This game will pit two very strong teams against each other to break the tie in a 1-1 season series. The coaches of the teams are friends and each wants his team to win, but only one can win unless we have a draw.

These teams met twice during the pre-season, and the Bees won on both occasions. It was a little more even in the regular season. The Bees won their first half matchup 18-6. The tables were turned, though, in the second half with an 18-6 Pirate win. The teams finished tied for fourth in the first half at 2-4.

All-American QB and captain Joe Garcia leads the offense out of the T & I formations. Joe, Mike Ruiz, and Sergio Guevara handle the running game. Joe connects with Dave Ling, Fabian Barrera, and All-American Carlos Idiaquez in their passing attack. The keys to their offense have been sweeps and the draw play, and fine offensive blocking. Rounding out the line are Mike Higgins, Sam Pagan, Jason Gourley, Tony DelCampo, Bryan McDonald and Greg Partridge. On defense, Carlos Velez and co-captain Ricky Munoz lead the way. Sergio Guevara handles both ends of the kicking game. The leading scorers for the Pirates are Joe Garcia (38 pts.), and Carlos Idiaquez & Sergio Guevara (18 pts.). The team is coached by Rex Pecoraro and Gil Ruiz. They can't call any one team the toughest because they felt that the entire league was very competitive, but would most like to beat the Bobcats and Locusts. They have played well this year because of hard work and team parties to keep them together. The reason they will win this game is their "Commitment to Excellence".

The Bees edged out the Pirates by one point in the second half with a 2-3-1 mark. They run their offense out of the T, I, and Shotgun with Adam Taylor calling the plays. Slick and punishing All-American runners John Ghanayem and Paul Abraham lead the offense along with team scoring leader Geoff Taylor (26 pts.). The receiving corp is led by Geoff Taylor, John Ghanayem, and Carlos Avelar. Kickoffs and punts are entrusted to the right foot of Mike Lamb. Runs up the middle and deep passes have led to much of the Bees' success. Doing a great job in the trenches are offensive and defensive linemen Mike Taylor, Mike Lamb, Adam Dassow, Miguel Davila, and All-American Frank Fabian. The defensive sparkplugs are Bill Richard, Miguel and Paul. The coaches are Tom Boettjer, Mike Borntraeger, and Steve Will. They say that the key this year has been good practices. The Bees felt that their toughest opponent was the Locusts and would like to beat them because of their neighborhood rivalry. They will win this contest based upon desire, which the coaches have worked to instill in the players. Good luck to both teams, and thanks for such a fine season!

This game will be one of the finest of the day as it pits the champion Pirates (12-0) against the Locusts. The Locust string three straight titles (1986-87-88) has come to an end and the Pirates, who shared a title with the Locusts last year after tying on Turkey Day, now have two in a row! The teams had a very even and intense rivalry this season.

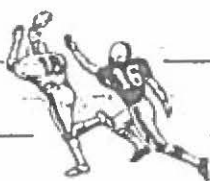

The Pirate running game has been their strong point with reverses and end sweep piling up big yardage. QB Jason Guziec directs the attack, handing the ball to Gil Acevedo, a fast and powerful runner, and speed-burner Antonio Acevedo. When the Pirates go to the air, Chris Wadley is called back and looks for his favorite receivers, Tom Gillespie and Sargon Hawel. After scores, Rich Manzano handles the kickoffs and when the offense sputters, Greg Banks does the punting.

The Pirates have a solid offensive line which consists of Julio Calderon, Chris Banks, Rich Manzano, Chris Wadley, and Greg Banks. When on defense, linemen Todd Brown, Oscar Guevara, Dan Macharg, Chris Banks, Rich Manzano, and Julio Calderon put the pressure on the opposing quarterbacks. The Pirates feel that the Cougars have been their toughest match because they are a fast-running and quick-thinking team. On Thanksgiving, though, they most want to beat the Locusts because they were co-champions last year. The Pirates point to playing as a team and as friends as the reasons behind their success.

The Locusts also have a strong offensive unit and rely upon their running game. Options, misdirections, and reverses have been very successful. Nick Anagnopoulos sparks the offense with his instinctive running, and has a lot of help from Paul Aspengren, who is a determined runner, and the fleet-footed Matt Myers. When they need a big gain, heavyback Jason Davis is called upon to spot Joe Gibbons, Jacob Haslwanter, or Anagnopoulos in the clear. When the offense is stopped, Kiernan Rochman and Haslwanter share the punting duties.

The Locusts have a hard-working offensive line which opens holes behind the consistent play of Tony Christopher, Kiernan Rochman, Dave Pravin, Jason Davis, Jhoven Corres, and Erik Abraham. Giving the defense a boost are Luke Wolff, Ben McCann, Erik Abraham, Matt Lane, and Rochman. The Locusts name the Pirates and Cougars as their toughest opponents. They want to stop the Pirates on Thanksgiving because they have come close all year, but fell just a play or two short which was frustrating. Team spirit has been their trademark, and they will carry it with them into this game. The coaches have worked hard all year for both teams, which Gary Wadley, Cliff Banks, and Gil Acevedo doing the job for the Pirates, and Tim Gibbons and Jim Lane organizing the Locusts. Good luck to both teams and congratulations on all of your successes and parent support!

CADET PIRATES VS. FALCONS

10:00 - FIELD 1

By: Tom Boettjer

The big matchup between these two teams looks to be a good one. The Falcons will be powered by an offense which uses the sweep to perfection while the Pirates will counter with reverses and throwbacks. The Pirates are the champions for the second straight year, going undefeated once again! They work very hard and earned this title.

The Falcon offense is led by the slashing, cutback running of Russell Lubeck and the outside speed of Nick Prause. They run their best plays out of the I. In passing situations, Lubeck looks for the sure-handed Jason Shrewsberry and Mike Jotzat. Good blocking is provided by Juan Garcia, Scott Nettin, Jon Vojinovic, Diego Saucedo, and Mauricio Rubschlagger.

The Pirate offense is powered by the slashing style of QB Dean Hansen, who led the league in points. George Fuchs adds his elusive moves while Chris Gianakas possesses deceptive speed. When the Pirates look to throw, Dean spots receivers William Hansen and Rolando Argumedo for the big play. The solid offensive line is led by Melecio Castillo, Matt Manzano, Ninos Havel, Frank Boykin, and Dan Scheiderich. Most of their plays are run out the I and split T formations.

The Falcons will counter on defense with the quickness of Gabriel Herezel, Mike Jotzat, and Nick Prause. They play behind a tough line of Adam Zapata, Dave Cornejo, and Pat Jentsch. The coin flips are taken by their captains, Gabriel Herezel and Nicholas Prause. The Pirates' defensive leaders are Gilbert "Mousey" Ruiz, Brian O'Keefe, and Chris Gianakas. The front four is powered by Joe Madrid, Sharbel Shamoon, George Fuchs, and Rolando Argumedo. Making the key decisions are captains Dean Hansen and George Fuchs.

Both teams think that each other has been their toughest opposition. Sportsmanship and teamwork have helped them both throughout the season. The Falcons in particular showed great improvement in all phases of the game during the second half, and moved up into second place. Their coaches and parents have all worked hard, and everyone should enjoy this "NBC Primetime" contest!

TRIBE FALCONS VS. VIKINGS

10:00 - FIELD 2

By: Paul A. Flatley

This game is being played for neighborhood bragging rights as the evenly matched Vikings face the Falcons. The boys all live in the same area and have to come to the Club the same way. This should be a good game because the Viks defeated the Falcons in two close games during the regular season. The Vikings won their first half meeting 6-0, and again in the second half 12-6.

The Falcons' offensive sparkplugs are their linemen. If they control the line of scrimmage, the Falcons win. The line is led by Salvador Campos, Haven McVeigh, Jesus Solis, Byron Rogel, and Nick Wolff. All-American QB and Co-Captain Milton Cardenas, along with All-American punter Chris Oquendo, led the team in scoring with 18 pts. each. They are clean, aggressive, very smart, and gamebreakers. Milton connects with sure-handed Steve Schneider when they need a big pass play. Jason DeCaro handles the kickoff duties and, when the offense sputters, Oquendo drops back to boom those high punts. They run their offense out of the I, and heavyback runs and pitchouts have been very successful. The Falcons also play well on defense, led by All-American Gus Karahalios, Miguel Rivera, Jason DeCaro, and Steve Schneider.

According to coaches Ron Sylvander and Dario Camarillo, no one team was tougher than the rest. They felt, along with their players, that "man for man, the Falcons knew we were capable of beating any team that lined up against us". They would most like to defeat the Locusts because, to eventually become the best team in the league, you must first beat the top dog. The key to their team has been the first year players (6) who are willing to listen, learn, not give up, and have fun at the same time. They believe that they are destined to win on Thanksgiving and had this to say, "We have gone through the highs and the lows together as a team and not just as individuals. Also, when you have 14 Falcon players going in the same direction, the chances of the Falcons coming out on top are very, very good."

The Vikings believe that they will win today because of the improvement they have made throughout the season. Also, the coach is letting the boys enjoy themselves and have fun by making their own plays. They hope that this will catch the Falcons off guard. They are led by All-American captain Shaun McMonigal and Co-captain Jeremy Kostanski. All-American Tony Ramirez leads the offense from the QB slot. He gets his plays from coach Jim Dihu, who signals them in from the sidelines. They operate out of the T, I, Power I, Pro Set, Wishbone, and Double Wing formations. Which are they going to use today? Tony passed his reliable receiving corp of Willy Jimenez and Ricky Morales. The running game is powered by All-American Ruben Rivera, who led the team in scoring with 30 points, and by Arturo Radilla. Sweeps and deep passes have worked the best. These plays work because of a sound offensive line, rounded out by Kostanski, Tito Quiles, Jimenez, Joe Fabian, Ricky Rodriguez, and Bill Gerstmayr. Doing great work on the defensive end of the line are Dennis Diaz, Robert Wolf, and Arturo Aviles. When the offense scores or the punting unit is called out, the kicker is Ricky Morales. The Viks feel that the Locusts are the team to beat because they twice shut them out, while they played the other four competitively.

Good luck to both of these fine teams! Only one of you can win this game, and congratulations to whichever team accomplishes victory. Don't eat too much tonight because you'll have a hockey game on Saturday!

PREP COUGARS VS. FALCONS

10:00 - FIELD 3

By: Paul Goerner

This game will pit a pair of teams which, based upon their records, don't appear to be evenly matched. The Cougars are 7-4-1 overall and the Falcons are 3-6-3. Records do not tell the story all the time, and this is a case where the Falcon mark is deceiving. They are far better and will be giving the Cougars a major test.

The Cougar offense relies on the run to get it going with sweeps and runs up the middle providing the spark. Rene Duran, who is quick and strong, and Tony Ratana's key the ground game. When they need to make yardage quickly and go to the air, Ratana or heavyback Paul Sopanarat drop back and find Mike Christian, Brian Skinner, Bill Winters, or Britten Borgert downfield. The operate behind the tough blocking of Victor Tzul, Saadi Elabaza, Rafael Rivera, Tony Morales, Ryan Letrich, Borgert, and Sopanarat. When they can't reach a first down, Tony Ratana drops back to punt. After TDs, the kickoffs are handled by Ratana and Sopanarat. On defense, Ryan Letrich, Victor Tzul, and Paul Sopanarat provide leadership, and a great effort is given by Tony Morales, Saadi Elabaza, Britten Borgert, and Rafael Rivera. The Cougars feel the toughest opponent they've faced has been the Pirates and would like a chance to beat them on Thanksgiving Day. They know that, with a couple of more hard practices, they could beat them. Teamwork, spirit and coaching have gotten them this far, and they intend to go home with a win.

The Falcons rely heavily on the run, with power sweeps and roll outs leading the attack. They get some good holes thanks to the blocking of Jeff Snyder, Jamil Herezei, Joshua and Rafael Zapata, Dan Neradt, and Ricardo Arreguin. QB Adrian Loza hands off to quick running backs Erik "Hollywood" Pedura, a good open-field runner, quick-hitting Paul Andersen, the speedy Brad Paulus, and dependable Roy "Cowboy" Rodriguez. When they move to their aerial attack, Loza looks to Sean Greene and Paul Andersen. If the drive stalls, Jamil Herezei is called upon to pin the opponent back. Their defense is very aggressive and is powered by Herezei, Greene, and Pedura who fire up the rest of the unit, which consists of Jeff Snyder, Dan Neradt, Rafael Zapata, and Kris Steinbichler. They name the Pirates as their toughest opponent but want to beat the Cougars because it is such an even match. The Falcons attribute their success to good defense, teamwork, and spirit. Both teams have had the benefit of some fine coaching, and we applaud the efforts of Cougars Tom Borgert and Steve Skinner as well as Falcons Jim Greene and Ralph Zapata. Good luck to both of you!

CADET LOCUSTS VS. BOBCATS

11:00 - FIELD 1

By: Fares Zanayed

This game features a pair of neighborhood rivals who each had their struggles this season, but never gave up. The Bobcats went winless during the season, but you'd never know it by all the support of their coaches and parents, as well as their own enthusiasm. The Locusts came close to winning the first half, but tailed off in the second. Both teams played with pride and good sportsmanship all the way through.

The Bobcats did not defeat the Locusts this year, but did battle to a tie once. They are out to prove something to themselves and after a tough season always had good attendance and dedication. They know that it's not whether you win or lose, but truly how you play the game. The Locusts were 2-2-2 in the first half and tied the Falcons for second. In the second half, they finished 2-3-1. They had a tough year at times, but never quit until the clock struck zero. The key to their success has been good attendance and an enthusiastic attitude.

The Bobcats run their offense out of the shotgun with one back. They have been coached by Charlie Otto, Mike Kaminski, and Bob Clark, who have spent countless hours teaching and encouraging. Vince Iturralde takes charge of the offense with the help of Albert Viktor and Chris Barszcz. They like to run a reverse and probably pass more than any team in the league, but depend upon the reverse for big gains. When the pass is called, either Albert or Vince look to CJ Otto, Tony Borgert, Tony Iturralde, Chris Barszcz, or Joe Romasanta. Pass protection and solid blocking are provided by Mike Duffy, Allen Vires, Lewis Shapiro, James Clark, Andy Ramsey, George Taylor, and Joe Romasanta. When on the other side of the ball, the Bobcats have a confident defensive squad. It is led by Mike Kaminski, Mike Duffy, CJ Otto, Tony Borgert, and Lewis Shapiro. The Bobcats say that their toughest opponent is themselves because, with all the talent they possess, they should be undefeated! They would like a shot at the Pirates since they are "the team to beat" and feel they could do it.

The Locusts are coached by Jim Haslwanter and Lenny Schoenfelt, and run their offense out of the T formation behind Adam Davis at QB or Jorge Nieves. They have a fine backfield made up of Matt Guidara, Carl Abram, and Bill Cline. When the run can't get the job done and they need to go by air, playcaller Davis looks to Kevin Schoenfelt, Karl Haslwanter or Matt Guidara for the big completion. Their best plays, though, are sweeps and inside power runs. The plays work thanks to the blocking of linemen James Kaleel, Oscar Loza, Carlos Vazquez, Julio Ontanon, Nick Britton, Tony Peterson, Danny Hall, and Kevin Schoenfelt. Most of their TDs have been scored by Carl Abram, Adam Davis, and Matt Guidara who spark that offense. When on the defensive side, Pilly Cline, Karl Haslwanter, Todd Marks, Joe Christopher, Chuck Fanning, and Tony Peterson lead the way with their strength and quickness. The toughest team they've faced have been the Pirates because they are well-coached and are the champions. Good luck to both teams. You did your best in every game no matter what the score, and that's what counts! Remember to play your best and help your team in every way in the Turkey Bowl win or lose!

This game features the champion Locusts against our second place Bobcats and it should be a very good game. The contest pits neighborhood rivals on the best gridiron in Chicago! These two teams met a total of 4 times this season. The Bobcats won in the pre-season 27-18, the Locusts 7-6 and 20-6 in the first and second halves, and the Bobcats 13-0 to end the first half. The Bobcats were the only team to beat the Locusts, who are now two-time champs!

It didn't look like the Locusts were going very far during the pre-season because the formation of the Bees took away several players. Boy, did they prove us wrong! The team worked hard with coaches Jim Bailey and Glenn Jauch and went 5-1 and 6-0! Congratulations on a fine accomplishment.

The Locust offense is led by All-American captain Mark Lamb and All-American John Hall. Hall led the team in scoring with 48 points, and Lamb added 47 points. Mark is a good runner because of his long-legged sprinter's style, and John Borrero compliments his style by grinding out the extra yardage with his moves. Heavyback All-American Jesus Pinto is called in to handle the passing duties and punting. His primary receivers are Hall, Jesus Ortega, and Co-captain Jamie Ortiz. The offense operates out of the single back, and the coaches send in the plays. They have gotten their big yardage on sweeps and through the air. Good blocking is provided by linemen Scott Smith, Danny Wilson, Hector Durruthy, Jason Montalvo, and Jimmy Nikiforos. Their hard-nosed defense is led by Bobby Santana, Jose Castillo, and Dennis Holland. They feel that the Bobcats have been their toughest opponent with their fine running and passing attack. They would most like to beat the Bees on Thanksgiving because many of them played on the Locusts last year. The key to their successful championship season has been teamwork and spirit. The Locusts state: "The Tribe Locusts have the most potent offense and a hard-hitting defense. This, with our teamwork and pride, will be plenty to beat any opponent that we play on Thanksgiving Day".

The Bobcats haven't taken a back seat to anyone this year. They are the only team to beat the Locusts this year, and by a shutout yet! Also, they maintained their second place position all season long. They were 3-1-2 in the first half, and 3-2-1 in the second. They were very determined to play hard.

QB David Kippes led the Bobcat offense. He receives the plays from coach Bob Banty and makes them work. All-American co-captain and Tribe scoring champion Juan Duran (80 pts.) was the key to the offense. He is both quick and elusive with some of the best moves you'll see! Rounding out their backfield are Don Swiney, who led the way by being a good blocking back, their quick slot back Ervin Godinez, and the powerful Ulysses Martinez. Besides running, Ulysses kicks off, punts, and kicks extra points. He has two kicks to his credit this year. Let's hope we see one today! All-American Jon Banty is their key receiver. He has scored 37 pts. and also kicks off and punts. QB Kippes also connects with Junior Colon, Angel Camacho and captain Jason Grayson. They run the offense out of the I, Pro, and Slot formations and have had good success with traps and short passes. They need a strong offensive line to make the plays work, and get fine support from Ed Cruz, Obdulio Velez, Sergio Olmos, Majdi Hijazin, Tim Selgrat, and Tarek Faizi. They also make up the bulk of the defense.

The Bobcats feel that the Locusts have been their toughest opponent because of their size, speed and coaching. They'd most like to beat the Locusts and show them who's number one! The key to the Bobcats this year has been sportsmanship, spirit, and good attendance. According to coach Banty, "This team has only lost three regular season games so far and two of them have been by one point. I feel this team will have something to prove and show on Turkey Day". Good luck to both teams and congratulations on a great season.

PREP BEES VS. VIKINGS

11:00 - FIELD 3

By: Paul Goerner

This game pits a couple of teams which have struggled a lot, but also learned a great deal from their experiences. The Bees won three games this year, while the Vikings were winless but had a pair of ties. The players worked hard with their coaches, improved as the season went by, and always displayed the best of sportsmanship and attitude. That is what winning is all about!

The Bees equally rely on the run and pass. Their offensive line is led by Alfred Rodriguez, Nick Hernandez, Jim Cooney, Brian Wilson, Nick Pinto, Bill Tagtmeyer, and Jason DeLaCruz. The running attack is led by the speedy Zack Wirsum and gutsy Jamal Elayan. When they call a pass, heavy Nick Pinto drops back to look for Dan Borgert and DeLaCruz. Brian Wilson handles the kickoffs, and Nick Pinto punts when the offense can't move the ball. The defense is paced by the tough play of Jim Cooney, Jeff Prause, Mike Thomas, Steve Sawyer, and Nick Pinto. They feel that the Pirates have been their toughest opponent, but would most like to beat the Cougars because they almost knocked them off earlier. The strong point for the Bees this year has been desire and trying their best, even when outgunned.

The Viking offense relies heavily on the running game, with inactive QB Jason Kostanski running up the middle, and Kent Esquivel and speedy Roland Arnold rounding out the backfield. In passing situations, both Kostanski and heavy Ryan Howard take turns looking for Miguel Lagos or Jason Arnold to get open. Their offense runs behind the line of Rafael Haro, Jason Arnold, Ken Irizarry, Hugo Orellana, Carlos Ferniza, and Rich Lind. Rafael Haro handles the kickoffs, and Jason Kostanski the punts. On the defensive side of the ball, Joe Herman, Jason Arnold, Ken Irizarry, Kent Esquivel, Ruben Cornejo, and Carlos Ferniza play hard. The Vikes feel that the Locusts have been their toughest opponent and would like to beat them on Turkey Day because they are a solid team that plays hard. They attribute their successes to sportsmanship, teamwork, attendance, and coaching. Good luck to both of these teams, and congratulations on all of the effort you put into the season. There is no better mark of a winner than to never give up!

1989 NBC ALL-AMERICANS

The players listed below have been honored by their teammates and coaches as football All-Americans. They were selected based upon more than just skill. More important than being a good athlete are the qualities of dependability and commitment which are shown in good game and practice attendance, good sportsmanship at all times, always giving your best effort, and having a good attitude. We congratulate these players for their contributions to their teams.

THANKS TO THE CHEERLEADERS PARTY ON DECEMBER 16TH

We would like to thank the NBC Cheerleaders for all they do to add to the spirit of Thanksgiving. The girls practice very hard, working twice a week since October 7th! Now, they are all set to cheer for all of you no matter what the weather! After their fine Pep Rally performance, you can count on a job well done on Thursday. They have had a great deal of help from instructor Bonnie Weinstein, who has spent much of her time getting the group in top shape.

The annual Cheerleader party takes place at NBC on Saturday, Dec. 16th at 10:00 a.m. and will last until about 12:00-12:30. We'll have some games, pizza and pop, and a prize drawing as well as awarding the captains' trophies. Bring a treat if you like!

SHIRTS AND CUPS NEEDED FOR GAMES**

Players will have to wear their NBC team shirt and have their cup for every game, starting with today's pre-season openers. Without these items you'll have to watch the game, but will still get credit for attending.

Starting with the games of Sat. Dec. 2nd, all players will also have to have their numbers ironed on the backs of the shirts. The numbers will cost 50c each and go on sale after Thanksgiving.

WHEN USING THE GYM.

During the indoor season it is important for all members to keep a few things in mind when going over to Revere Park.

1. Do not walk through the dirt and mud when walking to the park or when coming back to the Club. Walk along the sidewalks or use the back door if it is open.
2. If your shoes are wet and/or muddy, you will not be allowed to play in your game. We also do not want you inside the Club. There is no reason to track mud into any building!
3. Go to Revere no more than 15 minutes before your game. Don't run around in the lobby or up and down the stairs, and behave if you are up in the balcony.
4. Do not bring pop, food, or candy into the fieldhouse or gym.

G.E.D. OFFERS OPPORTUNITY

The free G.E.D. Class which is run at NBC offers an opportunity for all parents, teens, and area residents to complete their high school education at a convenient location. The class meets each Tuesday and Thursday from 4:00 until 8:00 p.m. Cadet Bobcat mom Meg Collins is our top-notch instructor and would be happy to have you in her class! All that you have to do is come out to a class, take a short skills test, and you're ready to go. Stop by Tuesday night, and tell your friends.

TRIBE VIDEO CLUB BACK IN ACTION

Tribes members who are interested in joining the Video Club are welcome to come to the next meeting on Wed. Nov. 29th at 4:30. Coach Rex Pecoraro is getting the club started again after having taken a summer and coaching break. You might remember seeing the group taping some of your soccer and softball games, doing player interviews, taping a sports show in the gameroom, and doing bits at the Carnival. If you'd like to learn and have fun, see Rex on Wednesday.

THANKS FOR BULBS AND UPC SYMBOLS

We would like to thank some of our members and their families for bringing in some 100 watt light bulbs for our security lights as well as some Oscar Mayer UPC symbols. We are saving the symbols until Dec. 31st in the hopes of getting a free pitching machine for the 1990 season. Just drop off any donations of bulbs or symbols at the office!

Thanks to the Haslwanter's (7), Higgins' (5), Browns (4), and Banks' (3) for UPC's, and to the Brittons for light bulbs.

1988 THANKSGIVING DAY REVIEW

9:00 - Field 1 - The big showdown between the top Cadet teams ended in a 6-6 tie. The undefeated Pirates scored before the end of the first half when the league's leading scorer, Dean Hansen, capped a nice drive with a 3 yard run. The Locusts fought back in the 3rd on a great 60 yard romp by the number two scorer, Carl Abram. The defenses did the job the rest of the way and the Locusts became the first team to stop the Pirates from claiming a win.

9:00 - Field 2 - This game was an upset of sorts as the champion Locusts fell 13-0 to arch-rival and second place Pirates. Juan Duran, who led the league in scoring, got the Pirates going in the 3rd quarter with a 60 yard sweep around the right end, and the point after was added by Sergio Guevara. In the 4th, the Locusts' fate was sealed when Juan Duran picked off an ill-advised pass and returned it 35 yards for a 13-0 final. Mark Lamb and Geoff Taylor paced the Locust effort.

9:00 - Field 3 - This defensive battle saw the Falcons edge the Bobcats 6-0. The only points came in the 2nd quarter when Adrian Loza took the ball at the 9 yardline and raced around the left end. Neither team sustained a drive the rest of the way although they had some chances. Leading the Bobcats effort were Paul Sopanarat and Brian Skinner.

10:00 - Field 1 - The second Cadet game saw the hard-nosed Bobcats tie the speedy Falcons 6-6. The Falcons broke through in the 2nd quarter when Gabe Herezei sped 37 yards through the defense for a TD. Time was starting to work against the Bobcats but they persisted and drove down to the 4 yardline in the 4th quarter. It was from there that the Bobcats' Albert Viktor ran it in to tie the game.

10:00 - Field 2 - The Tribe Falcons and Vikings had a spirited contest which saw the Falcons pull it out 13-7. After a scoreless opening quarter, the Falcons punched it in when Milton Cardenas carried on a 2 yarder. In the 3rd, the Vikings struck when Ruben Rivera ran it in from the 3 yardline to knot the score, and Adam Taylor scored the extra point for a 7-6 lead. It went down to the 4th before the Falcons rallied for the gamewinner. The sblil was at the 6 when Milton Cardenas dropped back to pass and spotted Steve Schneider in the clear for a TD! Cardenas added the extra point and secured the win.

10:00 - Field 3 - The big Prep Championship game was played at 10:00, and the teams were intense. The Locusts were seeking their third straight football title, and the Pirates were out for their first. In the end, both teams went home happy in a scoreless tie, making them co-champions. The Locust effort was led by Nick Anagnopoulos and Matt Myers, and the Pirates by Greg Banks and Chris Wadley.

There will be three regular tourneys, and those who place in the top four of any single round plus those who come to at least two rounds whether they place or not will advance to the finals. Our Tuesday and Thursday Karate Class continues to go well as the members develop their skills while working toward the next belt. Two class members, John Morgan and Kelly Manzano, will be going up for their yellow belts next month. If you'd like to join, leave your name at the office. The class is currently filled, but we expect to add people soon. Already on the list are Mike Jotzat, Stefan Benteler, and Cliff Cline.

Those who worked out last week were Charlotte and Karl Holzinger, Brian Berndt, Kevin Schoenfelt, Meagan Myers, Thomas Rodriguez, Kelly Schoenfelt, Frank Boykin, Antonio Montalvo, Matt & Kelly Manzano, Dustin Jones, Todd Brown, Stephanie Moorehead, Jbhn Morgan, and Randall Bliznick.

THANKS TO OUR COACHES!

One of the biggest reasons we've had such a fine football season has been the dedication of our coaches. These volunteers have put in a great deal of time and effort into helping the players. Every player should be sure to thank his coaches after the big game on Thursday! These men gave up their free time to be at your games and practices, even when you did not want to show up, and did their best to teach and be fair to all. Many adults cannot get involved due to work schedules, and many more do not care to bother. The work of these men is a credit to the community. Thanks to:
