THANKSGIVING FOOTBALL CLASSICS

THURSDAY
GAMES
AT 8, 9, 10, OR 11

The 50th annual Thanksgiving Day Football Classics will be held this Thursday morning, November 27th. There will be a total of 10 games - three at 8:00 and 9:00; and two at 10:00 and 11:00. Three of these games are being played for championships!!

Thanksgiving has always been a day of many thrills and much excitement for 49 years, and we are expecting the same for our 50th year!! Most teams would rather win on Thanksgiving than on any other day. The competition will be keen, and parents and relatives will line the fields! Championships are often forgotten, but a Thanksgiving victory is a cherished memory. Remember the Thanksgiving-eve blizzard of just four years ago? That was a day of many 0-0 ties. When oldtimers get together, those Thanksgiving contests of years past are always a topic of conversation - all the way back to 1931!

Our Cheerleaders will be on hand for all of the games. Our Staff, Leaders, and Alumni members will officiate the games. Our Dad's Club will serve refreshments inside after all games. Come join the many people who traditionally turn out to watch some of the most exciting football in our community.

PEP RALLY ON WEDNESDAY NIGHT AT 7:00 PM IN THE CLUBHOUSE

The GIANT PEP RALLY will kick off the Classics with enough noise to shake the Clubhouse! Captains will make game predictions and shout challenges. The girls will lead the cheers, and each team will carry a banner. Awards will be given out to the Activity Point winners, Turkey Shoot winners, Poster Contest winners, PP&K winners, and the All-Americans will be announced. All parents, coaches, and friends are invited to witness this spectacular event! Be sure to bring noisemakers. If you have none, your mouth will do just fine!

BE SURE TO BRING BACK YOUR FOOTBALL UNIFORM ON TIME TO GET A FULL REFUND. SEE PAGE 7

CHECK PAGE 7 FOR THE SCHEDULE OF YOUR FIRST FLOOR HOCKEY GAME, AND WEAR YOUR TEAM SHIRT!

Gridiron No. 1 - Teen Falcons vs. Leopards

This will be the hardest hitting game of the Classics. It pits the two runners-up of the Teen White Division. The Falcons lost a tough playoff game to the Bobcats, and the Leopards were beaten out by the Scorps in another playoff.

The Falcons, led by quarterback Craig Gehrke, have played very well all season. They tied the Bobcats for the first half title with a 6-1-1 record. Their offense, which comes from the T-formation, relies mostly upon speedy Chung Wu, Dave Lentsch, and powerful Greg Grant to keep the ball moving. Craig likes to go to his sure-handed receivers Marcello Gallegos and Norman Meske in passing situations. Opening the holes for the running backs are linemen Pat Feeley, Marty Martinez, Chung Wu, and Darrin Nunn. Kick offs are handled by Pat Feeley, and he also punts when the offense stalls. Their defense is led by Marty Martinez, Pat Feeley, Steve Formeller, Ken Kryski, Pat Foley, Mike Zurawski, Dave Rambhajan, and Russ Larsen. Mike Mackey has done a fine job molding the team into a unit.

The Leopards' commanding offense is controlled by quarterback Jim Coleman. They operate out of the T, and like to run sweeps with their speedy backs Bill Taylor, Carl Lowery, Dwayne Miller, and Jim Gallagher. When the running game fails, they move to the air. They have sure-handed receivers in Ron Lugo, Frank Bakazan, and George Randl. Wally Rivera does a great job booting deep kick offs and high, long punts. He is also the leader of their hard-hitting defense. Other defensive stars are Tony Jablonski, Jim Coleman, and Frank Bakazan. The Leopards have come a long way since their dismal start of 0-6-1, and deserve a great deal of credit. They owe much of their success to the coaching of Jesse Rivera and Joe Foster. Good luck to both teams! Be sure not to miss this game!

Gridiron No. 2 - Teen Pirates vs. Raiders for Teen Red Championship

This is a replay of the great game that these two teams last Thanksgiving. The Pirates won that contest 2-0. This game will probably be as low-scoring as last year's game, as it pits the two premier defenses in the Teen League head-to-head. The game is for the Championship, and both teams' pride is on the line.

The Pirates dominated the first half with an undefeated record of 5-0-2. They were 4-1-1 in the second half, and finished second. Their only loss of the year was at the hands of their arch-rivals, the Raiders. That was also the only game in which the Pirates were scored upon all season - an amazing accomplishment!

The offense is led by QB Steve Graf and running back Neil Gorski. They do not run often, and usually use a 10 man line. Their basic offense is the pass. Robert Anetsberger calls the plays, and drops back to do most of the passing. His main receivers are Tony Hernandez and Tim Dace. The pass protection is provided by the strong blocking of Mike Olson, Ed Ebeling, Joe Poland, Mike Stasinos, Joe Salamone, and Tim Dace. Most of the scoring has been done by Robert Anetsberger, Dave Hamm, and Mike Stasinos. Their most effective surprise play is the first down punt. The team is coached again this year by Rex Pecoraro, who has amassed a coaching record of 50-7-7 over four years. The team has done surprisingly well, considering the fact that they don't practice.

The unbelievable Pirate defense is led by Mike Stasinos, Joe Salamone, and Ed Ebeling. They have the #1 defense and the #9 offense. The defense has scored 52 of their points, while the offense has scored only 6 points. To get psyched up for games, the Pirates say that they punch out buses! They feel that the Raiders are their toughest opponent, but would like to beat the Prep Astros - a team that is undefeated and unscored upon!! Coach Rex attributes his team's success to defense, and they are still the "self-proclaimed Monsters of TC 2".

The Raiders finished the first half at 4-2-1, tied for second place with the Bees. They put it all together in the second half, and won the title with a 5-1 record. Their only loss came in the first game of the second half, against the Pirates. They are coached by John Nelson, and are, by far, the best organized team in the Club.

The offense is controlled by playcaller-quarterback Dan Velasquez. The backfield consists of John Blair (probably the best fullback in the league), Dave Fontana, and Nestor Lao. The key blocks are thrown by Ken Gordon, Mike Tomasiello, Bob Evans, Mike Hudson, Nick Adams, Carl Ludwig, Bruce Sampson, and Tim O'Connell. They make it possible for the Raiders to have such a strong inside running game. Dan Velasquez does all of the passing, and looks for Mike Sund or Chris Speropoulos to get open. Most of the scoring has been done by John Blair and Chris Speropoulos. Chris also handles both ends of the kicking game.

The Raider defense is every bit as good as the Pirates' defense. They have also been scored upon only a few times this season. The unit is led by John Blair, who seems to be drawn towards the ball carrier like a magnet. The other defensive stars are Mike Tomasiello, Dan Velasquez, Mike Sund, and Chris Speropoulos.

The key to the Raider success has been continuing hard work. They practice daily, it paid off for them in the second half. Raider tradition gets them up for their game. They feel that is an honor to be a Raider. They respect the Pirates as being the toughest team in the league. The team is confident of victory. They want to carry on the tradition of winning every sport that they've played in for the past two years.

Gridiron No. 3 - Tribe Buccs vs. Spartans

This game shall definitely be among the top games of the morning. The game is not being played for the NBC Championship. It is, however, being played for something very important to the boys - the Championship of TC 2! These boys all live within blocks of each other, and they attend the same school. They did not meet during the regular season.

The offensive leader for the Buccs is QB Bryon Lucero. The backfield is rounded out by Mike Penland, Matt Schenatzki, and Dan Thorse. The bulk of the scoring has been done by end Mark Lehmann and Bryon. Along with a good running attack, the Buccs possess a fine passing game. Heavyback Mark Lehmann normally drops back to pass, and hits end Ricky Deckert and Dan Jewa. They have an added threat with Bryon Lucero swinging out the backfield.

The Buccs also have a hard-working offensive line. Ricky Deckert, Matt Schenatzki, Ed Weber, Virgil Rotondo, Dan Jewa, Jim Coates, Jim Ling, Tom Leyden, and Matt Koehler work hard at providing holes for their backs to slip through. When the offense breaks down, the punts are handled by Mark Lehmann and Bryon Lucero. They do double-duty by booting kick offs, too.

The Bucc team has come together as a unit due to their 3 weekly practices and the coaching of Julie Lehmann. They take their football seriously and work hard at their defense. The defense has been very strong. It is led by Ed Weber, Virgil Rotondo, Dan Jewa, Mark Lehmann, and Bryon Lucero. They feel that their toughest opponent has been the Coogs. They would love to beat them because no one has all season! They feel certain of a Thanksgiving victory because of team spirit and a great deal of desire.

The Spartans are one of the most underrated teams in the Tribe League. In the first half they had a 4-2 record and finished in second place, just behind the Wildcats. In the second half they won as many games as the first place Wasps, but were short at some games and finished third.

The Spartans are coached by Frank Rodriguez and John Tucker. They practice once a week, and have developed into a real "team". The offense is led by QB Dulo Sefovic, a fast and powerful runner. The backfield is speedy, consisting Samir Askar, Oswaldo Veguilla, and David Avers. They depend upon the blocking of Keith Andreys, Matt Rodriguez, Jeff Bedore, Bill Bishop, Carlos Martinez, James Becker, Robert Tucker, and Doug Nunn to gain big yardage. The passing is done by Dulo, who hits Adam Martinez, Doug Nunn, and Ron Furmanski. The high scorers for the team are Dulo and Adam Martinez.

The defensive team is led by Oswaldo Veguilla, Matt Rodriguez, Jeff Bedore, Doug Nunn, Ron Furmanski, Dulo Sefovic, and Adam Martinez. They have held the opposition most of the season.

The Spartans feel that the Spiders have been their toughest opponent. They really want to beat the Buccs, because the Buccs think they are better. They feel that the key to their team has been strong offensive and defensive play, and high team spirit. They know that they are better than the Buccs, and will win because they have the best player on either team -- Dulo!

9:00 A.M.

Gridiron No. 1 - Tribe Buccs vs. Bees

The Bees and Buccs should have a very close game. Both teams have good defenses and good passing games. The Bees were second to the Pirates in the first half with a 4-2-1 record. They dropped off somewhat in the second half, ending up third with a 2-4 record. The Buccs were 3-5 in the first half, and were 2-4 in the second half.

The Bees are led by QB Mike Hanson on offense. He is a strong runner, and calls all of the plays. His backfield men are Henry Ziccardi, Ralph Regalado, and Don Bunge. Most of the scoring has been done by Mario Feijoo, Mike Hanson, and Henry Ziccardi. The blocking is provided by Frank Campise, John Galk, Rick Ruiz, Mario Feijoo, David Scholte, Dave Ruge, Rich Wiesner, and Charles Regalado.

When a passing situation arises, Mike Hanson or heavyback Mario Feijoo drop back and throw to Dave Ruiz, Joe Ingraffia, Don Bunge, and Tony Raffae. When Mario isn't throwing he's out as an end. Kick offs are handled by Dave Ruiz, and Mario does the punting.

The defense is led by Tony Raffae, Mario Feijoo, Dave Ruge, Ralph Regalado, and David Scholtes. The strength of their defense was demonstrated when they shut out the powerful Raiders in their first game of the season. The Bees would most like to defeat the Pirates, because they see them as the toughest team in the league. They look forward to the playoffs, and want to end on a winning note. They feel that team spirit and defense will carry them on to victory.

The Buccs have had a stormy season. They started out well, faltered at the end of the first half, and underwent a coaching change. They are now coached by Tom Boettjer, and are doing their best to put it all together for this last game of the season.

The Bucc offense runs out of the T, and the plays are called by David Oberg and John Adachi. The QB is David Oberg, and his backfield mates are Chris Edwards, Mike Dauber, and Dwight Mannes. Most of the scoring has come from the Adachi-to-Lehmann connection. John Adachi, a heavyback, does all of the passing. His favorite receiver is William Lehmann; but he also goes to Bob Pasternak. The passing game has been the strongest part of their offense.

The pass protection has been provided by Robert Nelson, Manny Talentino, John Brownridge, Kevin Coyle, and Phil Siwula. The kick offs are done by Robert Nelson, and William Lehmann drops back in punting situations.

Their tenacious defense is led by John Brownridge, Kevin Coyle, Phil Siwula, Robert Nelson, David Oberg, William Lehmann, Chris Edwards, and Bob Pasternak. They feel that their toughest opponent was the Falcons, but would most like to beat their neighborhood rival, the Pirates. The key to the Buccs has been defense, and they feel that a combination of defense and a good passing game will bring them Thanksgiving victory.

Gridiron No. 2 - Teen Bobcats vs. Scorps for the Teen White Championship

This game is being played for the Championship of the Teen White Division. Both teams made it this far by winning difficult playoff games last week, and are as evenly matched as two teams can be.

The Bobcats finished the first half with a 6-1-1 record, tied for first place with the Falcons. The Bobcats broke the tie by winning the playoff 7-0. They climbed to the top due to tremendous team spirit, a great deal of determination, and excellent coaching by Jim McConnell. He has instilled in the team the true meaning of sportsmanship and team effort, and not only plays.

The Bobcat offense is led by QB's Gabe Martinez and Brian Carter. The rest of the backfield is rounded out by Luis Soto, Rich Cornacchia, Ron Pittelkau, Pat Moore, Scott Smith, and Jesse Martinez. They have had a great deal of running success because of the blocking of Terry and Maher Harb, Mike Decker, Keith Reed, Eric Cottongim, Carlos Mejia, and John Zurawski.

The passing game is controlled by Gabe Martinez and Brian Carter. Their usual receivers are Terry and Maher Harb. The scoring leaders are Luis Soto with 6 TD's; Gabe Martinez with 4; and Terry Harb, Brian Carter, and lineman Keith Reed with 2 each. Kick offs are handled by John Zurawski, who also has kicked the only successful extra point of the season. Luis Soto and Eric Cottongim share punting duties.

The defense is led by Scott Smith, Terry and Maher Harb, Mike Decker, Keith Reed, Eric Cottongim, Carlos Mejia, John Zurawski, and Luis Soto. The team plays so well together because of their intense practicing. Their toughest opponent has been the Leopards, but they have their sights on the Scorps. They are confident that teamwork and desire will bring them the championship.

The Scorps finished the first half at 4-4, in third place. They turned things around in the second half, and tied the Leopards for first place with a 4-2 record. They met to decide the champ, and the Scorps won 7-0.

The offense is led by quarterback Shawn Abernathy. He calls the plays, and hands off to backs Tom Stone, Jerry Campbell, Steve Marrs, and Paul Goerner. Most of the scoring has been done by Steve Marrs. The offensive line, led by Jim Jakscht, Victor Echeverry, Mike Crowley, Ed Arteaga, and Brendan Mer, has done a fine job opening holes. On passing plays, heavyback Jim Jakscht comes back and looks for Tom Millirons or Ed Solis. Both ends of the kicking game are also handled by Jakscht.

The Scorps possess one of the toughest defenses in the entire Teen League. They are especially tough covering the pass. The defensive stars are Jim Jakscht, Victor Echeverry, Ed Solis, John Van Hessen, Jerry Campbell, and Frank Giannese. They have done very well without a coach. The toughest team that they have faced is the the Bobcats. The key for them will be their defensive ability. They are sure of a Thanksgiving win, because they have never lost on Thanksgiving yet!

Gridiron No. 3 - Tribe Bees vs. Scorps

The Tribe Bees and Scorps are a natural Thanksgiving Day match up. Both teams live in the same neighborhood, and many of the boys attend the same school.

The Bees are coached by Dave Dolan and his assistant, Rex Pecoraro. Mr. Jerry Wiegele is the team's General Manager. The team finished in second place in the first half with a record of 2-2-4. In the second half, beset by injuries, they dropped to last place. They are undaunted by this unfortunate turnabout, and play every game with the enthusiasm of a championship game.

The Bee offense, operating from the T and Power I, is controlled by a fine runner, Steven Levy. The remainder of the backfield is rounded out by Jerry Wiegele and Dan Piske.

The big offensive scoring threat is Steven Levy. As for the passing game, the Bees do have one. At least they never get intercepted! Opening the holes for the backfield men are Ed McKernan, Randy Brock, Young Kim, Rich Espy, James O'Neal, Shane Clayton, Tom Shipman, and Ron Anastacio. The kick offs are handled by Randy Brock, and those all-important punts rest in the feet of Young Kim and Rich Espy.

The team gets psyched up for games with a "win one for the Gipper" speech. They believe the Cougars to be their toughest opponent, and would most like to beat the tough Wildcats. The key to this edition of the Bees has been the performance of QB Steven Levy. They feel that the game will be won by their tough defense.

The Scorps are a team that has steadily improved over the season. In the first half they finished third with a 2-4 record. They were also 2-4 in the second half, but played much better and were more organized. This second half turnaround has been aided by coach Gary Halar.

Operating out of the I, quarterback Shawn Hallinan directs the offense. His backfield consists of speedy Tony Herrera and Chester Wu. Shawn and Tony have scored most of the team's touchdowns. The holes on these TD runs are opened by the blocking of Ryan Weber, Bill Perez, Oliver Filges, Todd Nigh, Robert Parks, Paul Kasdan, Phil Caballero, and Ricardo Ayala. They are most successful blocking on sweeps.

In long yardage situations, Shawn Hallinan drops back to pass. His main receivers are Mike Ebeling and James Jaeger. If this fails, Shawn calls upon James Jaeger to punt the ball away. After touchdowns, Mike Ebeling boots the opposition back deep into their own territory.

The strong suit for the Scorps is defense. It has pulled them through many difficult situations. The leaders on defense are Ron Sweeney, Carlos Alverio, Mike Ebeling, Robert Parks, Shawn Hallinan, Oliver Filges, and Bill Perez.

The Wasps are the team that has been toughest on the Scorps this year. They would most like to beat the Wildcats, however, because they won the first half. The Scorps feel certain that they will beat the Bees because they unite when they're down, and have made great improvements over the season.

10:00 A.M.

Gridiron No. 1 - Prep Cougars vs. Locusts

The Cougars have steadily improved season. They had an overall record of 3-8. The offense is led by QB Brian Roeder. They run out of the Open set. Their best play is the sweep with Phil Quinn, Luis Herrera, or Sean Conneely. Brian's favorite receivers are Ricky Puffaf and Cesar Peredo. The offensive line, responsible for opening the holes consists of Tom Connolly, Tom Carter, Dan DeJonge, Mark Castro, Doug Kalous, and Chris Medina. On the defensive side, the kicking game is handled by Tom Connolly. The best defensive players are Jose DeLaTorre, Jerry Gschwind, Raul Peredo, Tom Carter, Mark Castro, and Dan DeJonge. The coaches are Jim Heydendahl and Tom Connolly, and they do a fine job.

The Locusts are led by QB Joey Tackett. They operate out of the T formation, and like to go up the middle. The running backs are Scott Goerner, Jim Wisniewski, and Anthony Walters. They have a strong offensive line consisting of Robert Groebner, Joe Erlemann, Jason Erlemann, Jonah Brandt, Jerry Millard, Scott Parks, Lenny Shipman, and Mike Otto. The defensive line is led by Scott Goerner, Mike Otto, and Joe Tackett.

The Locusts have done well this season because of teamwork and team spirit. They are well-coached by Joe Erlemann. The team is confident of winning this big game in front of their families because they know that they can win.

Gridiron No. 2 - Tribe Wasps vs. Wildcats for the Tribe White Championship

This will be a terrific game for those who appreciate good football. The championship of the Tribe White Division rests on this contest, and both teams worked extremely hard to reach this point. The Wildcats won the first half with a 5-1 record, with their only loss coming at the hands of the Spartans. They moved up to the Red Division for the second half, and finished third. The Wasps won the second half with a record of 4-1-1. This set the stage for a Thanksgiving Day Showdown.

The Wasps are well-organized. They practice weekly, and are coached again by Tom Connolly. The leader of the offense is quarterback Dave Rowe. He is an excellent running quarterback. His backfield men are Dan Connolly, Jeff Marks, Don Bianchini, Sean O'Connell, and Dave Rice. Dave Rowe has been the main Wasp scoring machine. Providing excellent blocking for the backfield men are Ralph and Russell Egan, Dave Hansen, Alex Galiano, Joe Votaw, Mike Schmidt, and Andy Lindstrom.

When it's time to take to the air, heavyback Dave Hansen drops back and hits like Schmidt and Rick Correa; and backs Dan Connolly and Don Bianchini. They operate out of a power I and a spread shotgun. The key to the success of their shotgun has been the consistent centering of Alex Galiano. He gets the job done.

On the defensive side, Russ and Ralph Egan, Jeff Marks, and Joe Votaw are the key men. The kicking game is handled by four players.

Sean O'Connell, Dave Rice, and Rick Correa take turns on the kick offs, and Dave Hansel is the punter.

The Wasps have a great deal of team spirit, and do a team cheer to get psyched up before every game. They would have liked to have beaten the Cougars, because they are close rivals. The two key ingredients to the Wasp's second half finish were defense and fine passing. They feel that a combination of good passing and running, along with a hard-hitting defense, will carry them to victory.

The Wildcats are a good team, and are co-ordinated by second year coach Layla Erzurum. They take things very seriously, and practice every weekday! They have good attendance and team spirit.

The offense is directed by QB Jack Lawlor. His backs are Edwin Nunez, Brian Lantz, and Paul Quinn. They look for holes which are opened by Jose Perez, Fred Acosta, Mari Acosta, Kevin Aufmann, David Cardenas, Andy Kramer, Martin Conneely, and Mike Medina. The high scorers have been Edwin Nunez and Ali Erzurumly. Edwin also handles the passing game, and his favorite receiver in a clutch situation is Ali. They are most effective on screens. Edwin also handles all kicks.

The defense has improved all season. The standouts are Ali Erzurumly, Al Vrbos, and Andy Kramer, Edwin Nunez, and Paul Quinn. The Wildcats would like another game against the Bees because the Bees think they are good. The Wildcats think that all of their practicing will pay off in a championship. They have lots of skill, team spirit, and a great defense. This is the closest that they've ever been to a championship, and they are not about to let this opportunity escape them.

11:00 A.M.

Gridiron No. 1 - Prep Astros vs. Wasps

If you are looking for an exciting football game, you won't want to miss this game. The Astros have not lost a game this season, and are 12-0. Coaches Jerry Jarvis and Ray K'Meyer say that the Astros are willing and able to play any team in the league.

Jim Helm is at the helm of the Astro offense. He relies on his speedy backs Matt Van Cleave, Paul K'Meyer, Mark Stasinos, and Tom Kalous. They like to run out of the T formation. Their big gainer is the end sweep. The blocking for their swift running backs comes from Jeff Jarvis, Jim Turley, Joe Kim, Mike Kurovski, Kevin Nolan, and Doug Fuit. The defense is led by Doug Rosson, Keith Fessenden, Mark Kielnik, and Mike Kurovski. Jeff Jarvis is the punter, and Matt Van Cleave handles the kick offs.

The Wasps are an impressive team that has gotten better with each game. Even though they have a small roster, each boy always puts out 100%. The Wasps finished second to the Astros in each half, and had an overall record of 6-5-1. Quarterback Brian Diebold is the team's offensive leader. They set up in the I formation, and like to run up the middle. Brian hands off to his powerful backs, Joe Sabo, Keith Albright, and William LaGioia. The big linemen who open holes are Steve Stone, Jeff Zarazinski, Henry Chun, Dan Farley, Ramon Vintimilla, and David Wiesner. The defense is led by Steve Stone, Anthony Stockwell, and Henry Chun. Rob Hawkins has done a great coaching job. This will be a tough game. Good luck to both teams.

By: Jim McGuire

Gridiron No. 2 - Tribe Cougars vs. Spiders

This game pits the Tribe Red champs (for the second year in a row) against a surprising Spider team. The Cougars have not lost, nor have they been tied all season! The team is very well-coached. The Spiders have improved 100% over the second half, and this will not be an easy game for the Cougars.

The Cougars are coached by Jim Heydendahl and Laurie Schulmann. This is Jim's third year with the team, and it is also his last. Jim is retiring after this game, as he is getting out of school and assuming a full time job. He has done a great deal for the Boys Club over the past three years.

Coach Heydendahl sends in the plays to QB's Dan Diversey and Pat King. The rest of this strong backfield is made up of Brian Crowe, Gene Shedore, and Steve Diversey. They owe much of their running success to the blocking of Jay Bastian, Tom Gschwind, Kurt Krueger, Kevin Schulmann, Coleman Conneely, and John Stemmen. The passing game rests in the arms of Dan Diversey and Pat King. The ends are Glen Hamilton and Tim Ferrendino and the flankers are Jason Porris and Steve Diversey. The Cougars are most successful on the double reverse, sweep, and the Railroad play. They operate from the open set.

On the defensive side, the kicking game depends on Steve Diversey and Glen Hamilton. The stars of the defensive line are Tom Gschwind, Kurt Krueger, Kevin Schulmann, Jay Bastian, John Stemmen, and Coleman Conneely. Much of the credit for their undefeated record goes to the defense. They are good at sacking the quarterback, and have a knack for intercepting errant passes.

The Cougars have met a strong resistance from the Bees, but would like to play the Buccs because they pass often. The Cougars want to win on Thanksgiving to preserve their undefeated record in front of their families and friends.
