JUNIOR CHEETAHS vs. PUMAS FIELD 1 - 8:30 AM

By: Julie Dakers

The Junior Cheetahs and Pumas have both been relentless all season. Faith Hernandez, Tracy Flores, Jessica Staples, and Melissa Fett have really been on top of their offensive game. They have scored the majority of the goals for the Cheetahs this season. Nikki Bose and Tracy Flores have started every game off on the right foot with kickoffs. The Cheetahs are extremely happy with both their offense and defense for the season. On offense they pride themselves on every player being able to score. They are a constant threat because they never let up. If they miss a goal, they keep at it, and at it. The Cheetahs believe in only one motto and it shows through in every game, "take no prisoners." On defense the Cheetahs pride themselves on their "brick wall" defense, sounds kind of painful if you ask me.

Didi Mercado has come a long way from last year. She is has become more aggressive and it has paid off on defense. Melissa Fett will give any team a run for their money on offense with the help of Faith Hernandez who really puts the points away. Teresa Aguilar is as tough as they come, don't blink, she may pass you by. What would the Cheetahs do without Mariah? That girl really knows how to use her head. The starting line up for the Cheetahs for Thanksgiving is Faith Hernandez, Tracey Flores and Jessica Staples as midfielders, Melissa Fett and Didi Mercado on defense, Nikki Bose and Teresa Aguilar as forwards, and Jessalyn Ramirez as goalie. Glendalys Ramirez, Anaice Ayala, Mariah Madson, and Stephanie Gomez will be awaiting their turn at battle and cheering on their team. Thank you Stephanie and her ever enthusiatic parents for sticking through the season and being at EVERY game despite the broken finger for the majority of the season. It is people like you that make this job worth wild.

Many have described the competition between these two teams as all out war. The girls on both teams have had excellent sportsmanship all season, and every last one of them gives 110% on the field. Every play and every pass has much anticipation behind it, and everyone is on the edge of their lawn chairs (or the side line for those that cannot stay seated through all the excitement). For the Pumas Katelyn Krey, Thalia "Bob" Quinones, Sophia Kanoon, and Stephanie Jensen have scored the majority of the goals for the team this season. Rebecca Campbell has really stepped up and shown how aggressive she can be. Anyone who has seen the Pumas this season will tell you that Sioban Stahl is the all-star goalie for this team. Although it may not be her favorite position on the field she can punt that ball like no other. This team has worked together all season not just to win but to better themselves individually. Katie Butzen has really developed her dribble, while Katelyn Krey and Ileana Little have improved all around as players. Lauren Corso and Samantha Martorano have truly led this team in defense. Their starting lineup for Thanksgiving Day will be Katelyn Krey, Ileana Little and Sloban Stahl as midfielders, Sam Martorano and Lauren Corso, Sophia Kanoon, Stephanie Jensen, and Dana Hatter in goal.

Coach Glen Stahl is very proud of his girls and all of their achievements this season. I am not sure he could have expressed any clearer how much he loves these girls, "This is one of my favorite teams I have coached." The Pumas enjoy being teammates, win or lose. But they have waited all season and come very close, and on "thanksgiving day it will finally be our time." This game should be awesome to say the least.

TRIBE BOBCATS vs. FALCONS FIELD 2 - 8:30 AM

By: Sergio Solis

The second game on field two of the Tribes is going to feature the Tribe first half Champions Spartans versus the second half Champions Bees. These two first-place teams squared off against each other five times this season. Twice in the first half and three times in the second half, the Spartans won one of the two meetings in the first half and the other ended in a tie, in the second half each team won one of the two meetings between each other. At the end of the regular season both teams ended up tied for first place which forced us to have a playoff game last Saturday on picture day. This game was the closest game of the year in the Tribe League as both teams were held scoreless at the end of regulation by two outstanding defenses, which forced us to go into overtime and the Bees finally ended the scoreless game and came away with a victory and better yet they came away second half champions. But the Bees aren't done yet as they have only ended up in a tie for first place one more time, and on Thanksgiving Day we will finally find out who will be crowned the Tribe Champions.

The Spartans are led by a couple of first time football coaches here at the Boys and Girls Club, Ronald James and Nick Abernathy. Both have done an outstanding job developing and teaching two groups of guys that were combined at the beginning of the season and had never played together. On the field the Spartans are led by two All-Americans the Captains of the team Dwayne Pillow and Kevin Surzynski, and neither one of these guys is to vocal but they lead their team by example by making the beautiful play, or catch, or throw, or with those amazing hits. On offense the Spartans had the most success this year running most of their plays out of the shot-gun and the split back formation, and of course when they had the heavy-back Kevin as quarterback. Most of the Spartans success is due to the fact of their great passing game, and when they pass that also sets up their running game. Most of their passing duties are handled by another All-American Richard Padilla and of course Kevin. When these two guys drop back to pass their usually looking for their All-American wide out Axel Salvador who can burn you right off the line and get behind the defense, or their other equally dangerous receivers like Michael Abernathy, Nelson Rosario, or Joel Uriostegul who lines up as tight end, and Miguel DeLeon who lines up as a both a wide out and in the backfield as a running back. The Spartans backfield is led by Kevin Curtis who is a small quick and shifty runner who can break a bunch of tackles for a little guy, also Axel, Miguel and Michael get their share of handoffs. None of the Spartans success could be possible without all the big men up front who led the blocks, led by All-American Danny Mazon, Dwayne, Richard Ayala, Jeremy Kuri, Vincent Millwood, Sean Stahl, Hector Garza, and the "tardy" Edwin Rodriguez. But aside from the offense these guys defense is outstanding and the great thing is that everybody contributes on defense and they always seem to come away with the big play.

The Bees squad is led by a couple of veteran coaches who led their Bee team to the championship last year, Tony Watts and Danny Jenkins. These two guys have done a great job with a group of guys who at times looked a little undersized but they proved that they have the hearts of champions. The team is led by two their two All-American Captains Dante Sabel and Kevin Beck. On offense the quarterback Dante, who is a very fast and deceptive runner out of the backfield on those QB sneaks, leads the Bees. When Dante drops back to pass he is usually looking for his primary receiver All-American David Donahue, Michael O'Connell, Sean Gschwind, William Eigenfeld, and Danny Lowe who also run the ball out of the back field. But without a doubt the Bees have the best backfield in the Tribe League led by two All-American running backs who are both outstanding runners Oscar McAdams and Troy Brundidge. Oscar who is more of power runner who is very quick once he gets the ball outside can put a hit on any wannabe tacklers, Troy is equally as good as he gains most of his yardage with his blazing speed and his great moves in the open field. But the two running backs have to acknowledge the fact that are of their yards are made possible by there amazing offensive line led by Miguel Guerra, Lorne Rodriguez, Sean Eigenfeld, Stuart Whitmore, Humberto Hurtado, Johnny Bastidas, David Donahue, and Kevin Beck probably one of the best blockers in the league. The defense is just as amazing as the coach put it "No matter what this team always gives me 110%." I expect to see one of the most intense games in NBGC history and I guarantee neither team will go done without a fight and neither team will stop until the final whistle is blown.

PREP SPARTANS vs. EAGLES FIELD 3 - 8:30 AM

By: Tim Ward

The first game of the day is between the Spartans and the Eagles. The Spartans are the champions of this year. The Spartans are coaches by Phil Jensen, Joe Sanfelippo, and Joe Vaughn. The Spartans players consist of Sammy Jensen who is the left wide receiver and right safety on defense, Joshua Amaya who is the left tackle and defensive tackle, Jovan Colon who is the left guard and defensive guard, Daniel Kelly who controls the snaps and defensive end, Joey Vaughn Jr. plays right guard and defensive guard, Rodney Stephens plays right tackle and on defense left linebacker, Bobby Miller plays tight end on offense and left linebacker on defense, Eric Silva plays right wide receiver and left comerback on defense, Eddie "touchdown" Ortiz plays quarterback and on defense right comerback, Eddie Mercado plays running back and left safety on defense, Billy Miller plays running back and middle linebacker, and last but no least is Thomas Wilson who plays right tackle and defensive tackle. The Spartans run their offense out of the "Tripps" and the "Single Back Tripps" formations. The Spartans have been noted as a running team and when they run the ball they call on Eddie Ortiz because of his quickness and his power, they also use Eddie Mercado for his slashing swifty moves. The other ruinning back they call on is Billy Miller because of his overall power. When it comes to passing the Spartans have the connection of Eddie Ortiz looking for Eric Silva downfield. Daniel Kelly handles all of the kicks and punts for the Spartans. One of the Spartans greatest memories was this season going undefeated 12-0. The Spartans feel that their toughest opponent was the Eagles because they picked up on a lot of their plays and made it hard for the Spartans to put points on the board.

The Eagles on the other and have come a long way this season due to a lot of hard practice. The Eagles are coached by Nick Novich. The Eagles players consist of Jake Hannet who is the left wide receiver and cornerback on defense, Jairo Clara is left tackle and defensive end, Noe Medina plays left guard and defensive tackle, Jonathan Del Valle plays center and inside linebacker, Michael Embrey plays right guard and defensive tackle, Valente Contreras plays right tackle and defensive end, Matt Harder plays tight end and inside linebacker, Carlos Paiz plays right wide receiver and safety on defense, Mars Monarch plays quarterback and cornerback on defense, Jarred Garcia plays running back and outside linebacker, and Greg Artim also plays running back and outside linebacker. As for the subs for the Eagles they are Joshua Cuevas who plays left guard and defensive tackle, Jeremy Olvera plays right guard and inside linebacker, Ismael Rodriguez plays tackle and defensive tackle, Dashiell Stewart plays wide receiver and cornerback, and last but not least Ryan Stevens plays guard and defensive end. The Eagles offense works out of the "T" and "I" formations. When they call a running play they usually call upon Greg Artim because of his slashing abilities and Carlos Paiz because of his speed and his shifting abilities. When the Eagles call upon a passing play they have Mars Monarch look for Matt Harder. Jairo Clara is the Eagles main kicker. The Eagles coach was very proud of this years team saying "These kids worked and practices very hard and they showed tremendous improvement over the last year and their enthusiasm is very gratifying." The Eagles feel that there toughest opponent was the Spartans because they are very disciplined and they have very good fundanmentals. This should be a very exciting game to watch on Turkey Day i wish the best to both teams.

(Call Dec. 19th)

DON'T FORGET TO CALL US...WE CANNOT CALL ALL OF YOU!

THANK YOU TO OUR COACHES

One of the most important pieces of a football team is the coaching staff. They are the guiding force, the ones who provide Leadership and Discipline. They are asked to teach, in their coaching and example, the very ideals upon which NBGC was founded in 1931 - hard work, discipline, fairness and loyalty. Thanks to this special group the NBGC idea continues to work 70 years later.

We should all be grateful for the time and effort of the coaches, doing their best for every single member of the team. The attitude of fair play and sportsmanship is one which should be carried onto the field by every player. As adults we can only hope that the atmosphere we have tried to create at NBGC will stay with them once they leave our fields.

JUNIOR WILDCATS vs. ANGELS FIELD 1 - 9:45 AM

By: Julie Dakers

The Angels will go head to head in the second game of the morning with the Wildcats. The two teams have had some great games this year. Many are holding their breath praying that the Wildcats win so that Coach Pat Kane can finally shave. As reported earlier in the season Pat warned that he would not shave his beard until his team won a game. Tieing was not enough to get him to shave but it did get him to dye it. The Wildcats are determined to come out and have a great time whether they win or lose. Thanksgiving is looking to be their day in the sun. The Wildcats are pumped and have really come a long way this season as a team. The starting line up for Thanksgiving for the Wildcats is Leslie Annis, Alexis Gibson, and Crystal Rivera at Midfield, Gisela Ayala and Hayley Flaherty on Defense, and Chelsea Gschwind and Megan McCarthy as Forwards, and Amanda Kane in goal. Ky-Tai Nguyen, Ashley Weber, Amanda Golec, Hilda and Yesenia Solano, and Anne Gallery will be the reserves ready to come in for battle.

The Wildcats have worked very hard throughout the season to improve themselves individually and as a team. Amanda Kane has done an awesome job of blocking shots while in goal this year and Crystal Rivera has improved her game greatly overall. On offense the Wildcats strengths are Chelsea Gschwind, Megan McCarthy, and Yesenia Solano. On defense Gisela Ayala, Haley Flaherty, Anne Gallery, and Hilda Solano have been key players.

The Angels really worked hard to make themselves the team that they are. They came together from a team who had never played together, many of the players never having even played soccer before to having a remarkable season. It was a season of learning and hard work, but they really had fun doing it. The whole team has really learned to pass more and utilize the other teammates on the field. Samra Pecanin was very she when she came to the Angels this Fall but she has really learned to communicate with her teammates, both on and off the field. Vanessa Yanes use to not pay much attention on defense, but with a little yelling from Coach Tracy Yanes, also known as mom, she has really improved. Alex Randle loves to play goalie, but she really stepped up and learned to work with her teammates when put as midfielder.

The starting line up for the Angels, to get them off on the right foot, is going to be Klara Soto, Karina Goldvarg, and Mariam Cuzco as midfielders, Samra Pecanin and Roxanna Mendoza on defense, Diana Uriostegui and Esther Poswal as forwards, and Kathi Jensen in goal. Veronica Ziomek, Chantel Duda, Vanessa Yanes, Raquel Flores, and Alex Randle will be cheering on their starters as they rev themselves up to play. One of the Angels strongest points on the season is team attendance. It has really helped them stay energized on the field.

TRIBE SPARTANS vs. BEES FIELD 2 - 9:45 AM

By:

Opening on the Tribe field for Thanksgiving Day is a game that is sure to be a thriller between the Bobcats and the Falcons. The defense has dominated most of the regular season meetings between these opponents. This game is liable to go down to the last whistle considering the fact that most of the games between the Bobcats and Falcons have been won by a margin of less than a touchdown. Both of these teams have arguably some of the best linebackers in the league. These two defenses will try to shut down each other's offense in route to a Turkey Bowl victory.

Jesus De La Rosa and Victor Almodovar coach the Tribe Bobcats. Demonstrating leadership for the Bobcats are Captain Justin Watmough and Co-Captain Marco De La Rosa. Most of there plays come from the Pro and I Slot formations. They have gained the most yardage from outside runs and short passing. Their top runners are slashing Alex Ropel and powerful Wilfredo Gonzales. Leading the Bobcats offensive push is definitely a strong offensive line powered by Justin, Marco, Phillip Santos, Joseph Cihak, Lucas De La Rosa, Patrick Perkins, and Antonio Arana. And when Jessie Colon drops backs looking to pass his primary receivers are usually the speedy Sean Barnes, reliant Tug Enkhbat, and "alwaysopen" Wilfredo. The Bobcats points have come mostly from Joey Cihak and Alex Ropel. Joey and Justin are in charge of the kicking duties. Coach De La Rosa believes that his team learned a very important lesson on commitment, it being the key for team unity.

The Falcon coaches are Goeff Laughlin and Tom Geraghty. Leading by example is Captain Brian Waslik and Co-Captain Nick Chovanec. The Flacons plays are from the Shotgun formation and their most successful plays have been in the air. Airing it out are usually Michael Kelly or Nick Chovanec, usually under the ball is primary receiver Brian Waslik and "great hands" Sean Geraghty. When handing the ball off the Falcons are looking for yardage from the very quick Mike Claudio and the shifty Mike Kelly. The Mike's give the Falcons speed and agility as a running back combination, complimented by an equally fast and mobile Joey Haderlein. The touchdown leader for the Falcons is Mike Claudio. This strong defense is lead by their potent defensive line, which includes Alvarro Valle, Eric Medrano, Anthony Ferrara and Enzo Navarro. The Falcons pride themselves on their great coverage on passes, and ultimately the best linebacker combination in the league, expect to get rocked by one of this trio including Brian Waslik, Nick Chovanec, and "big man" Dan Guttierez. This game will be a battle to the end for sure. One of these teams will prevail and win this Thanksgiving Day clash of defenses. This game each player will be giving his all on the final and most crucial game of the season. Congratulations on a great season and good luck!

KARATE PROGRAM BEGINS

The NBGC Program is in full swing practicing their moves on Tuesdays from 6:00-7:00 in the NBGC Small Gym and on Thursdays from 6:00-7:00 at the Revere Park Fieldhouse. PREP LOCUSTS vs. BOBCATS FIELD 3 - 9:45 AM

By: Tim Ward

The second game of the day is going to be between the Locusts and the Bobcats. The Locust are coached by Chuck Stiles, Dennis Hearn, and Billy Winters. the players consist of Mesial who plays left wide receiver and defensive tackle, Chris Brundige who plays left tackle both ways, Miguel Osterling who plays left guard and middle linebacker, Russell Geschrey who plays center and right guard, Patrick McCarthy who plays right guard and right tackle, Jimmy "scooter" Lauletta who plays right tackle and left guard, Derek Hearn who plays tight end and cornerback, Kevin Ogunjimi who plays running back and left cornerback Scott Krier who plays quarterback and outside linebacker, Jared Stiles who plays running back and outside linebacker, Tommy Nickels who plays running back and free safety, and Michael Prodromos who plays left guard and right tackle. The Locusts run out of the "T" formation and feel that their most successful play is the pitch. The Locusts runnigbacks are Jared Stiles who is known for his shifting abilities never gives up, and Scott Krier who is very powerful up the middle. When the Locust call a passing play they usually look for Derek Hearn who runs good routes and has good hands. Patrick McCarthy and Michael Prodromos handle most of the kicking responsibilities. The Locust feel they their toughest oppnent was the Bees because they matched up well and it was anybodies game.

The Locust have a tough challenge against the up and coming Bobcats. The Bobcats had a rough first half but came out firing in the second half. The Bobcats are coached by Mike Cooney and Bill McClure. The players consist of Nick Parrada who plays left wide receiver and cornerback, Max Pizzi who plays left tackle and defensive guard, Sean Keil who plays left guard and defensive guard, Greg Orlich who plays center and defensive tackle, Eric McClure who plays right guard and defensive end, Todo Erdenbyleg who plays right tackle and defensive tackle, Michael Cooney who plays tight end and linebacker, Antwan Sanders who plays right wide receiver, Omni Jiminez who plays quarterback and linebacker, Bill Miller who plays running back and linebacker, Jacob Rivera who plays running back and defensive end, Omnipence "Little O" Jiminez Jr. who plays center and defensive tackle, Derrell Williams who plays wide receiver and cornerback, Eli Tullis who plays left tackle and defensive guard, Timmy McNamara who plays wide receiver and cornerback, and Arthur Pike who plays left guard and defensive guard. The Bobcats work out of a two tight end set with one back. When they call upon a running play they look for Omni Jiminez who is a shifty take it outside runner, and Bill Miller who is a power knock you down runner. The Bobcats favorite plays to run are the quarterback sweep and the running back dive. One of the Bobcats best memory was having 11 kids with a real love for football who never quit even though the deck was stacked against them. This should be an interesting and exciting game to watch, we wish the best to both teams.

PEBBLE TWISTERS vs. PUMAS FIELD 1 - 11:00 AM

By: Julie Dakers

There is no other way that we can describe the season that the Pebble Pumas have had other then 100% fun all the way through. The girls are lively and enthusiastic and no matter whether they win or lose, they still all have smiles on their faces. Their attitude is contagious and coach Cristina has definitely been a victim of it, "they make me want to act young and crazy!" Cristina feels that they will definitely prevail over the Twisters on Thanksgiving Day because not only are they fun loving, but fast and aggressive. "We may look harmless, but don't count us out! The Pumas always catch their prey!" The Pumas know how to have fun while being serious at the same time. Defintely a well rounded team.

Some of the girls ran in and signed up for soccer on the very first day of registration. Others like Stephanie Benitez and Cassle Kielnik took a little longer to debate. In the end they decided to join and have enjoyed every minute since. Denise Hearn takes such pride in her team uniform that one day even when I told her she could play without her socks, she told me no. If she could not look like everyone else on her team she was not going to play. That is team pride for you. The Pumas strengths on offense are Kelly Ford with her aggressiveness and Sky Cubacub with her great a ball control. On defense Erica Arce can clear any ball while Michelle Weber has saved them many times in the goal, even when she takes a shot in the stomach. The girls have worked hard throughout the season. They take practice very seriously. Julia Rodriguez has worked hard and improved greatly in her ball control. Meaghan Buino is always excited to play and has really improved on defense, while Elizabeth Pulido has improved her speed, defense, and kicking. Erica Arce, Rossette Reynolds, and Julia Rodriguez each managed to score one goal during the season. The starting line up for the Pumas will be Kelly Ford, Chloe Rhodes, Sky Cubacub as midfielders, Erica Arce and Elizabeth Pulido on defense, Julia Rodriguez and Rosette Reynolds as forwards, and Michelle Weber as goalie. Supporting them on the sidelines and on the field in full force will be Denise Hearn, Cassie Kielnik, Meaghan Buino, and Stephanie Benitez.

The driving force behind the Twisters is their ever so enthusiatic parents. When Claudia Cox scored a goal ealier, the sideline of parents could not contain themselves and rushed the field. The are also my number one recruiters. The Twisters basketball team was filled on the first day of registration. The starting line up for the Twisters on Thanksgiving is Andrea Short, Jessica Anetsberger, and Taylor Miller as Midfielders, Margaret Coad and Carly Arens on defense, Lila Perri and Anastasia Protopappas as forwards, and Monica Hurtado in Goal. This team has been warriors all season. Whether rain or shine they were here ready to play. Andrea Short showed us that soccer is all that matters when she took a nose dive, earlier in the season, into a mud puddle that was about 10 feet around and about 5 inches deep. Not a pretty sight but she walked away and was back in the game in minutes. It is synonomous with Coach Todd Renn's quote, "sweet girls on the sidelines, tigers on the field." The Twisters pride themselves on their original defensive and offensive plays. Their offense is better known as "don't est stoppay" and their defense is the "wall of china." Do not ask me what either means but they work for them.

This team is one of a kind. The surrounded me on picture day to make sure that they would stay together as a team. Do we think that I would dare think of splitting them up, that is a death wish if I ever had one. The Twisters have really worked hard every week in practice to improve themselves. Carly Arens has come a long way with her passing, Margaret Coad and Andrea Short are two people that the Pumas will definitely have to look out for, because they will steal the ball from right under your nose. Stephanie Contreras and Monica Hurtado have really come a long way on defense. Monica is on her toes in goal ready for anything that comes her way. April Goldvarg, Haley Dempsey, and Kristen Kattner have done a fantastic job coming off the bench this season. They have been that extra boost of energy that the team needs during the long stretch of the game.

CADET BEES vs. EAGLES FIELD 2 - 11:00 AM

By: Brian Wright

The first Cadet matchup is between the defending champion Bees and the always strong Eagles who just fell short of making the Turkey Bowl a championship game. Both teams came into this season with high hopes and determination, each knowing how to win because of the tough defensive presence that they hold. But be aware, each team has the potential to break open a big run out of nowhere!

The Eagles are coached by Jimmy McDonald, Luis Salinas, and Tom Seegert, but when it is time for business the offense is led by QB and Captain Dylan Hicks who usually works out of the split back Pro-set formation. When Co-Captain Marty Haderlein is called on to run he combines excellent slashing cuts with great breakaway speed, Reggie henderson is another back who moves just like Sweetness himself combing power and speed, Darian Garcia is a back you better stop or else he'll find a hole and run for the endzone, and the last threat to this lethal running game is Bryan Del Prado who can whip around a corner and get upfield in a hurry. Now this phenominal running game would be nothing without the biggest offensive line in the league. Leading the charge on offense and defense is the Center Oscar Samayoa, Guards Chris Gonzalez and Jeremiah Vasquez, Tackles David Flores and Franklin Maldonado, and bringing up the ends on passes and sweeps are Tyler Seegert, Erik Zuehlke, Giovanni Salinas, and Timmy Jensen, all are quick and exceptional blockers!

As for the Bees, well they are a pretty balanced team this season with their new found air attack and their dominating running game. Coaches Dan McCarthy and Jim Potter tried to mix it up a little and be a little different. The offense is led by QB Sean McCarthy who is a power runner, but scrambles and throws the deep pass like no other (just ask Coach McCarthy who could have had a heart-attack watching him scramble). But when it is time to take to the air McCarthy looks to the surehanded Sam Hobert, Co-Captain Gary Dickerson, Zach Wright, or Jake Poliszczuk, all run great patterns! Unfortunately the Bees had a great running game also which helped make them almost unstopable. Leading the way was Captain Tommy Kane and Kyle Potter who would run behind their blockers slashing through the defense with speed. Bringing up the line was Center Gary Dickerson, Steve Lewkowycz, Gabriel McDonagh, and Cesar Perez at Guards, Andrew Begun and Sam Hobert at Tackles, and at Tight Ends Pat O'Connell and Andre Morsy.

Even though this game isn't for a championship Coach Dan McCarthy will tell his boys never under estimate the Eagles because they can break open a play at anytime and because they are the only defense that has held the Bee's offense this season. Look for this game to be full of surprises!

PREP FALCONS VS. BEES FIELD 3 - 11:00 AM

By: Kevin Ward

The third game of the day is between the Prep Bees and the Prep Falcon. This game is going to be very exciting and will keep everyone's eyes glued to the field. The Bees are coached by Dennis McNally, Curt Annis, Bill Nowak and Charlie Brown and are proudly led by Captain Mitchell Annis and Co-Captain Dylan Gschwind. Their offense and defense is made up by Chris Hodges at left wide receiver and safety, Tim Brown at left tackle, Ronald Jotzat at left guard and middle linebacker, Mitchell Annis at center and linebacker, Adrian Brown at right guard, Mark Pyke at right tackle, Matt McCarthy at tight end and right guard, Donnie Butzen at right wide receiver and right end, Matt Nowak and Brian Jotzat at running back and line backers, with Dylan Gschwind leading the pack at quarterback and safety. Eddle Pallares, Nick Haderlein and Yoran Shawan take over the line on offense and dominate the line as well on defense. The team has worked the best out of the "I" formation running the "46" play on offense. Brian Jotzat and Donnie Butzen put the defense in a tizzy with Brian's power running and Donnie's allusiveness. Dylan Gschwind handles most of the passing duties with great receivers to help him out. Chris Hodges quickness and Matt McCarthy's good hands make the opponents think really hard about leaving one of them open. The offensive linemen Ronnie Jotzat and defensive linemen Tim Brown and Nick Haderlien standout among the team for making big plays and getting the job done. Their strengths include running out of power "i", team tackling, and kicking and feel Eddie Pallares, Mark Pyke and Adrian Browne have shown the most improvement in blocking and tackling this season. The Bees favorite memory was the getting their first win after Donnie Butzen broke free for a long touchdown run. They say they've improved all year long and this is the game they've been shooting for!

The Falcons are coached by Michael Solis and Jaime Solis. They're led into battle by Captain Erik Solis and Co- Captain Raul Solis. Their dazzling offense and tight defense is made up by Anthony Barrero at left wide receiver and cornerback, Omar Olmo at left tackle and linebacker, Javier Reyes at center, Hector Rivera at right guard and defensive end, Edwin Jimenez at right tackle and defensive end, Antolino Contreras at right wide receiver and linebacker, Raul Solis and William Ortiz occupy the running back and linebacker spots, and Erik Solis is the man in charge at quarterback and safety. Their offense mainly works out of the "I" formation and wishbone, and sweeps to both ends of the field with William Ortiz and Antolino Contreras are the most effective. Erik Solis handles most of the passing duties with the speedy William Ortiz and the great hands of Antolino Contreras and Raul Solis to help him out. William Ortiz and Antolino Contreras handle kick offs and linemen Richard and Javier Reyes leading the pack with tackles and blocks. Their speed and blocking on offense and their ability to stop the run on defense have helped this team succeed. All of their players showed a a great deal of improvement on both sides of the ball and their favorite memory was their first win because thats what jump started the teams confidence. They say this game will be important but they exspect to come out on top because they will play with all their heart.

PEBBLE WILDCATS vs. ALIENS FIELD 1 - 12:00 AM

By: Julie Dakers

The Pebble Aliens have had a great season. The team has worked together as a cohesive unit from day one. The whole team has put together an enormous amount of effort, especially the team captains Alexandra Hicks-Hardiman and Ashley Davila. Working together is the number one factor in such a great seaso. In addition they have had great offensive and defensive efforts. Two of their key formations that they use on offense are the split-zone offense and the 2-minute attack. Other teams stand little chance against their defense. Between their two goalies Colleen Prendergast and Irene Okubo who have both had shut out seasons, and the Aliens "wall defense" the Wildcats will have a tough battle to face on Thanksgiving day.

The Aliens have faced many obstacles throughout the season but have worked together to overcome them. They will openly admit that the Wildcats were their most challenging opponent during the first half, due to their aggressiveness and many skilled players. The Twisters however really showed in the second half their team speed, which paid off in keeping the ball away from their goal. The most commendable statement about the Aliens came from their coach Tom Seegert; "The Pebble Aliens have demonstrated what the perfect meaning of the word TEAM really is. They have great self-esteem, excellent communication, value their teammates, think positive and never argue. They make sacrifices for one another. These kids are all heart. This has been a coaches dream and our season shows for it!" I really do not think that anyone could have said it better.

The Aliens will go head to head against the Wildcats on Thanksgiving. The starting line up for the Aliens will be Alex Mendoza, Ashley Davila, and Yesenia Valadez at Midfieldm Jessica Klenck, and Irene Okubo on Defense, Ashley Seegert and Alex Hicks-Hardiman as Forwards, and Colleen Predergast as Goalie. Daniell Hollowell, Angelica Alvarez, and Samantha Gonzalez will come in as midfielders, and Caitlin Ramirez and Tracilyn Hollowell will come in to help out as forwards.

The Wildcats came in a very close second in the first half, only one point away from the Aliens in the standing. They are determined to win Thanksgiving day. The teams main driving point to win on Thanksgiving, as stated by coach Frank Perez, is "their sure will to win." The girls really showed everyone their enthusiasm and energy this season. One thing that is known for sure, is that the Wildcats never give up.

The starting lineup for the Wildcats on Thanksgiving will be Erin Scheffler, Tiffany "Boo" Staples, and Vallerie Perez at Midfield, Victoria Cancio, and Josie Soto on Defense, Angelica Hernandez and Lisa Letona as forwards, and Lucy Cantu in goal. Subbing in for the Wildcats will be Carina Ragsdale, Sophie Braziunas, Yahira Ayala, Anais Cruz, and Jessica Letona. Vallerie Perez, Josie Soto, Boo Staples, and Angelica Hernandez had the oppurtunity to play together last year, but there are many new comers to the Wildcats team. Victoria Cancio becomes so involved in the game that it is virtually impossible to get her off the field during free subs. Carina Ragsdale has come out this season and really taken pride in her playing. She is the all around cheerleader and soccer player. Lisa and Jessica Letona are double trouble. Although they are not twins I have the worst time telling the two apart if they are not standing together. There may be no more Julle if I call Lisa Jess or Jess Lisa one more time! Sophie Braziunas may seem quiet and reserved, but the second she gets on the field that all changes. Boo, Angelica, Lisa, and Vallerie have worked very hard on offense and have scored the majority of the team's points this season. The team is all smiles no matter what time it is on a Saturday morning, especially Anias Cruz. Vallerie Perez and Lucy Cantu have really done a great job as captain's for the team this season. They were so excited about being captains that they showed up a week early for the captain's meeting...oops!

CADET SPARTANS vs. COUGARS FIELD 2 - 12:00 AM

By: Brian Wright

The second matchup in Cadet is between the Cougars and Spartans. These are two teams that have tremendous defenses, but struggled producing big numbers on offense. These teams have worked extremely hard all season, as they both plan to come out victorious because they want to end the season on a positive note with a victory!

The Cougars are a team with a lot of talent and work out of the Spread and Split-back formations. Their biggest plays this season have been the pitch and Qb draw. The leader on offense is the QB and Captain Conor Cooney who can shift and cut past defenders. The running backs are Michael Van Den Bosch who slashes with power and has great open-field speed and Anibal Rodriguez who is a pure power runner pounding through the defense. When Cooney looks to pass, his primay receivers are Sam Bieber, Tight End Adam McClure, Demetrius Williams, and Anthony Guidone, all have very good hands and know how to get open. The offensive line is led by lead blocker Marty Cooney at Tackle, Zack Johnson, Zachary Schmid, and Peter Savaria at Guards, Lucas Donaghue and Nikko Gonzalez at Tackles, and Rex Ruskauff at Center. This is a team that can never be counted out because of their "never say die" attitude, says coaches Mike Cooney and Bill McClure, who both did an excellent job with their team this season. Good luck on Thanksgiving!

Now the Spartans are another team with a tremendous amount of talent. Coaches Eloy Flores and Dan Gutterrez put a lot of hard work into developing a good offense and an even better defense. The Spartans are led on offense by QB Joey Faherty who is an excellent runner and passer. When the running game is called into action coach Flores calls on Thomas Hughes who can slash through a defense with grace and Michael Hatter who is a speed demon with the ability to get into the open field and breakaway for the endzone. The main receivers are Jack Souter who is aggressive is getting to the ball, Captain Ross Uhler who has great hand and can read the defense. Doing dirty work on the line on both sides of the ball and terrorizing offensive lines are Co-Captain Miguel Olivo at Center, Nick Mitter and Misael Ramirez at Guards, Alfredo Uriostegui, Michael Fernandez, Alex Young, and Alex Wiggins at Tackles. Playing the Tight End position was Roberto Martinez and Jonathan Mercado. All of these deserve most of the credit for opening the holes. Coach Flores believes his team will win on T-Day because they work as a

The best of luck to both teams on Thanksgiving, we'll be rooting for youl

DISCOVERY UPDATE

By Carlos Mendoza

The Discovery program is for 1st and 2st grade children that are interested in having fun This program Is free of charge and runs all year until the summer. Some of the programs that the Discovery program offers is field trips, arts and crafts, instructional sports, and lots of fun for the children. Any children interested in our program can come on Wednesday from 3:30-5:30 and Saturday 11:30-1:30.

On Wednesday November 17, we had a great turnout of Discovery kids. We started off the program by making sand bottles. Each kid received a bottle and filled it up with different color sand. We then headed to the gym to play dodge ball. Kaylin and Rosanna were captains and picked players for their team. The game was very close but Rosanna's team cam away with the victory. Both teams played well and had fun. We then ran basketball activities, so they could improve their basketball skills. We practiced on our free throws and lay ups. After that activity we went into the Discovery room. We played 7-up with all the kids. As the end of the day was nearing, we went to the game room. The kids enjoyed playing board games, watched T.V, or were involved in game room tournaments. Those coming out for Discovery today were Liam Mulchrone, Rosanna Mulchrone, Ivan Cancel, Rachel Zabilka, Kaylin Ragsdale, Renee Haderlein, Audrey Haderlein, Jose R., Jose Virola, Vanessa Hemandez, Adrian Hernandez, Rebecca Reynoso, Jamal Fletcher and Trent Orr. I also want to remind all the parents that we will not have Discovery on Wednesday November 21 and Saturday November 24, Thanksgiving week. The next day, the Discovery program will meet is on Wednesday, December 5.
