HAPPY THANKSGIVING!

The NBC Staff and Leaders, Mothers' Club, and Dads' Club would like to wish you and your family a Happy Thanksgiving! We would also like to thank all of the coaches for working so hard this season, the players for always giving their best and having such fine attendance and sportsmanship, to all of the parents who came out to the games and supported the players, and to the volunteer dads and Alumni members who made this special day possible!

NBC CLOSED FRIDAY

The Boys' Club will be closed all day on Fri. Nov. 27th, as we will be cleaning the building from Thanksgiving and getting the final details for Saturday's hockey games and uniform return finished. We reopen with hockey games for every team at 8:30 on Sat. Nov. 28th. Be sure to check the hockey schedule so that you do not miss your game!

HOCKEY CAPTAIN VOTING MONDAY

All Cadet and Prep teams will vote for hockey captains at their team meetings on Mon. Nov. 30th. Teams will need at least 6 players to conduct a fair vote, and those who served as captain during the football season are not eligible for hockey. Co-captains are eligible, however. No player can be captain for two consecutive sports as others deserve the chance to show leadership ability.

The meeting will also include more on the start of the regular season hockey games on Dec. 5th. Be sure that you have everyone here so that your team gets off to a good start! New hockey rosters will be passed out at the meetings, also.

FLOOR HOCKEY PRACTICE SCHEDULE

All players will have hockey practices according to the schedule below starting on Wed. Dec. 2nd. The practices are an important part of your team commitment, so don't take them lightly! We cannot teach you how to improve your play if you do not come out to work on it. Remember that, in order to earn an Achievement Ribbon, you must attend at least 75% of your games, meetings, and practices!

1987 TURKEY SHOOT WINNERS

The 1987 edition of the NBC Turkey Shoot went very well. Thanks to parent interest, we had a total of 77 teams! The results have been tallied, and the winners are listed below. The purpose of the contest was not to give out turkeys, but to have something for Father and Son or Mother and Son to do together - whether they did well or not. It was fun for all, and we hope that the many who did not try this year will be among the first to sign up next year!

This game will start the morning, and will be a tight battle between a pair of closely matched opponents. The Locusts put together a solid third place showing in each half, while the Bobcats placed 4th each time. The Bobcats have yet to beat the Locusts this season, although they tied once.

The Locusts are coached by NBC veterans Ron Sylvander and Dario Camarillo, who last coached the Teen Falcons. The big Locust offensive weapon is back Shelby Walker. He led the team in scoring with 85 points, and was 2nd in the league! QB Joe Marks directs the team, and his main receivers on a passing down are Carl Richmond and Jason Patis. Joe also fills in on punt and kickoff returns. Geoff Taylor and Carl Richmond round out their usual backfield. They operate out of the Power I and Split Backfield, and their running attack has kept them in the win column. Opening the holes with strong blocking are Eric Oleksy, Adam Taylor, Jason Nelson, and Jason Schott. On defense, their sparkplug is Carl Richmond. He has clearly been the defensive leader, and puts 100% into every game. They have a quick line of Sebastian Baworski, John Ghanayem, John Colletta, Dan Ziegler, and Keith Kielnik. The Locusts feel that their toughest competition has been the Bobcats because they are equal in ability. Both teams will have to work hard to win. The Locust success this year was brought on by team unity being their number one star! They would like to beat the Pirates the most, because "they are very beatable, but always make the big play". The Locusts will win on Thanksgiving because they are "starting to gell instead of going in different directions".

The Bobcats are coached by rookie Paul A. Flatley. Their offensive sparkplugs have been Juan Duran, James Taylor, Brian Brownlow, and Steve Sopoci. The team has not scored a lot this year, but they put points on the board when it counted! Carlos Buelvas, Erik Blankenship, and Brian Brownlow led the team in scoring with 12 pts. each. Tim O'Brien handles most of the passing from the heavyback position, with Erik Blankenship and Carlos Buelvas on the receiving end. Carlos also does an excellent job returning punts and kickoffs. The offensive plays are shuttled in from Coach Flatley to Steve Sopoci and James Taylor. They have had their best success running out of the Wishbone, with the help of blockers Dan Krahn, Marc Villasenor, Jason St. Mary, Ivan Esparza, Carlos Garcia, Tim O'Brien, and Ed Scharringhausen. The keys to the defense have been Tim O'Brien, Ivan Esparza, and Jason St. Mary, who lead the team in key tackles and fumble recoveries. The defensive line is powered by Dan Krahn, Tim O'Brien, Ivan Esparza, Ed Scharringhausen, and Jason St. Mary. Coach Flatley believes that teamwork has been a Bobcat trademark, along with spirit and hard work at practice. They judge the Locusts to be their toughest opponent because they are a fair team with good athletes and good coaches. The Bobcats would like to beat the Locusts because they are tough neighborhood rivals. They feel that sportsmanship, teamwork, and listening to Paul Flatley for a change will assure a victory! It should be a fine game until the final seconds tick off of the clock! Good luck to both teams, and congratulations on the season.

This Prep game will be played as an unofficial third place contest. Last Thanksgiving Day, the Bobcats battled the Pirates and won. This year has seen them struggle, but they put it together in the second half and made a solid run for the top spot. The Falcons also made a great run at the second half title, losing to the Locusts on the last play of the game! Bobcat coach Bill Grayson said, "The Bobcats will win because they have great spirit and work hard together". The Falcon braintrust of Lewis Adams, Pat Wolff, and Ed Feuling stated that, "The Falcons will win if they play up to their capability, if they have good attendance, and if they play hard". Both teams are very enthused about this big game!

The Bobcat offense has been led by the fine running of Sam Cintron and Mike Cox. Their speedy backfield is rounded out by Ricky Moorehead and John Lim. The Falcons also have a strong running attack, fueled by Filmer Chung and Milton Cardenas. The backfield also includes David Cochren, and the key blocker is Chris Oquendo. The cutback moves of Filmer Chung, and the hard-nosed running of Milton Cardenas give the Falcon backfield a breakaway threat. Both teams have a good sized offensive line. The Bobcat line is anchored by Ed Cruz, Jon Banty, Bill Ault, and Rich and Angel Camacho. The Falcons counter with the consistent play of Jason DeCaro, Nick Wolff, Tony Tripoli, Chris Oquendo, Leonel Loza, Jesus Pinto, Dan Manzella, Carlos Maldonado, and Gerry Perez. When it comes to getting the ball across the goalline, Sam Cintron scores most of the Bobcat points. When they take to the air, the main targets are Jason Grayson and Mike Cox. The offense operates out of the Shotgun, and reverses have been a favorite play. Most the Falcon touchdowns have been scored by Milton Cardenas and Filmer Chung. When the team needs a big play, Chris Oquendo and Mike Krass are called back to pass, looking for Marcus Garcia, Darren Adams, Mike Barak, and Jeremy Feuling. They line up in the Pro Set and Shotgun, and like to pull their linemen for sweeps and go for the bomb! The Bobcat approach to the kicking game is to give everyone a chance, while the Falcons give Chris Oquendo the punts, and Leonel Loza the kickoffs. Sam Cintron and Coach Grayson call the Bobcat plays, and Filmer Chung and Darren Adams take care of the Falcon playcalling. Doing a good job for the Bobcat defensive line are Jack Reiner, Joe Liberto, Andy Krahn, Tino Gonzalez, and leaders Jason Grayson and Jon Banty. The Locusts have been their toughest opponent because of their size advantage. The big Falcon "D" is led by Chris Oquendo, Jason DeCaro, Dan Manzella, Carlos Maldonado, Gerry Perez, Tony Tripoli, and sparkplugs Nick Wolff, Leonel Loza, and Milton Cardenas. They also consider the Locusts to be their toughest opponent, but never let size affect them. Both teams have worked very hard and played it tough this season. This should be a great defensive game. Good luck!

CADET LOCUSTS VS. FALCONS

10:00 - FIELD 1

By: Paul Goerner and Bob Pasternak

The Locusts are the Cadet Football Champions for the second straight year, and they will end the season against the only team to ever beat them - the Falcons! Last season, the Locusts were undefeated. This year, they finally lost a game in the second half by a 7-2 final. The Locusts built an impressive record this year, going 4-0-2 in the first half, and 4-1-1 in the second. They beat the Falcons by scores of 6-0, 13-6, and 24-7!

The Locusts will run their offense out of the Split, Wing, and Shotgun. Coaches Tim Gibbons and Dan Borgert usually call the signals, but on this day that responsibility will be left up to the players. Their high-scoring offense is led by the speedy Nick Anagnopoulos, who led the league with 86 points, and the quick and shifty Paul Aspengren. QB Nick also has additional running help from Tim Ray, Dan Borgert, Steve Castiglioni, and Ron O'Keefe. When the team goes to the air, either Nick or Erik Abraham fade back and look for Joe Gibbons and Jacob Haslwanter. Many holes for the running backs are opened by the steady blocking of center Jim Cooney, Erik Abraham, Jason Davis, Bill Pigg, Jeff Prause, Brian Wilson, Ed Hernandez, Phil Castiglioni, and Dave Pravin. Another big plus for the Locusts has been the fine play of their defensive unit, which is sparked by Phil Castiglioni, Matt Myers, and Fred Cintron. Their linemen are Jim Cooney, Erik Abraham, Brian Wilson, Ed Hernandez, Dave Pravin, and Steve Castiglioni. Their secondary also plays well, thanks to the efforts of Tim Ray, Paul Aspengren, Dan Borgert, and the Castiglionis. They name the Falcons as their toughest opponent because of their intense hunger to beat them, which carries over from last year. They feel that they will win because they have the most talented and committed players who have worked continually to improve their skills. Hard work, dedication, team spirit, and execution have keyed their success!

The Falcons are determined to beat the Locusts in this final meeting! When the teams played last, the Locusts won 6-0 on the last play of the game! There were 3 seconds left on the clock when the deadlock was broken. The Falcons have a strong offense, led by QB and playcaller Alex Maldonado. Alex was the number two scorer in the league with 39 points! The offense runs out of the I, and reverses have worked well. The running game is led by Alex, who has great speed and an ability to find the hole. Back Jeremy Mainard adds quickness to the attack. When a passing down comes up, Alex looks toward the surehanded Steve Perez, Dan Beucher, and Paul Edwards. Providing good protection are offensive linemen Rafael Zapata, Jamil Herezei, Joshua Zapata, Sean Greene, Erik Bedura, Mike Dawson, and Kris Steinbichler. The kicking and punting chores rest in the foot of captain Nick Pinto. On the defensive end, Steve Perez and Adrain Loza lead the attack. They have a very tough line of Brad Paulus, Dan Negrete, Mike Dawson, Alex Perez, Dan Neradt, and Neil Feuling. They will be waiting for the Locusts! The Falcons would like nothing better than to beat the Locusts, and have confidence in their chances as they proved they could beat them once already. Great attendance and the ability to come up with the big play are responsible for their success and giving the Locusts a run for the money in the second half race. Coaches Mike Perez, Rafael Zapata, and Ed Feuling are to be congratulated for leading the team to another second place finish. Next year, who knows! The best of the luck to both teams!

TRIBE EAGLES VS. FALCONS

10:00 - FIELD 2

By: Jim Dix

This game will be interesting, because it pits two tough neighborhood rivals. In addition, these two teams played together as the Falcons last season, and they were the co-champions when they tied with the Locusts on Thanksgiving. Now, they have two separate teams and have an intense rivalry even though they are still friends. The teams have had a tough year, tying for 5th place with 13 points each in the first half. The Eagles showed improvement in the second half and finished with 15 points, while the Falcons struggled with 11 points. To their credit, the teams never gave up, quit on each other, or forfeited a game! They can put the memories behind with a Thanksgiving victory. The Eagles ran away with it in their last meeting, and the Falcons are looking to avenge this loss.

The Eagles are coached by longtime Falcon coach Mike Mackey, who has coached several generations of NBC football, and former Bobcat coach Rex Pecoraro, who has won past titles with the Bobcats and Pirates. Bill McDonald is their top runner and leading scorer, and Erwin Kupi is a tough, straight-ahead runner and their number two scorer. In passing situations, Bill drops back and looks for Bob Gulino. When the offense stalls, Bob Gulino handles the punts, while Doug Rosson takes the kickoffs. Sweeps have been successful out of the I, the T, and the Wishbone. Opening the holes for the backs are offensive linemen Greg Smith, Doug Rosson, Eric Wolff, Kevin Mackey, Bill Menezes, and Boris Prado. The tool that usually keeps them in the game is their defense, which is led by the aggressive play of Martin Youmaran, Greg Smith, Kevin Mackey, Doug Rosson, Eric Wolff, Boris Prado, Bill Menezes, and Bill McDonald. Their strong suit has been sportsmanship, and hard practice and a good attitude will carry them to victory on Thanksgiving!

The Falcons have been coached by Jim Griffin, who calls the plays. Their backfield is led by the running of leading scorer Al Hogan, and backs Sean Gotshall, Peter Mancini, and QB Demetre Lambropoulos. Jeff Griffin is called back to do most of the passing, looking for Chad Elliott or Al Hogan in the clear. Kickoffs are handled by Al Hogan, and Jeff Griffin boots the punts. Heavyback runs out of the I or the T have been most successful, and their hard-working line is led by blockers Carlos Matias, Chuck Hodges, Greg Zembridge, and Dave Krass.

This game is not only the big Prep game of the morning, but it is also the only championship game of the day! This game will determine once and for all which team is the best! It pits the first half champion Pirates (4-0-2) against the second half winning Locusts (2-0-4). The team's have seen their rivalry intensify with each meeting, and this last one should be an aggressive and hard-hitting duel.

The Pirates are led on offense by the running and passing of QB Joe Garcia, who led the league in scoring with 49 points with some great running and cutting ability. When Joe does not carry himself, he hands off to Tony Ramirez and Dennis Holland. On passing downs, he spots Tom Sullivan, Dave Ling, and George Howe for the big gain. The Pirates run most of their plays out of the I and the Wishbone, with an offensive line anchored by Arturo Radilla, Jeremy Kostanski, George Howe, and Chris Beucher. If the Locusts penetrate the Pirate defense, they will have to contend with the hitting of linebackers Tom Jaworowski, Junios Colon, and Jeremy Kostanski, and the play of safeties Mike Ruiz and Greg Partridge. This defense might hold the to stopping the sweeps and dive plays up the middle that the Locusts do so well! The strong Pirate line has its work cut out, but Chris Beucher, Brian Logan, Dave Campbell, and Conan White are ready to accept the challenge.

The Locusts are paced by the excellent running of John Borrero, the quarterback. John is speedy and has the ability to cut quickly. He was the number two scorer in the league, just behind Pirate Joe Garcia, with 43 points. Strong running is also provided by Rich Walters and Brad Kielnik, who are not easy to bring down! The Locusts like to pass, and the duty falls on the shoulders of Adam Dassow. Adam has a very strong arm, and looks toward Mark Lamb and Paul Abraham to find the open spot. Both players have come up with some great catches. Opening the holes and pass blocking duties are led by Jose Hernandez, Frank Fabian, Mike Guidara, Chris Britton, Pat Wiesner, and John Hall. On the opposite end, the Locusts do a tremendous job on defense, and do not allow many points. The play of James Reynolds, James Webb, Marcel Teran, Jack Richmond, linebackers Paul Abraham and Mark Lamb, and safeties John Borrero and Rich Walters carried them during the second half drive.

The Locusts have come a long way under the steady coaching of Glenn Jauch and Jim Bailey, both of whom call the plays. The Pirates started out strong and finished well, thanks to the efforts of coaches George Howe and Don White. They send plays in to Joe Garcia. The Pirates have found the Falcons to be their toughest opposition because of an intense rivalry that has developed over the last three years. They feel that they will win because they have Joe Garcia, and are unbeatable when they play together as a team. The Locusts, on the other hand, found the Pirates to be their stiffest challenge because no other team beat them all season! They feel that they have come together as a team and play well together. They are determined to win on Thanksgiving, and feel that they are hungrier than the Pirates. Win, lose, or tie, this game will clearly one of the best! Good luck to both teams.

This game will be a tight battle between two evenly matched and enthusiastic teams. During the regular season, they met four times, with each team winning once, and tying twice. The Pirates went 1-2-3 in the first half for third place, and 1-1-4 with another third place finish in the second half. The Bobcats played tough and improved throughout the season, but still ended up just behind the Pirates. Their first half record was 1-3-2, while they were 1-4-1 in the final half.

The Pirates run their offense out of many formations, but one of their main sets is the T. The plays will be called by coaches Gary Wadley and Gilbert Acevedo. The team's top scorers are captain Dan Howe and QB Chris Wadley. Rounding out the backfield are David Krause, Danny Howe, Bobby Gordon-Hae, and Antonio Acevedo. The Pirates also have a fine aerial attack as the strong-armed Chris Wadley drops back and looks to Greg Banks or Gil Acevedo. Their offense has really shaped up thanks to the hard blocking of linemen Jesse Pineda, Matt Bell, Rich Manzano, Ken Irizarry, Tony Boettjer, Mike Nagamine, Jorge Garcia, and Chris Banks. The team also has a quick defense, led by the excellent efforts of Tom Schaefer, Nicholas McCartney, Chris Wadley, Matt Bell, and Rich Manzano. They had their toughest time with the Falcons, because numerous penalties made the game tougher.

They are looking forward to another game with the Bobcats, and hope to end the season with a taste of victory!

The Bobcats run their offense out of the T behind QB John Bolz. He has a fast backfield, made up of backs Rene Duran, who scored most of their points, and Tony Ratana, their number two scorer. When they take to the air, expect John to look for captain Mike LeBike or Brian Skinner. The team's plays are called by coaches Jim Winters and John Bolz. The keys to their offensive blocking are Moshe Buelvas, Ben Sosa, Mike Zamudio, and Jim Liberto. The defense is powered by Brian Skinner, Glen Smith, Paul Sopanarat, William Winters, Alex Diaz, Bill George, Ron Lussi, and Simon Schroeder. The toughest team they have faced has been the Locusts because they play very well and are well-coached. The team has worked hard all season long, and never gives up! On this big day, determination could be the difference.

Good luck to both teams. Congratulations to all of the Pirate and Bobcat-players and coaches for putting together a fine season with good attendance, excellent sportsmanship, and no forfeits. You did you best at every game and practice, and that means a kind of success that your record cannot show!

The big Tribe Turkey Bowl Game will be played on field 2 at 11:00, where the 1987 Champion Pirates will square off with the second place Cougars. The Pirates will be trying to hold onto their unblemished record, while the Cougars do their best to hand out a loss. These teams faced each other four times this season. Their first half encounters ended in Pirate victories as they went 6-0. In the second half, however, the Cougars battled to a 12-12 tie to break the unbeaten string, and their final meeting went to the Pirates.

The Pirates had a picture-perfect first half with a 6-0-0 record. In the second half, they went 5-0-1 for a combined total of 11-0-1 - the top record in all leagues! They are coached by Servando Colon and Jerry Jarvis, and have put a great deal of effort into this accomplishment. They work out of the I and the Shotgun most of the time, and the plays are called by captain Terry Phee and QB Bob Colon. The Pirates have an extremely effective passing game, clearly the most explosive in the league. Most of the passing is handled by QB Bob Colon and heavyback Terry Phee. Their favorite targets are Pedro Hernandez and Mike Aristizabal. The running game is led by Bob and Terry, and their running back Ron Lopez. The powerful Pirate offense produced 6 of the top scorers in the Tribe League, including three players with over 50 points! Terry Phee easily led the league with 120 points - 20 touchdowns! Pedro Hernandez was third in the race with 63 points, and Bob Colon was 5th with 50 points. One of the keys to their success has been the solid blocking of linemen Steve Krause, Tom Gibson, Tom Arteese, Felipe Mojica, Ricky Loureiro, and Saul Radilla. According to Coach Colon, the sparkplugs on offense have been Terry Phee, Pedro Hernandez, and Bob Colon. In fact, Terry Phee has scored more touchdowns returning kicks than most players do running from the 1 yardline! When the team scores, kickoff are rotated fairly. In punting situations, however, Mario Romay takes over. Another big factor in the unbeaten season has been the defensive efforts of leaders Jason Peterson, Rodney Metzgar, and Ron Lopez. They have formed an outstanding unit, with the help of Steve Krause, Kevin Sullivan, and Terry Phee. They would like to beat the Cougars the most because they have a tough defense and always give you a good fight. When asked why they will win on Thanksgiving, they replied, "because we work together as a team, showing both good attendance and sportsmanship. Every player is important and must produce".

The Cougars played a tremendous season, most of it on their own, and just were edged out by the Pirates in each half. One win over the Pirates would have made this a championship game! The Cougars cannot be the champs, but are out to shatter the unbeaten streak at 12! They have been helped again this year by Steve Griffin and John Mogan. They vary their offensive attack by working out of the Split Back, I, and Shotgun. They have a solid running game, led by heavyback Mike Arrieta with outstanding speed, and captain Sean Conneely, who is very effective on short spurts. The passing duties are split between heavybacks Brian Emberton and Mike Arrieta and QB Sean Conneely. The main targets have been Guenter Seidel, John Sopanarat, and Brian and Mike. The plays are called by Sean Conneely and co-captain Isaias Soto. They also possess a high-powered offense, with 6 of the top scorers in the league. Mike Arrieta led the team with 63 points, while Sean added 21 points, and Isaias Soto 20 points. Isaias also kicked the only two point conversion of the year in any league! Isaias, naturally, handles the kicking game. Provided support are linemen Chris Notis, Ricardo Arroyo, Oscar Soto, and Rich Meulenberg. The outstanding Cougar defense has been mainly responsible for their success. Their fired up effort has been led by Isaias Soto, Scott Stemmen, and Mike Arrieta. Their line has done a spectacular job, led by Joel Boris, Andrew Nelson, Fares Zanayed, Isaias Soto, and Brian Emberton. The Pirates have been their toughest matchup because they play together as a team and come up with the big play. Sportsmanship and a winning attitude have guided the Cougars this season, and they believe that they will win this big game because they will be prepared, and teamwork and momentum will carry them. Good luck to both teams, and congratulations on your outstanding effort, attitude, and level of play from start to finish!

 Defensively, they line up with Jeff Griffin, Chad Elliott, Ed Trinidad, and Chuck Hodges. Sparking the defensive effort are Al Hogan and Chuck Hodges. The toughest team they have faced is the Cougars because of their style of play. They feel that a Thanksgiving win is coming their way because of their attitude, and the rivalry and friendship between themselves and the Eagles. Good luck, and congratulations to both teams and their coaches for a job well done!

 Saturday ★★ 10:00-2:00 p.m.

CADET PRE-SEASON OPENS

By: Paul Goerner

Last Saturday morning was the first official action of the Floor Hockey pre-season. The new Eagle/Vikings beat the new Bees team 4-3, the Bobcats outshot the Locusts 10-5, and the Pirates beat the Falcons in an offensive show 12-10.

The two newly formed both played very well in their first game. The Eagle/Viks were powered by 3 goals from Nick Pinto and one from Tom Schaefer. Along with a good defensive effort, they held the Bees off for a narrow win. The Bees looked good, getting a pair of goals from Steve Castiglioni and one from Jim Cooney. Also playing for the Bees were Simon Schroeder, Ron Lussi, Ron O'Keefe, Jeff Frause, Phillip Castiglioni, Alex Bernstein, Dan Borgert, and Brian Wilson. Leading a good effort for the Eagle/Viks were Rafael Zapata, Jamil Herezei, Joshua Zapata, Matt Ball, and Nick McCartney.

The Pirates and Falcons put on an offensive show with some fine shooting. The Pirates came out on top 12-10, thanks to 4 goals from Greg Banks, 3 goals apiece from Jorge Garcia and Gil Acevedo, and a pair of goals from Antonio Acevedo. The Falcons were led by Paul Edwards with 5 big goals, Dan Beucher with two goals, and single goals from Tim Mueller, Adrian Loza, and Kris Steinbichler. Others who played well for the Falcons were Brad Paulus, Steve Perez, Alex Maldonado, and Neil Feuling. For the Pirates, Rich Manzano, Tony Boettjer, Oscar Guevara, and Chris Wadley did well.

The Bobcats started the pre-season in fine fashion as they stopped the Locusts 10-5. Last season, the Bobcats were second to the champion Falcons. They look ready to claim the top spot this year! Mike LeBike paved the way with 4 goals, Paul Sopanarat and John Bolz scored twice, and Tony Ratana and Brian Skinner scored once. The Locusts played hard, getting a pair of goals from Jason Davis, and single tallies from Erik Abraham, Joe Gibbons, and Tim Ray. Also playing for the Locusts were Paul Aspengren, Nick Anagnopoulos, Bill Pigg, Dave Pravin, and Matt Myers. Helping the Bobcats to a win were Glen Smith, Bill Winters, Ben Sosa, Rich Machal, and Jim Liberto.

Congratulations to all of the teams on a great start to the pre-season, both in good attendance and in good play! The regular season starts on Sat. Dec. 5th!

CADET BOBCATS PARTY

By: Brian Jarvis

Last Saturday afternoon we held the last Cadet football pizza party, and it was for the Bobcats. They had a good group of 14 members, and we had a lot of fun. Our first game was a dodge ball series, and then we played some basketball. After that and some gameroom games, the pizza came. It didn't take long for the team to finish lunch, and it was time for the team drawing. Rene Duran won a team pennant, John Bolz a team bag, Ben Sosa a football, and Bill George a team shirt. Others who came out were William Winters, Tony Ratana, Paul Sopanarat, Brian Skinner, Simon Schroeder, Mike LeBike, Glen Smith, Mike Zamudio, Jim Liberto, and Ron Lussi.

The Falcons came up with a big 12-2 win over the Eagles. The Falcons had control from the opening period when they took a 4-1 lead. They added 5 in the second and 3 in the 3rd. Al Hogan sparked the team with 4 goals. Jeff Griffin added 3 goals, Chad Elliott and Tom DeLeon each scored twice, and Peter Mancini added a goal. William McDonald and Doug Rosson scored for the Eagles. Other Falcons were goalie Chuck Hodges, who did a great job, Dave Krass, Ed Trinidad, Greg Zembridge, and Shawn Gotshall. Doing their best for the Eagles were Bob Gulino, Kevin Mackey, Eric Wolff, Bryan McDonald, and Bill Menezes.

PREP PRE-SEASON HOCKEY

By: Russi Tenev

The Prep pre-season faced off last Saturday, and the first game saw the Locusts sting the Bobcats 13-3. The Locusts came out shooting, and built a 4-2 first period lead. Brad Kielnik and John Hall each scored twice for the Locusts. The Bobcats came back when Sam Cintron passed to Jason Grayson for a goal, and Angel Camacho set up Jason with a fine pass for his second goal.

The second period was the turning point as the Locusts scored 7 times while keeping the Bobcats off of the scoreboard. This outbursts gave them an 11-2 lead. Adam Dassow had 4 goals and an assist, Paul Abraham 2 goals and 2 assists, Chris Britton a goal and an assist, and Brad Kielnik and John Hall each set up a goal.

The final period saw less scoring, but the big Locust lead was too much for the Bobcats to overcome. John Hall and Mark Lamb scored for the Locusts, and Sam Cintron had the last Bobcat goal. Also doing a good job for the Locusts were Mike Guidara and Jose Hernandez. The Bobcats would have played better with a couple of subs. They only had 6 at the game, and were pretty tired as the game wore on. Trying their best were Ricky Moorehead, Jack Reiner, and Richard Camacho.

The second game was a closer battle with some very good defense. The Falcons outlasted the Pirates 7-4. It was 2-1 Falcons after the first period as Jesus Pinto and Chris Oquendo scored, while Fabian Barrera put the Pirates in the scoring column. The second period was also very tight with the Falcons taking a 5-3 lead. Single goals were scored by Jesus Pinto, Paul Radosevici, and Brian Mueller. The Pirates answered with goals from Tony Ramirez and George Howe. The Pirates played hard in the final period, but were outscored 2-1 for a 7-4 final. Goals by Mike DeLeon and Leonel Loza wrapped it up for the Falcons. Tony Ramirez hit the net for the last Pirate goal.

Others who did a great job for the Pirates were Dave Ling, Jeremy Kostanski, Junior Colon, Sergio Guevara, Arturo Radilla, and Greg Partridge. Doing well for the Falcons were Filmer Chung, Nick Wolff, Armando Ortega, Jason DeCaro, Darren Adams, Jeremy Feuling, Juan DeLeon, Tom Noto, Andy Cruz, Adam Perez, and Carlos Maldonado.

TRIBE SATURDAY REVIEW

The Tribe teams had a great start to the pre-season last Saturday morning. The defending champion Locusts beat the Pirates 10-2 to start the day. The first period ended 1-1, but the momentum turned in the second when the Locusts scored 5 times while shutting the Pirates down. The Locusts closed it out by outshooting the Pirates 4-1 in the third. Leading the Locusts was Scott Goerner with 3 goals, Adam Taylor and Mark Kielnik with 2 goals each, and Joe Marks, Geoff Taylor, and Eric Oleksy added a goal apiece. Scott Goerner added two assists, and Jason Nelson one. Brian Forth and Scott Goerner played very well in the net. Also doing a great defensive job were Jeff Sauer, John Ghanayem, Carl Richmond, and Mike Schooley. The Pirates have some work to do on their defense, but that is what the pre-season is for. Brian Jarvis and Ricky Loureiro scored their two goals. Others who played were Pedro Hernandez, Mario Romay, Bob Colon, Rodney Metzgar, Saul Radilla, and Martin Youmaran.

At 10:00, the Cougars beat the Bobcats 10-5. It was 3-3 after two periods, but the Cougars exploded for 7 goals in the third to take it away. Isaias Soto led the Cougars with 4 goals, Brian Emberton added 3 goals, and single goals were added by Sean Conneely, Joel Boris, and Andy Nelson. The Bobcats were led by James Taylor with 4 goals, and Jason St. Mary with one. Also playing for the Bobcats were Steve Sopoci, Dan Krahn, Shelby Walker, Ivan Eparza, Carlos Buelvas, Adam Palomar, and Tim O'Brien. Helping the Cougars were Rich Meulenber, John Sopanarat, Fares Zanayed, and Scott Stemmen.

THANKSGIVING 1986 IN REVIEW

Fld.1 - 9:00 - Teen Vikings-Raiders

This exciting game was played for the Teen title, and the Vikings won 6-0. Both teams fought hard through a scoreless first half. The highlight for the Raiders was a deflected interception by Tom Perkins. Mid-way through the fourth quarter, the Vikings started to move the ball. The drive resulted in a 6 yard scoring run by Russi Tenev to clinch the second straight Viking football championship. Both teams had a great year.

Fld.2 - 9:00 - Tribe Bobcats-Cougars

The Bobcats and Cougars, neighborhood rivals, battled to a 0-0 tie on the slippery field. Both teams played well on the defensive. The Bobcats were led by Matt Chambers and Craig Foster with fumble recoveries, and Gary McIntyre had two sacks for the Cougars.

Fld.3 - 9:00 - Teen Dolphins-Broncos

These two former Teen champs played to a scoreless tie on a thin sheet of ice. The Dolphins last won a title in 1984, while the Broncos were champs last year. Tom Kalous led the Dolphin defense with a sack, while Andy Emberton chalked up a sack for the Broncos.

Fld. 1 - 10:00 - Prep Bobcats-Pirates

The Bobcats showed everyone that they deserve to be undefeated as the 1986 champs knocked off the Pirates 20-7. Last Thanksgiving, these teams played for the Prep title and tied. The Pirates led 7-0 after the 1st quarter on a 12 yard run by William Davies and an extra point run by Tony Ramirez. The Bobcats caught fire in the second quarter when Craig Hallgren scored on a 25 yard run. Mike Cox added the extra point to tie it up at the half. Mike Cox scored on a 19 yard run in the 3rd quarter to put the Bobcats in the driver's seat. Craig added the extra point, and it 14-7. The final score came on a great 58 yard punt return by Craig Hallgren. John Banty had a sack for the Bobcats.

Fld. 2 - 10:00 - Tribe Locusts-Falcons

This was a big game as the Tribe championship ended in a 0-0 tie. The Locusts were the undefeated first half winners, but the Falcons won the second half by one point. The Locusts won the title last year, and this was the first for the Falcons. The Falcon defense was led by Bob Gulino with an interception, Kevin Mackey and Jeff Griffin with sacks, and Al Hogan with a fumble recovery.

Fld. 3 - 10:00 - Prep Falcons-Locusts

The Locusts edged the Falcons 7-6 in an exciting game. The teams played a scoreless first half, but the Falcons got going in the 3rd quarter. Greg Partridge intercepted a Locust pass and returned it 75 yards for a 6-0 lead. The Locusts did not give up, and came back in the 4th quarter. Adam Dassow took off on a big 70 yard run to tie the game. The Falcons tried to stop the extra point, but the Locusts prevailed when Mark Lamb ran in the extra point for the victory!

Fld. 1 - 11:00 - Cadet Locusts-Falcons

The Cadet champs finished with an exciting win on the last play of the game. The Locusts led 6-0 on a 3rd quarter TD by Joe Gibbons. The Falcons tied it up in the 4th on 4 yd. run by Jeremy Mainard. It looked as if the teams would tie, but Erik Abraham sacked the Falcons for a safety as time ran out for an 8-6 win! Both teams played a great game!

Fld. 2 - 11:00 - Tribe Pirates-Bees

The Tribe Bees nipped the Pirates 7-0 in a good defensive game. The only points were scored in the first quarter when Mark Easterwood returned a punt 47 yards for a TD, and Jerry Millard ran in the extra point. Ron Lopez had a sack for the Pirates, and Easterwood added one for the Bees.

Fld. 3 - 11:00 - Cadet Pirates-Bobcats

The Pirates ran past the Bobcats 19-0. Dan Howe scored touchdowns of 85, 15, and 6 yards to lead the way. Greg Banks caught a pass from Dave Krause for the extra point on the final TD. The teams had a close rivalry during the season with some great games, and should be foes during the hockey season, also!

THE LEGEND OF THE BIG BIRD

On a cold Thanksgiving morning back in 1941, the Neighborhood Boys Club was buzzing with activity in anticipation of the inaugural "Thanksgiving Day Football Classics". The officials were suiting up for the big games of the morning, the players had butterflies in their stomachs, and hundreds of parents and spectators lined the freshly marked gridirons. Coaches were giving their final words of wisdom while memories of the previous night's Pep Rally were still in the air. There was yelling, cheering, and every imaginable noisemaker! The spirit was overwhelming.

The teams were lined up, and charged out onto the fields for the kickoff. The officials were mobbed by the overzealous youngsters, who were about to begin a long-lasting NBC tradition. The boys put in their lineups and began to shout team cheers to psych themselves up, as well as to keep warm!

Finally, they were ready to begin. The crowd stood quietly at attention as the National Anthem was played. The coin toss followed, the teams were lined up for the kick, and the officials were inhaling that deep breath to send blasting through their whistles to begin the action! Suddenly, out of nowhere, a huge, ominous black cloud filled the sky. Some of the spectators scattered for shelter, unaware of what was about to happen. Others stared with a fixed gaze at this awesome sight. Without warning, from behind this dark cloud, there appeared a gigantic creature gliding toward field 2! It quickly circled the field once, swooped down at the 50 yardline, let out an ear-shattering scream which was heard for miles, and then disappeared as quickly and mysteriously as it came!

Well, the Classics were delayed for a few minutes, but went off as planned. What was that strange creature that interrupted the games 46 years ago? Some have thought it was a giant turkey, and others a UFO. The Legend of the Big Bird is an odd one, indeed. It has not been observed anywhere in the world since that fabled day back in 1941, but we know that the creature did and does exist! Every Thanksgiving morning when we go out to start the games, there is a pile of bird seed at the 50 yardline of field 2!

Maybe this will be the year that the Legend reappears! If you get here early enough, maybe you will be lucky enough to catch a glimpse of this creature of lore. If you spot the elusive Big Bird, point it out to others, but do not approach or try to capture it! You may be it's Thanksgiving Dinner!
