duke Sienkowski. The play that has worked the best for them is the up the middle, but they have a fine power-sweep around the end that has been successful also. Their offense will be running from a T formation. Their fine offensive line that will be leading the attack will consist of Todd Nelmark, Roy Mariotti, Todd Nelmark, Brad Harvey, Jeff Thompson, and Dan Khoshaba. Johnny Komerda will be doing all their kicking.

This game will be a real fine contest because both teams have good attendance, fine sportsmanship, and a real lot of spirit.

By: Wally Johnson

GRIDIRON NO. 3 - PREP LIONS AND WILDCATS - As of this writing, the Lions are in first in their Team Center, with the Wildcats holding third and steadily moving up. The Lions have ten wins, two losses and three ties. One of these wins, and two of the ties came as a result of playing the Wildcats. The Wildcats have seven wins, two losses and five ties. This game will prove which is the better team in that league. The Lions expect to win by having Dan Duran, Pat Gibbons, Lee Hirschauer and David Duran doing the running chores, and to open the holes for them will be Eric Pfister, Alan Stark, Kevin Johnson and Tony Wendling. The kicking chores will be handled by Eric Pfister and Kevin Johnson. The Lions expect to stop the Wildcats cold with their strong defensive line consisting of Jim Sippel, Eric Pfister, Alan Stark, Kevin Johnson and Tony Wendling. For the Wildcats the offensive runners are Dan Millard, Steve Grubb, Rich Grubb, Billy Ellenbecker and Tom Breason. Opening the holes for these men are Steve DesPain, Dan Kattner, Michale Tynam and Billy Stuckey. Handling the kicking duties will be Tom Breason - punts, and Chuck Johnson - kickoffs. This game should be a very exciting game for both teams would like nothing better than beating the other.

PREP SCORPION PARTY A SUCCESS

The Prep Scorps were the first team to have their Team Party and it proved to be a lot of fun. 13 members showed up for the festivity and all had a good time. The party started out with every boy hoping to win a Grab Bag. Every activity that was played was for tickets. The winning boys or team received a certain number of tickets. The more a boy received the better his chances were of winning. They played Around-the-world, Firsts, then had their Hot dog supper, continued by playing Bombardment and Hockey. Ice cream and pop were also served. Winners of games were Roman Kapinski, R. Winchester, Keith Moore and John Montgomery. It was great fun!

"YOU AND ME"

By: Mic & Mac

Bill Lynch was very disappointed last week when he was told he couldn't join the Cheerleaders. He had been sneaking in to watch but that's as far as he got. Richard Grubb of the Prep Wildcats is joining Billy Swanson's "Mark Spitz Club" for trying to go swimming in 30 degree weather. Tom Vandenbosch has been trying to reach the record for consecutive gutter balls. Either that, or he doesn't want to hurt the pins. Roger Bennett is joining the select group of "Ready-For-The-Flood" Ask him about it. Paul Rack, who is still in China, is sponsoring a benefit play entitled "It pays to be ignorant, and how I do it." All proceeds go to his ticket back to the States. Mike "Dog Biscuits" Imburgia was crawling around during his football game. Maybe he buried a bone. Blase Vitello has been the "hit" of the Chess tournament. He does it with his crutches.

Mike Johnson is this week's "mad scientist" for his new soft drink "Coke-ala-salt & pepper". Maybe he should call it "Dr. Salt and Pepper!"

The food shortage has really gotten to Bob Buchner of the Tribe Locusts. He will be eating Bees and Spiders for Thanksgiving Dinner. Ask him about it!

Roger Helberg is the "kicker of the year" for missing the ball each time!

Kevin Lester of the Prep Bees has signed up twice this year and has two numbers. Maybe he wants double attendance points!

ATTENDANCE POINTS BUILDING

This week at the Pep Rally there will be 49 boys receiving trophies. What for? They will be receiving these for attending 100 or more Boys Club activities last year. Now is your chance to start collecting your 100 points and be a trophy winner next year. Every time you attend a game, meeting, tournament, etc. you receive one point. You can only receive 15 points a month regardless of how many activities you attend. The leaders in points are:

MOTHERS ARE BUSY

At this writing, the N.B.C. Mothers are really a busy group preparing for their annual Christmas Fun Fair and Bake Sale. They've been working for weeks getting things ready, and this afternoon more and more cakes are coming in for the Bake Sale. It's bound to be a big success again just like it has been in past years. We'll tell you more about it in next week's Monkeyshine.

HOLIDAY TOURNAMENT

Be sure to check the schedule for the big Holiday Tournament which starts on Saturday. Be sure to carry your gyms to the park - don't wear them on the way over.
